CHARACTER SUMMARY

I am an optimistic individual, and I serve with one thought in mind: it is better to give than to receive. I seek and embrace opportunities to grow in wisdom, personally and professionally. Honesty and integrity are important to me, and that shines in my ethics, service to others, and commitment to the work I do. Furthermore, I value healthy relationships with friends, family, and co-workers; while I may tend to focus on my goals, my relationships are prioritized, also, making me a lifeline for those I care about.
