

"An amazing tale of resilience and an interesting history of an area westerners rarely hear about." — VOYA

Sung-Ju Lee's True Story.

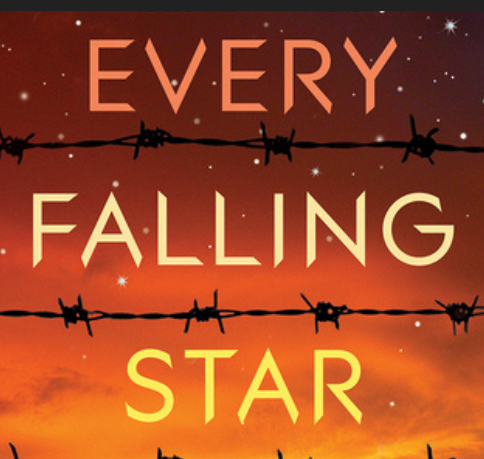

(the author of Every Falling Star) (Q&A time will follow)

of How I Survived and Escaped North Korea

10 AM, NOVEMBER 28, 2021

@ Smith Chapel UMC

11321 Beach Mill Rd, Great Falls

More Editorial Reviews

"A pampered son of the elite survives a nightmarish ordeal in this page-turner of a memoir... This fast-paced story will likely compel its readers to learn more about North Korea after finishing it." — Kirkus

"A testament to resilience, Lee's story pulls back the curtain on life in North Korea." — Publishers Weekly

"There are lessons about resilience, friendship, and family to take to heart... The ending satisfies and offers some hope." — School Library Connection

"[Sungju Lee's] sheer determination rings loudest in this rarely heard perspective. Better yet, the memoir is accessible to younger teens first being exposed to complicated global political and conditions." — Booklist

"I lost everything when I was 11, but I want to tell people, especially those in their teens and 20s, that life is hard, but when you have hope, courage and love, you will come through." - Sung-Ju Lee

