Letter from the Conference Host - Pastor Theresa A. Roberts

WWW.THERESAAROBERTS.COM

Dear Esteemed Conference Participants,

The date for our much-anticipated conference, "Becoming the Perfect Me," is now here. I am filled with immense excitement and gratitude for your decision to join us on this transformative journey. We are about to embark on a path of self-discovery, growth, and personal development that promises to be nothing short of life-changing.

This conference is a unique opportunity for all of us to assess ourselves, identify areas for improvement, and take concrete steps towards becoming the best version of ourselves. It's a time for reflection, growth, and a deep dive into the question, "Why Don't People Like Me?" My book by the same title will be a valuable resource during this journey, providing insights and guidance to help you on your path to personal excellence.

Throughout the conference, you can expect to experience moments of deliverance, breakthroughs, and the launch of your next chapter in life. It's a chance to shed old habits, limiting beliefs, and anything that has been holding you back. Together, we will embrace change and new beginnings with open arms.

I urge you to make the most of this opportunity to invest in yourself. Give yourself permission to be intentional about your personal growth and development. When you do, you'll find that God will meet you right where you are, guiding you towards your true potential.

Additionally, I encourage you to invite a friend to join us on this incredible journey. Together, we can create a supportive community of like-minded individuals, all dedicated to personal growth and self-improvement.

Thank you for choosing to be a part of my annual conference, "Becoming the Perfect Me." Your presence and commitment to your personal growth are truly appreciated, and I cannot wait to grow and learn alongside you.

Get ready to transform, to evolve, and to become the perfect you. Our journey together is about to begin, and I couldn't be more excited!

See you at the conference!

VISION

I am a teacher with a deep calling to reach those who have felt lost or broken by past traumas. My heart is to help restore hope and reignite determination, guiding others to see their challenges as stepping stones to wisdom. Together, we will transform pain into power, embracing the strength that comes from rising above failure.

MISSION

I believe, as written in Jeremiah 1:5, that before I was formed, He knew me and before I was born, He sanctified me and she ordained me to be a prophet to the nations. I was known, loved, and set apart for a purpose even before my birth. My mission is to share my journey openly, using counseling, coaching, mentoring, and events to inspire and uplift. I strive to create a space where everyone, regardless of their past or background, feels seen and supported. Through my work, I hope to empower others to lead, ensuring that this mission of healing and growth continues long after I am gone.

Meet the Conference Host

Theresa A. Roberts' life is a testament to resilience, purpose, and growth. Born and raised in Chicago, Illinois, she is the eighth of twelve children in a large, close-knit family. Despite growing up in a stable household, Theresa faced challenges that profoundly shaped her journey. An incident in her childhood left lasting emotional scars, compelling her to develop an inner strength and survival strategy that would influence her life's path.

Theresa's journey of self-discovery began with a question many struggle to answer: "Am I ready to learn who I am?" She has had to confront her fears, weaknesses, and internal wounds to move beyond mere survival. These experiences fueled her desire for something more, leading her to seek success, not just in her career but in her journey toward becoming the best version of herself.

Theresa's life work, captured in her teachings on personal development from her series Becoming the Perfect Me, is rooted in helping others recognize that genuine growth comes from understanding strengths and weaknesses. This yearlong process was designed for women who were called to live with purpose, not merely survive. Drawing from her struggles and triumphs, Theresa guides others through journaling and reflection, encouraging honesty and transparency as they embark on their journeys toward self-acceptance and perfection—not perfection without flaws, but perfection in the pursuit of being the best they can be.

In her professional life, Theresa holds degrees in Computer Information Services and Computer Business Management. She leveraged her technical expertise as a Telephony Support Analyst for over 23 years, managing million-dollar projects and servicing numerous clients. However, her passion for service extended far beyond her career. As the Founder and Director of Love House Learning Academy and Co-Pastor of Love House Ministries alongside her husband of 39 years, Apostle Randy Roberts, Theresa has dedicated herself to enriching the lives of her community.

Love House Ministries, based in Beaufort, South Carolina, stands as a beacon of hope, offering various outreach programs that serve people of all ages and backgrounds. Theresa and Randy have impacted countless lives through initiatives like the Community Bowling Center & Laser Tag Arena, affordable aftercare, senior day programs, and community support events. Their influence extends beyond the church walls, making a tangible difference in the community through their charitable efforts.

Theresa's past and present life profoundly reflects the journey toward self-acceptance. From her struggles to her public service, she has shown that becoming the "perfect me" is not about erasing flaws but embracing them as part of the unique purpose for which she was created. Through her faith and resilience, Theresa continues to inspire others to find strength in their vulnerabilities and to live fully in their purpose. This message of resilience and hope is shared with her three beloved daughters: Ashley, Megan, and Chelsea.
