

The Death & Resurrection Doula Training Program

What	The Death & Resurrection Doula Training Program is the FIRST and only Christian End-of-Life Doula Training Program in the world.
When	The Death & Resurrection Doula Training program is self-paced and can be started at anytime. The program price includes access to live classes & small group mentorship. 6 months to 1 year is adequate for completion.
Where	Training is accessible on Convene Communities, an all-in-one training platform. All live offerings are hosted via Zoom.
Why	Christian End-of-Life Doula services differ from secular services. The Biblical answer to the question why do we die? separates Christian Doula services from the secular. Christian service springs forth from the good news of the gospel and the hope of resurrection.
Objectives	● Comprehensive Theological & Death Doula Practitioner Training ● Applied Skill through Practicum Requirements ● Christian Collaboration & Ministry Support

THE DEATH & RESURRECTION DOULA

A COMPLETE TRAINING PROGRAM FOR END-OF-LIFE DOULAS

What does a end-of-life (death) doula do?

There is a complete scope of practice for end-of-life doulas. This includes companionship, end-of-life care planning (including vigils), holistic comfort care (non-medical), creating legacy projects, engaging the family & community in support.

How can you use a Death & Resurrection Doula Certification?

Doula practice is not a regulated field although having a certification is a good idea for safety and professionalism. Most often, families will hire an end-of-life doula. Hospice agencies, churches, funeral homes & cemeteries, and LTC facilities are now recognizing doulas as an integral part of the team.

Is the Death & Resurrection Doula Training Program part of the Death Positive Movement?

The death positive movement is a secular philosophical movement concerned with embracing death as a natural part of life. While the movement has many positive features, Christians will quickly be disenfranchised by its New Age & progressive feel. The Death & Resurrection Doula Training is a movement within the movement. Reclaiming the Biblical truth regarding death while emphasizing the importance of being prepared.
