CLASS HISTORY

It seems much longer than just four short years ago that we, a group of 86 timid, unsuspecting Freshmen, walked nervously into our homerooms 27 and 28. Mrs. Von Haggin was our advisor in 28 and Mr. Reeves our advisor in 27.

After we were settled down, however, we got around to electing class officers. They were as follows:

President-----	Francis Hanselman
Vice President-----	Richard Foster
Secretary-----	Mabel LeBarron
Treasurer-----	Paul Quigley
Reporter-----	Anne Tucker
Student Council-----	Ann Boyle
	Bruce Akin

It wasn't long before the seniors, one bright and sunny Friday, called us together and marched us to the front of the auditorium. They then attempted to initiate us by putting us through various stunts to display our talents.

During our Freshman year we had several successful nickelodeon dances. Other activities were a food sale and selling gum and candy at the basketball games.

Now we were ready for our second year in high school and most of our nervousness had left us. At least we could find our way around the school without getting lost. We were located in rooms 29 and 28 with Miss Hulihan and Mrs. Von Haggin as our advisors.

We got down to business immediately and elected class officers. They were:

President-----	Paul Quigley
Vice President-----	Bruce Akin
Secretary-----	Thomas Enright (Harold Elwell, formerly)
Treasurer-----	Mabel LeBarron
Reporter-----	Ray McCabe
Student Council-----	Ann Boyle
	Bruce Akin
	Lucille Oliver
	Francis Hanselman

Following tradition, we, the sister class of the seniors, gave them red roses for the National Honor Society.

We also had two dances, one in the fall and another in the spring. We sold gum and candy again this year.

Our third year started September 5, 1948 when we officially became Juniors. We elected the years representatives as follows:

President-----	James Merrill
Vice President-----	Beverly Griswold
Secretary-----	Thomas Enright
Treasurer-----	Anne Tucker
Reporter-----	Mabel LeBarron
Student Council-----	Francis Hanselman
	Janet Kyer
	Paul Quigley
	Lucille Oliver

We received our Class Rings shortly after Christmas. Plans were started for the Junior Prom. We needed money, so we had a food sale and a few successful nickelodeon dances.

1950 came at last. We were Seniors! The goal that we had been striving for, for four years had finely been reached. We all moved into Rooms 14 and 15 and started our last year at H.P.H.S. with Mrs. Moore and Mr. Relihan as our advisors.

We elected at the first class meeting of the year the following officers:

President-----	Albert Goodwin
Vice President-----	Ann Harrison

Vice President-----Ann Harrison
 Secretary-----Beverly Griswold
 Treasurer-----Gordon O'Dell
 Student Council-----Yngveig Moy
                                   Mabel LeBarron
                                   William McInerney
                                   Shirley Post
                                   Pat Wallace

Shortly after we planned and executed a bang up Freshman initiation. At Christmas time the gym was dressed up in its winter wonderland for the occasion of our Senior Ball. Ann Harrison was chosen as Snow Queen. Next came the sending of invitations for our graduation. The Prom held the Friday night before graduation, was a great success. The gym was decorated in American Beauty and white crape paper and flowers and the music was by Astoria Club Orchestra.

We feel a little regretful as we realize that our friends, HPHS students and teachers, will no longer share our pleasant company nor see the like of our pranks. However, we feel, as we have taken leave of our old life, a little sadness for those who we have worked with and we sincerely hope that those who carry on will do their best to follow our example.

Mabel LeBarron

CLASS PROPHECY

Well, folks, here we are at the Twentieth Reunion of the Class of '50" and what a list of celebrities we have here tonight in the Biltmore Hotel.

Over in this corner we find what looks like a teachers convention with Coach Jim Merrill whose words and deeds in the field of sports are almost as famous as those of George Mikan, telling of his latest victory for Siena. Also there is the famous vocalist star Bev Griswold, who is now taking Jo Stafford's place on the Supper Club since Jo retired. Ann Boyle just told me that after her training for Physical Ed at Cortland, she remained and is now head instructor there.

Everyone's attention has now been drawn to Marjorie Bassett, Mayor of Worth Hoosick, who just announced she is going to run for State Governor in the Fall.

The gay hub-bub has resumed again and walking past are James Hunt and Gordon Lockrow, who between them, control much of the east coast farmlands, they are heard talking with Jim Pine, head foreman, and as usual it is one of their eternal discussions.

Pat Whitman and Jean Cusson are standing near by exchanging shop-talk about office work in Chicago.

Gordon O'Dell, who seems to be the only one who is still connected with H.P.H.S., is talking to Judy Bullock, who is a famous psychologist. They are talking about Gordon's predecessor and Judy's father, Prof. Bullock.

