

Helping Hand

A Time for Change

*There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:
a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build,
a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.*

— ECCLESIASTES 3:1-8

By Dirk O'Donnell

*A*s spring settles in and summer is just around the corner I am reminded of God's use of change in nature. Each spring I watch my garden to see when the first shoots of rhubarb or asparagus appear or when the blooms appear on maple trees. In the same way each fall I start to look for the first sign of color change on the trees around Claremore.

God uses change to refresh nature each year but somehow we as his creation often flee or resist change in our lives. Change can be exhausting or scary but change can also be reviving and reenergizing.

Families who are seeking your help at Hope Harbor desire change but often struggle to make that change last. Kids will often fight against change or learn to show change on campus but not change when home for weekend passes. Unfortunately, or maybe fortunately, we do not have God's power to make large changes quickly. Making positive changes in our lives, relationships, thoughts, or habits take weeks, months, or even years, not seconds or minutes.

As an organization Hope Harbor is going through its own changes. The main change we are focusing on this year is how to help you serve God through serving kids and families.

Wits & Waffles

On April 8th, some of our dedicated Hope Harbor Ambassadors organized a "Friend-Raiser" for us at The Park Church of Christ in Tulsa. It was a great evening of food, fun and trivia and building relationships with our brothers and sisters in Christ. A huge group of volunteers helped make this evening possible and we are very grateful to them all.

The success of the Hope Harbor ministry lies in relationships and over the years many of you have walked with us hand in hand. Hope Harbor is your ministry. We are here to serve God and build His kingdom with you. Together, let's live out James 1:27: Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world. Children and families are hurting, but you can make a difference and we are working along side you everyday.

Thank you for your dedication to God and your servant hearts that keep this ministry going. We can not do it without you.
