

JOHN H. FINEGAN
May 16, 2010

JOHN H. "JACK" FINEGAN (68), passed away on May 16, 2010 at his home in Chester, with his family at his side.

A Funeral Mass will be celebrated at St. Lawrence the Martyr Church; Main Street, Chester, on Saturday May 22, 2010 at 11AM. Interment will follow at Pleasant Hill Cemetery, Chester. Friends may call at the Wm. A. Bradley & Son Funeral Home; 345 Main Street, Chatham, on Thursday from 3-5PM and 7-9PM.

Jack was born in Brooklyn on June 20, 1941 and raised in Garden City, Long Island, and Chester.

He attended St. Bernard's School in Chester; was a graduate of St. Peter's Prep in Peekskill, New York, and the American Academy of Funeral Service in New York City.

He was a funeral director for over 40 years, a majority of which was with Wm. A. Bradley Funeral Home in Chatham.

Jack always loved sports and was a varsity athlete in football, basketball, and baseball. He also played baseball for the Chester Eagles and was a coach for several years with the Chester Little League.

Jack was a member of Harkers Hallow Golf Club and spent his leisure time being a "gentleman farmer" and being with his grandchildren.

Jack is survived by his wife Mary; his children Cathy Beck and her husband Gregory; John H., Jr. and his wife Francesca; his cherished grandchildren Taylor, Sean, and Ashlee Beck; and Claire, Emilie, and Grace Finegan. He is also survived by his beloved brother- and sister-in-law; nieces; nephews; his brother James E. Finegan of Las Vegas, Nevada; and many dear friends and colleagues.

Those who wish may contribute in his memory to either . . .

The Chester First Aid Squad

Post Office Box 337
Chester, New Jersey 07930

or

The Chester Township PBA

Post Office Box 705
Chester, New Jersey 07930