FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Alliance for Hispanic Commercial Contractors (AHCC) and
the Northern Virginia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce's (NOVAHCC) sign MOU

Baltimore, MD - November 22, 2017

The Alliance for Hispanic Commercial Contractors (AHCC), a for-profit organization with the mission to foster the growth, prosperity, and participation of Hispanic Commercial Contractors in commercial and government procurement contracts through education, training and guidance has entered into a memorandum of understanding (MOU) with the Northern Virginia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (NOVAHCC) who will be considered a "Coalition Partner". Together with other Coalition Partners, the AHCC looks to form a unified entity, with a combined focus to establish a collective group as a resource for issues impacting the Hispanic Commercial Contractor community.

Karen Barbour, AHCC's founder and president is quoted as saying "AHCC is thankful for gaining the NOVA Hispanic Chamber of Commerce as a strategic partner. Our combined energy and advocacy will not only expand the reach of both our entities but accelerate the procurement readiness of Hispanic commercial contractors which is at the core of our mission of capacity building."

The Northern Virginia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce's (NOVAHCC) is a for profit organization with a non-profit organization (status pending) with the mission to enhance the economic growth of Northern Virginia through three core principles: "Connect, Learn and Grow" our main activities will focus on delivering procurement matchmaking, networking events, assisting Veteran's with career/businesses opportunities, connecting people to jobs in the region.
