

SPRING IS FINALLY HERE!

I hope you are all well and this term of SATs preparation and trips has been going smoothly. I hope you all had a well-earned Easter break, and are enjoying the lovely sunshine. There are lots of exciting opportunities for teachers and pupils in this Newsletter, so read on to find out more.

NOMINATE YOUR SCHOOL!

We're delighted to announce that nominations are now open for this year's Classics for All Impact Awards!

Our award winners will be celebrated at a special evening event at a beautiful London venue and will each receive a £300 award.

This year, there are five award categories:

Primary School of the Year

Secondary School of the Year

Sixth Form College of the Year

Multi Academy Trust of the Year

The Chris Pilcher Award for New Schools

NOMINATIONS DUE

THURS
30 APR

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

Any state school supported by Classics for All is eligible to be nominated. Click on the links above to access the relevant form(s). For the Chris Pilcher Award, schools must have received CfA support for the first time within the last two years.

We look forward to celebrating the brilliant work you're doing to bring Classics to life in your school!

SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT: SOUTHFIELD PRIMARY SCHOOL

Southfield Primary School in Ealing is an Outstanding school, and has been supported by Classics for All since 2020. They were the first school I delivered online training to during lockdown, and they have been a joy to work with since the beginning!

Latin at Southfield has gone from strength to strength, with Latin being taught to the whole of Key Stage 2, trips to Fishbourne Roman Palace and the Roman Baths, Classics Week, and a wonderful display board.

Huge congratulations to Emily Vivian, the Latin Lead, and her colleagues and the Senior Leadership Team at Southfield Primary for their brilliant work in making Classics such a success!

“I love following Minimus’ adventures. I used to think Latin would be a difficult language to understand but it is so fun and I love seeing how it has influenced our language today!”

OPPORTUNITY FOR SCHOOLS AND PUPILS: YOUNG HISTORIAN AWARD

Reward your pupils for their work on the Ancient World and show off how much they enjoy learning about it by entering the Young Historian Award. CfA sponsor the Ancient Civilisations Prize, which is designed to reward the work completed in your classroom. This can be in any format - enquiry question, poster, drama recording.... Prizes of up to £50 in book tokens are awarded to the winners. Work on any civilisation is eligible for entry from any school in the UK. If you've studied Romans near you, you could also enter the local history prize, or you could combine work on several different time periods as a school magazine. If you have any questions, contact Jane at eastmidlands@classicsforall.org.uk.

SPOTLIGHT ON RESOURCES: ROMAN INSCRIPTIONS OF BRITAIN

These KS2 resources are designed to support the study of local history and of Roman Britain.

Three introductory lessons will help you understand how we can use these objects and their texts to find out more about people in Roman Britain. Pupils can then apply the skills they have learnt in the introductory lessons to the study of inscriptions from their own region.

A comprehensive teaching guide is available to support these resources. We would highly recommend reading the teaching guide first before using these resources with your class as it contains a lot of explanatory material and clear curriculum links. If you haven't already registered on the Classics for All Resources Hub, you will just need to create an account, which will take you less than a minute.

Further information about how to use the RIB website can be found here: How to Use | Roman Inscriptions of Britain.

ROMAN SOCIETY: GRANTS FOR SCHOOLS

The Society's Roman Studies Committee makes grants to schools to help promote the teaching of Latin and Roman studies. Most of the grants are awarded for the purchase of textbooks and other books and resources for Roman studies, but the Committee also makes awards to schools and museums organising lectures or study days on Roman themes, especially if they benefit large numbers of children throughout the year, and may be repeated in successive years. The Committee does not offer grants to support one-off school trips, workshops or events. Applications from schools planning to start courses in Latin are particularly welcome. Grants usually range from £50 to £600.