Janet Kyer now steps to the spotlight directing her all male orchestra, in the arrangement of "My Dearie, My Dearie." She is now returning to her group which includes Shirley Peters, Esther Woodard, and Owen Hewitt. Owen is supervisor of the Telephone Operators for the New York Telephone Co. and Shirley is discussing ever interesting domestic problems with Esther.

You probably have heard of the important position Shirley Post now has as Presidential Secretary. Also celebrities in the nation's eye are Anne Tucker, Penny McMartin and Stanley Scott. Anne is the famous child specialist who was voted the most outstanding doctor at the American Convention of Doctors last month. Scotty is a notable criminal lawyer with his main office in Washington, from which he and his partners in the Scott Law Firm carry on business throughout the United States. (Good advertisement Scotty.) Penny McMartin, a friend who records your money after you wave goodbye to it, is top accountant of the U.S. Income Tax Administration.

Bill McInegney just arrived at the big celebration after working late at his "If you can't transport it, we will," trucking firm located throughout New England. Among his employees are two old classmates, Dave Bell and Bob Snyder. Dave is Bill's right hand mechanic. Bob is one of his best truck drivers. Secretary to this firm is Phyllis Cross, who we've heard is doing a fine job.

Here standing near our table is Joyce Mason, art expert and Lucille Oliver, Advertising head of Life Magazine, talking with Bert Goodwin who is pressman for Look Magazine.

Moving around among the crowd again many more classmates are seen. Mrs. Loren McCabe, the former Joan Eddy, is talking to her brother-in-law, Ray, who just flew in from the Tennessee Mountains.

Carlton Coon, the Sales Manager for Ford Motor Company is talking to his secretary, Janet Bain. Probably discussing the new 1970 Ford convertible now on the market.

Well, there are some more teachers, Ann Harrison, and Jackie Howe. Jackie and Ann attended Plattsburg Teachers College. They are all teaching in the Western part of the country and made the trip home in Jackie's private plane.

The charming Mrs. Enright, the former Frances Parrara, is present, dressed fit to knock the legs from under any young bachelor. Mr. Enright is the wealthy owner of Star Dust Cosmetics Co. in Indianapolis.

Walt Brenenstuhl is around somewhere and looking very smart in his navy blue uniform. Incidentally he has risen from the rank of Commander to that of Captain.

There is heard a definitely familiar giggle in the gay crowd from Doris Mason. Doris is a traveling saleslady for Perfect Fit nylon stockings.

Mason. Doris is a traveling saleslady for Perfect Fit nylon stockings. Theresa Bruns, private secretary at Noble and Wood Company is also in on the laughs. By the way folks, our own Chuck Leeseeman, is owner of that company and from what we hear is that he is making thousands each year.

Carolyn Pierce has taken a little time off from her duties at the Health Center, where she is a famous woman specialist, to be with us tonight.

Earlier this evening I was talking to a fine gentleman farmer. He knows enough about farming, perhaps more, to make a very substantial living. Yes, Leonard Robinson, has very little to worry about in the important role of making a good living.

Mabel Le Barron is Superintendent of Nurses at the Samaritan Hospital and also down there is Joan Thompson, who is chief dietician in their kitchen.

Jay Slade, Bill Harrington, Tony Liporace and Harry Moses are talking about their work. Jay and Bill are electrical engineers and Tony and Harry are television experts.

Of course you all remember that great movie star critic, Pat Wallace. She is here tonight and brought along with her some of Hollywoods leading stars.

We have another Dietician in the crowd. Pat Eldred is a dietician in Albany Hospital.

Paul Quigley, Y.M.C.A. Director in Troy, is talking to Kenny Fleming that whiz of a baseball player. Kenny is playing for the Yankees this season.

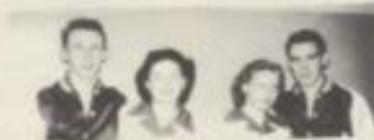

Gordon Frank, Don Dougherty and Chub Sargood, although twenty years older, are the same as ever--the life of the party and up to their old High School tricks with the doorman.

John Purple--just walked past and has stopped to talk to Franny Hanselman. John is the pilot for the Lockheed Constellation and Franny is owner of La Guardia Field.

Why, my goodness, I almost forgot Vevia Woodard and Yngveig Hoy. Vevia owns a chain of Matrimonial Bureaus and Yngveig is president of Vassar College. Seated next to them is Jean Taylor Thorpe. Jean is leading a very happy social life in Washington with her husband, Mr. Thorpe.

