Dear Applicant:

The Centro de Comunidad y Justicia (CCJ), announces that applications for the Lynd Hoover Scholarship Program for the Fall of 2018 are currently available. These scholarships are available from funds provided to CCJ by the Lynd Hoover Scholarship Endowment.

The purpose of the fund is to provide college, university and vocational and technical school scholarships to the children of migrant seasonal farmworkers who reside in Idaho and Malheur, Harney, Grant, and Baker Counties in Oregon.

Scholarship awards in amounts ranging from $500 to $1,000 will be awarded to both first time college bound students, and current college students continuing their education.

Idaho and Eastern Oregon residents or their parents, who are, or have been farm workers, and who will be a college student during the 2018-2019 school year are strongly encouraged to apply.

All eligible students, regardless of their legal status in the U.S., may apply. The deadline for submitting applications is Wednesday, May 1st, 2019, with awards announced by May 15th, 2018. All application material must be received by the deadline. Incomplete scholarship packets will not be considered.

Paz y Justicia,

Sam Byrd
