Questions for Discussion & Reflection

II Timothy 4:9-22

1. How does Paul define his calling (I Timothy 1:1, 11)? How does he define our calling (II Timothy 1:9, compare II Corinthians 5:20)?
2. What is a "Dead Sea" Christian? Are you in danger of becoming one? Who is looking up to you? Is what they are seeing in you worth looking up to?
3. Read I Timothy 1:2. What are "grace, mercy & peace?" How can those things change your life?
4. How did Paul live before Timothy (II Timothy 1:3)? Can you say the same?
5. Read I Thessalonians 2:8. How does Paul share with Timothy? Are you doing the same? How can you pursue this sort of relationship?
6. How can the example of Timothy's grandmother Lois and mother Eunice inspire you? (Read II Timothy 1:5, Acts 16:1)
7. How does verse II Timothy 1:13 connect to mentoring?
8. Read Luke 9:23-26. How is Paul seeing the fulfillment of these words?
9. What is our usual reaction to suffering? How can we change our perspective to align more with Scripture? (II Timothy 1:12, Luke 9:23, 26; I Peter 4:16; James 5:10, Philippians 1:29)
10. How does the knowledge that Christ gave us a spirit of power, love & self-control shape our lives (II Timothy 1:7)? How can we apply this verse?
11. As Paul took time to pray for Timothy (I Timothy 1:3b), take some time to devote to earnest prayer for those who may be following you.
