

Life is an ocean.

Reyna DeVega-Matamoros (2023)

Life is an ocean
A vast sea of opportunities
You could drown in it
Or you could grab onto the hand coming from the boat of success

We are told not to swim
Especially during high tide
But if we never take risks
We might never get to see the starfish

Like a lighthouse
There may be someone to guide you
To pull you out of the angry sea
And give you comfort and shelter

There are many unknown creatures
Some friendly and some unfriendly
Some calming like whales
And others aggressive like sharks

Life is an ocean
Beautiful but not easy
Life is an ocean
Wonderful and curious
