

SPRING IS ON THE WAY!

I hope you are all well and this term of mocks and exam preparation has been going smoothly. I imagine you're all ready for a well-earned Easter break. There are lots of exciting opportunities for teachers and pupils in this Newsletter, so read on to find out more.

NOMINATE YOUR SCHOOL!

We're delighted to announce that nominations are now open for this year's Classics for All Impact Awards!

Our award winners will be celebrated at a special evening event at a beautiful London venue and will each receive a £300 award. 🏆

This year, there are five award categories:

Primary School of the Year

Secondary School of the Year

Sixth Form College of the Year

Multi Academy Trust of the Year

The Chris Pilcher Award for New Schools

NOMINATIONS DUE

THURS

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

Any state school supported by Classics for All is eligible to be nominated. Click on the links above to access the relevant form(s). For the Chris Pilcher Award, schools must have received CfA support for the first time within the last two years.

We look forward to celebrating the brilliant work you're doing to bring Classics to life in your school!

SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT: THE HERTFORDSHIRE & ESSEX HIGH SCHOOL

The Hertfordshire & Essex High School is an Outstanding school in Bishop's Stortford, and Classics has been thriving since 2009. The department has grown to the point at which they now offer Latin from Year 7-13, Ancient History GCSE, and Classical Civilisation A Level.

They have regular success with students leaving to study Classics at university and have consistently had students study at Oxford and Cambridge. This year they have unbelievable offers. Three students are holding offers for Oxford and one is holding an offer for Kings, Cambridge.

Huge congratulations to Nicola Callaghan and her colleagues for their brilliant work in making Classics such a success!

OPPORTUNITY FOR PUPILS: JACT CLASSICS CAMP

MONDAY 27TH JULY - SATURDAY 1ST AUGUST 2026

We welcome students 16-19, whether you study Classics already or not!

Offering a variety of topics on ancient history, literature, language and culture, our course is an ideal way to:

- develop a UCAS application
- complete a Duke of Edinburgh residential
- deepen your knowledge of the subject beyond your GCSE/A Level courses.
- We provide reports for the Duke of Edinburgh Award and University talks from our team of qualified teachers.
- Join us for courses, quizzes, plays, talks and join a classics community you'll never forget.

INFORMATION AND BOOKING

Bursaries are available and awards will be granted before you are invoiced for the course fee.

“ I found the discussions we had on the Iliad and Aeneid very interesting and thought provoking. I enjoyed being able to talk about the literature and examine the characters further - even though Aeneas is a bit of a cry-baby! ”

“ I have learnt an unbelievable amount about ancient Greek religion in the space of three hours. I love the range of sources we use especially. I feel super prepared for my Greek religion module next year! ”

“ All-round a very good language tutor. I really appreciate that she sticks around a little after the lesson ends to answer any questions or go over homework. The comics she makes using simple vocab are also so helpful and fun! ”

OPPORTUNITY FOR TEACHERS: PACE BURSARY

Classics for All is delighted to be partnering with the University of Cambridge Institute of Professional and Continuing Education to offer four full bursaries to state school teachers or other educational professionals working in a UK setting wishing to enrol on the Undergraduate Certificate in Classical Studies course for 2026-27.
