

Education: Bachelors in Social Work from University of Vermont. Masters in Social Work from Fordham University

Previous Experience: Over eight years of clinical practice in a range of settings, working with adolescents and adults from a wide range of backgrounds. My approach is non-judgemental, collaborative and trauma informed. I integrate various treatment modalities to meet the individual needs of each client.