

Education: Carrie graduated from the University at Albany in New York State.

Previous Experience: Carrie is a licensed clinical social worker in New York State who has been gifted with working with wonderful children, adolescents and families for over 24 years. She has learned from those whom she has had as clients. Carrie strives to uplift, empower and to help clients work through struggles, stress and overwhelming feelings and situations. She has worked in the field of behavioral health for most of her career, focusing on children and adolescents.

Areas of Focus: Carrie's knowledge base includes developmental and behavioral challenges at home and in school. Using a team approach including parents, caretakers, teachers, school guidance counselors and school social workers to bridge the gaps for kids to achieve and be the scholars they are designed to be. Carrie attests to wrap around service and cohesive support. This is the banner she adopts in her practice and she uses her own strengths to empower others.