

Tricia Schafer Dispute Resolution PLLC

OWN YOUR OUTCOMES.

Tricia Schafer is a full-time neutral and former litigator with 32 years of experience involving all aspects of commercial controversies.

As a mediator, Tricia is known for connecting people and concepts to create outcomes that transcend the sum of their parts. Her tenacity, curiosity, and enthusiasm, combined with strategic preparation and critical analysis, engage stakeholders and promote durable resolutions.

Tricia's first job as a lawyer launched her into representing parties in dozens of arbitrations long before she ever set foot in a courtroom. Drawing on decades of experience and the flexibility of arbitration, Tricia customizes the process to suit the complexity and nuances of each case.

Based in Scottsdale, Arizona, Tricia mediates and arbitrates nationwide, scheduling directly or through the American Arbitration Association's commercial, healthcare, consumer, and expedited rosters. She also serves as a FINRA arbitrator for securities-related disputes, an employment mediator for the United States Postal Service, and a Judge Pro Tempore on the Maricopa County Superior Court, handling settlement conferences in civil, commercial, and probate matters.

Tricia earned her J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center and her B.A. in Economics from the University of California, Berkeley. She is a member of the bar in Arizona and Pennsylvania.
