SCRIPTURE READING

Micah 7:7-10

<sup>7</sup> But as for me, I watch in hope for the Lord, I wait for God my Savior; my God will hear me. <sup>8</sup> Do not gloat over me, my enemy! Though I have fallen, I will rise. Though I sit in darkness, the Lord will be my light. <sup>9</sup> Because I have sinned against him, I will bear the Lord's wrath, until he pleads my case and upholds my cause. He will bring me out into the light; I will see his righteousness. <sup>10</sup> Then my enemy will see it and will be covered with shame, she who said to me, "Where is the Lord your God?" My eyes will see her downfall; even now she will be trampled underfoot like mire in the streets.

Reflection Questions

1. Where has my heart broken recently—and might God be speaking through that?
2. Are there places where I am religious, but not righteous, like Micah's generation?
3. How is God calling me to be part of His remnant—not the crowd?
4. What is one area this week where I must say, "But as for me..."?
5. If I feel far from God, what step can I take toward Him today?
