

Education: Margaret graduated with her Master's Degree in Social Work from Adelphi University. She received her undergraduate degree in Social Work from Marist College. She has Post Graduate Certificates in Substance Abuse, Trauma, and Expressive Arts. She obtained her CASAC- Master certification in 2017.

Previous Experience: Margaret has worked in Dually Diagnosed outpatient clinics. She has facilitated individual and group therapy throughout her practice.

Areas of Interest: Margaret has been working with Dually Diagnosed clients for over 15 years. She works primarily with adults who suffer from Substance Use Disorders, Anxiety, Depression, Eating Disorders, Grief and Trauma. Margaret utilizes various treatment modalities, including CBT, Expressive Arts and Mindfulness, in order to support her clients through their processes in therapy.