

Hispanic Heritage Month Trivia #2: Spanish-speaking Writers

Who is he?

This Spanish-speaker became a published poet at the age of 19 with his book, Veinte poemas de amor y una canción desesperada. Later, he was honored with the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1971. He is also noted for his work as a politician and diplomat. He was once Chile's ambassador to France (1971 -1973).

At an assigned time, on a half-sheet of paper, write the letter and the name of the person who matches the facts given. (Your answers can be found outside of the classroom on the wall.) Make sure to head your paper with HHMT #2.

Mme Hardy