

Denise and I are proud to announce the acquisition of Classic Tractor Fever, including all brand merchandise, catalog and online store. This will also include future editorial control of both the Classic Farm Tractors and the Classic Garden Tractors calendars.

We look forward to the continued relationship with Baxter Communications, Brian Baxter and RFD-TV. We ask for your support as we build on the thirty-year legacy of the Classic Tractor Fever brand by promoting the preservation and collection of antique American agricultural machinery to new generations.
