Hello We are Daniel and Amanda Hobbs,

Before becoming a member of Tantrum wine club. I worked as a wine server at Tantrum. So I already had knowledge of how wonderful the wine were. Life took an unexpected turn and I had to make the hard decision to leave. I really loved giving the wines a nicknames, mainly because I did not know about wines at the time but the guest seemed to really enjoy the nicknames...

After leaving I knew I had to become a member. My husband was all for it.. Even though neither one of us would realize the future and what Tantrum would come to mean to us. Josie and Emily would become such great friends. If you haven't gone and seen them you are missing out. They are so inviting, amazing and take great care of each and every guest that walks in.

Our date nights started when Dan started Chemo. It was 8 hours in one day and he could pick anything to do afterwards. I wanted him to be able to keep somewhat of a normal schedule and he always wanted wine. After a session one Thursday we were sitting there enjoying a glass of wine, we had a conversation with a couple Paul and Susan. Dan had someone to finally talk to that knew what he was going through. And I made the most amazing friend. If you can't become a member at least go have a glass of wine and enjoy meeting Josie and Emily because you never know who will come into your life and make a lasting impact.

Perfect Pairing

Lemon Shortbread with Goodie Goodie Jam

Ingredients:

1 1/2 sticks salted butter softened
1/2 cup granulated sugar
3/4 tsp lemon extract
1 1/2 cups sifted white flour plus 3
tbsp flour
3 tbsp raspberry jam of choice
1 tbsp Goodie Goodie (Pino Grigio)

Why have only one when we have the perfect pair?

Jason and Judith Cheers!!!

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees.

In the bowl of a stand mixer, add the soft butter, sugar, extract and all of the flour.

Using the paddle attachment, paddle all of them together. It will look like coarse sand at first then it will come to make a soft dough. (On low setting it will take about 5 minutes)

Dampen your hands and press the dough into a 9 x 13 pan (foil pan is fine). Press it as flat as you can and make sure to get in the corners. Using a fork, prick the dough all over. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes.

While the shortbread bakes, make the wine jam in a small bowl by combining 3 tablespoons of raspberry jam and one tablespoon of Goodie Goodie. Stir gently until the wine is incorporated. Set aside.

Let the shortbread cool in the pan for 5 minutes and then flip it out on a large cutting board. Using a sharp knife, cut long strips of equal length. Then cut width-wise into four. Let cool and serve with the wine jam and a chilled glass of Goodie Goodie. Cheers!
