Professional music entertainment

Local musician Bruce Costello plays and sings a soft rock mix of piano music that is great for those venues wanting to offer patrons entertainment as they enjoy dinner or evening cocktails. Bruce can bring big sound to larger venues or can tone down for more intimate settings.

Bruce is well-known throughout New England and along the Eastern seacoast—from Maine to Atlantic City—for his classic Hammond B3 organ sound, which he recreates using today's modern technology.

He has played New England's hottest nightclubs—from Killington's Wobbly Barn and the Pickle Barrel to the Rusty Nail in Stowe, and Nectar's in Burlington—entertaining audiences with a wide variety of classic rock music. His experience spans several decades, playing with many of Vermont's popular bands since the 1970s, including these:

- Jimmy 'T' & the Cobras
- Trilogy
- Katonah
- Ivory
- The Bridge
- Nicki & the Whip
- Rags
- Giroux & Costello
