

God's Heroes

To cleanse the earth, behold a righteous man
Twenty-five years planned for forty days of rain
Noah, with his family and two of every kind
A rainbow promise for future mankind

Born with strength, beyond compare
Till she shared the secret of his long hair
His blind last prayer with an answered call
One final burst to make the giant temple fall

Walking on, with only five smooth stones
To hear the valley call, his destiny unknown
Goliath's size apparent, and army to defy
Challenge will be met, the Philistine must die
