Hispanic Heritage Month Activity

Each day (in Classwork) write five significant facts about the notable Hispanic people listed below. Make sure you use only compound or complex sentences. Include information about how they became history-making trailblazers.

September 15: Sonia Sotomayor (Puerto Rico)

September 16: Pablo Neruda (Chile)

September 17: Sir Salvador Moncada (Honduras)

September 18: Celia Cruz (Cuba)

September 19: Roberto Clemente (Puerto Rico)

September 20: Óscar Arístides de la Renta y Fiallo (Dominican Republic)

September 21: Ellen Ochoa (Mexico)

September 22: Pablo Picasso (Spain)

September 23: Santiago Ramón y Cajal (Spain)

September 24: Isabel Allende (Peru)

September 25: Sandra Cisneros (Mexico)

September 26: Diego Rivera (Mexico)

September 27: Gabriel García Márquez (Colombia)

September 28: Severo Ochoa (Spain)

September 29: America Ferrera (Honduras)

September 30: Rigoberta Menchú (Guatemala)

October 1: Lin-Manuel Miranda (Puerto Rico)

October 2: Oscar Isaac (Guatemala)

October 3: Julia Alvarez (Dominican Republic)

October 4: Rita Moreno (Puerto Rico)

October 5: Frida Kahlo (Mexico)

October 6: Lionel Messi (Argentina)

October 7: Cesar Chavez (Mexico)

October 8: Luis von Ahn (Guatemala)

October 9: Jovita Idar (Mexico)

October 10: Jorge Luis Borges (Argentina)

October 11: Elizabeth Acevedo (Dominican Republic)

October 12: Miguel Ángel Asturias (Guatemala)

October 13: Óscar Romero (El Salvador)

October 14: Mariano Rivera (Panama)

October 15: Teófimo López (Honduras)