Pheasants Forever & Quail Forever and partners hire Farm Bill Wildlife Biologist – Wetland Specialist in Warrensburg, Missouri.

Kaley Cain will serve Southwest Missouri landowners.

Warrensburg, MO– August 13, 2025 – Pheasants Forever and Quail Forever in Missouri is excited to share that Kaley Cain was hired for the Warrensburg, MO Farm Bill Wildlife Biologist-Wetland Specialist position. She started in her new position on July 28th, 2025.

The Missouri Farm Bill Biologists (FBB) are partnership positions supported by the Natural Resources Conservation Service and the Missouri Department of Conservation. Cain will work with private landowners in the southeast portion of the state, helping them with wildlife and habitat management planning and securing funds to implement those plans.

“Kaley brings a wealth of knowledge and experience managing wetlands to the FBB-Wetland Specialist position. Her experience and passion for wetlands will help her connect with landowners and further habitat improvement efforts on easements in the southwest portion of the state. We're thrilled to welcome Kaley to the Missouri Quail Forever team!” said Farm Bill Manager, Haley Lockard.

Cain is a northeast Missouri native who grew up deeply immersed in the outdoors, hunting, fishing, foraging, and gardening. She is a graduate of the University of Missouri-Columbia with a Bachelor's in Natural Resource Management with an emphasis in Fish & Wildlife Management. Cain has spent time as a Technician with the Missouri Department of Conservation, Crew Lead for over-water nesting waterfowl research in Manitoba, Canada for Delta Waterfowl Foundation, and as a Statewide Wetland Program Biologist for the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission. In her spare time, she enjoys hunting, fishing, waterfowl taxidermy, and gardening.

"Helping create better habitat for the wide variety of wildlife that use wetland habitats is something I have a lot of passion for," Cain said. "With my new role at Pheasants Forever and Quail Forever as a Farm Bill Biologist II, I get to put my passion to use AND help landowners better understand and fuel their passions within the outdoors, and that makes it all the better."
