Payment

- a) Person served and/or representative agrees to assume and be liable for all charges of whatever nature incurred by or on behalf of the person served and to pay such charges as they become due. Payment is due within 30 days of receipt.
- b) The person served and/or their representative further agrees that any charges that are not paid within 60 days will be subject to a late charge of $25.00. In the event the person served account is referred to an attorney for collection, the person served and/or their representative agrees to pay, in addition to all sums due, all reasonable attorney fees, court costs and all reasonable costs of collection.
- c) It is the responsibility of the Person served and/or their representative to provide a current address for billing purposes.
- d) It is the responsibility of the Person served and/or their representative to alert the Director of any financial difficulties that affect the payment of provided services.
- e) Fee for service is based upon the Supervision Rating Scale. The person served and/or their representative understand that the fee schedule is reviewed annually and will be notified, in advance of any changes in the fee schedule.
- f) For accounts that are 90 days delinquent, services may be suspended until payment is received.

Synapse House is a nonprofit organization that relies on timely payments to continue to provide services and involvement of families and persons served in our fundraising activities to be able to provide discounted rates.

Person Served Representative

Any person who signs this agreement on behalf of or in place of the person served shall be referred to as the Representative. By signing this agreement, the Representative accepts all terms of this agreement and agrees to perform all obligations set forth herein.

The Person Served and his/her Representative certify that each has read the agreement and received a copy of it and agree to all the provisions in this agreement. There are not representations made by Synapse House, Inc. or any of its employees or agents other than those set forth in this agreement.
