WASHED IN THE WORD
BIBLICAL MATURATION THROUGH BIBLICAL SATURATION

Joshua Chapters 13-19

Standing on the Promises

I. God remembers His _____ (Joshua 13:1-8).

   A. God _____ what seems forgotten (Joshua. 13:1-7; 1 Thessalonians 4;16-18).

   B. God _____ what was once granted (Joshua 13:8-33).

II. God remembers His _____ (Joshua 19:1 & 9; Genesis 29:32, 49:3-7, 34:1-31; 2 Chronicles 15:9).

III. God remembers our _____ (Joshua 16:4; Genesis 49:10).

IV. God remembers His _____ (Joshua. 19:51; Proverbs 16:33; Numbers 13:14; Genesis 48:12-20).

V. God remembers our _____ (Joshua 13:14, 33; Exodus 32:25-29).

Additional Notes:

Diving Deeper in Scripture Together

Questions for Discussion & Reflection

Joshua 13-19

1. If you have not taken time to do so, read the entire section (Joshua 13-19) aloud, or use an audio Bible to listen to it.

2. Read Numbers 23:19. What are some promises that God has kept? What are some that still wait for fulfillment?

3. Why does God (through Joshua) give Judah the right to rule? Why don't Reuben or Simeon or Levi get the privileges of the firstborn?

4. Why does Joseph receive the double portion?

5. How does God remember the faithfulness of Joseph, Caleb & Joshua? How does this encourage you in your work? Is there a place you are tempted to grow weary? Read Galatians 6:9 and share encouragement with one another.

6. Does it seem odd that the land is divvied up by lot? How does Proverbs 16:33 clarify this?

7. In Genesis 48, Jacob blesses Joseph's sons, but puts the younger ahead of the older. In a similar way, God has providentially placed you. What does God want you to do for Him in your unique context this week?

8. Consider the course of your Christian walk. Are you progressing in faith and maturity? Consider asking a trusted friend to give you feedback.