

EMILY SILVER, LCSW

Education: Bachelors in Social Work from University of Vermont. Masters in Social Work from Fordham University

Previous Experience: Over eight years of clinical practice in a range of settings, working with adolescents and adults from a wide range of backgrounds.

Emily's approach is non-judgemental, collaborative and trauma informed. She integrates various treatment modalities to meet the individual needs of each client.