

Dungog Dressage Hearts and Hooves Training Morning

16th Feb 2025 111 Anambah Rd Rutheford 8am to 12

Liz Mudd

Lessons/Protocol Sessions with Liz Mudd EA Coach, Liz

Mudd has been teaching riders of all ages from beginners to advanced for many years with an emphasis on ensuring riders have good solid basic skills to build on. . She has the runs on the board for producing riders and horses to FEI International level. Liz excels at giving her student the tools to train and the confidence to produce their own horses. A passionate, encouraging, and caring coach, Liz loves to see her students progressing towards their chosen goals whether that goal is to attend their first pony club competition or their debut at FEI level. Liz is a Equestrian Australia accredited Level 1 Dressage Coach.

Anna-Charlotte Kennedy.

Lessons/Protocol Sessions with Anna-Charlotte

Kennedy was originally from Sweden and has ridden, competed, and worked in some of the best stables in Europe and the USA. Upon arrival in Australia in 2012, Anna immediately landed a job with one of Australia's best known and respected showjumping stables where she worked and trained for two years. She also decided she wasn't leaving Australia!

Nic Chipperfield

Lessons/Protocol Sessions with Nic Chipperfield

Nic Chipperfield is an Equestrian accredited Level 1 General Coach with many years of high level eventing and dressage riding experience.

Nic has a natural affinity with bringing out the best in both horse and rider and will build your confidence whatever your discipline. She is an enthusiastic and encouraging coach and will take your horse through the paces no matter what level you are riding at.

Deb Mills

Lessons/Protocol Sessions with Deb Mills

Level 1 Dressage Coach & FEI Rider with many years of experience at adult riding club, pony club and with amateur owner dressage riders.

Valentines Day theme pink/red/purple/hearts, no plaiting required

Small prizes for best dressed!

Low pressure environment , no scoring, focus is on improvement and encouragement perfect for nervous nellys first timers or horses first outing, or to practice tests in a competition environment.

Food vans with coffee and light lunches/snacks