Well, ladies and gentlemen, that's all and we sign off with a message of Good Cheer and Good Luck to the members of the Class of 1950. Goodnight folks.

Mabel LeBarron

CLASS WILL

We, the most honorable Senior class of 1950, hereby being of sound mind, and being well aware of our abilities, knowledge, and phenomenal success, do make, ordain, and publish this instrument to be our last will and testament in manner and words as follows:

To our esteemed Alma Mater we will and bequeath our continued loyalty, love and support in the future as in the past.

To the faculty we bequeath our sincerity in appreciation for the time they have given us to further our education, plus one bottle of anacin for the extremely painful headaches we have caused.

In the traditional path we follow by leaving all our debts, lawful and otherwise to the Junior Class.

To the Sophomore Class we leave instructions on how to slide through school doing as little work as possible.

To the Freshman Class we leave the advice that with hard work you infant souls are liable to graduate, sometime. We felt the same way but with that hard work and some concentration you can do it.

Janet Bain-leaves her cheerful willingness to help out as a goal for which some Freshman should strive.

David Bell-leaves to join the administration.

Ann Boyle-leaves her excess of boy friends to some lucky girl.

Walter Brenenstahl-leaves in the same nonchalant manner as when he entered H.E.H

Theresa Bruns-leaves her seat on the B. & M. to Winnie Hunt.

Judy Bullock-leaves still good competition for Lucille Sweeney.

Carlton Coon-leaves a certain Freshman wishing he would P.G. for about three years.

Phyllis, not cross at all, leaves her curly hair and way of managing it to Fred Cottrell.

Jean Gisson-leaves her athletic ability and good sportsmanship to Carol McMartin

Donald Doughtery-leaves a friend of each and every student and teacher.

Joan Eddy-leaves, possibly for Tennessee.

Patsy Eldred-leaves her pleasant smile to Ann Helen Fifield

(not that she needs it)

Thomas Enright-leaves in pursuit of a very attractive brunette.

Who could it be?

Frances Parrara-leaves her smooth dancing ability to Sandra Curtice.

Albert Goodwin-leaves after guiding the Seniors through a very successful and happy year.

Beverly Griswold-leaves still challenging everyone to "Prove it".

William Herrington-leaves his dimples to Barb Metcalfe.

Ann Harrison-leaves her popularity to Pat Winters.

Jacqueline Howe-leaves still wearing that certain silver ring.

Gwendolyn Hewitt-leaves, for better, for worse till death do they part.

James Hunt-leaves in his little jitney, destination unknown.

Janet Kyer-leaves the best years of her life. (Ha! Ha! )

Mabel LeBarron-leaves her easy going way to Carol Tucker.

Charles Leerman-bequeaths his blush to William Rourke the Third, in hope that he will use it.

Anthony Liporace-leaves his brother, Dick, unprotected from the girls in "27."

Gordon Lockrow-leaves pleasant ways for his brother, Spencer, to follow.

Doris Mason-leaves Miss Smith without a notice messenger.

Joyce Mason-leaves her poise to Ann Ashworth. (Make good use of it Ann.)

James Merrill-leaves Coach Eightsey minus a good basketball player.

Harry Moses-leaves quietly, just as he came.

Yngveig Moy-leaves the commerce department minus a good student.

Raymond McCabe-leaves, to determine which he likes better-Northern or Southern girls.

William McInerney-leaves "Chatter" Chapman some good advice on how to grow tall.

Spencer McMartin-leaves those "football shoulders" to Charles Atlas.

Spencer McMartin-leaves those "football shoulders" to Charles Atlas.
 Gordon O'Dell-leaves his eye for the ladies to any deserving underclassmen.
 Lucille Oliver-leaves her charming friendliness to Eunice Barber (Who, we are sure, will carry on.)
 Shirley Peters-leaves her neat hairdo to Judy Thompson.
 Carolyn Pierce-leaves her ticket on the White Creek bus to Jane Fillmore.
 Shirley Post-leaves her "spic and span" appearance as an example for every Junior.
 Paul Quigley-leaves Wilma rather lonesome.
 Leonard Robinson-leaves his car to John Bierwith so Johnny can take his girl to the square dances.
 William Sargood-leaves his friendly personality to Jerry Bentley, though we know Jerry doesn't need it.
 Stanley Scott-leaves in his car S-W-I-S-H.
 Jay Slade-leaves his roller skating technique to any lucky by-stander.
 Jean Taylor-leaves her chewing gun to Ruthie Tollisen.
 Joan Thompson-leaves her witty sense of humor to her sister Joyce, a very worthy comedian.
 Anne Tucker-leaves with a razor in one hand always willing to cut the hair of a anyone, who will sit still a few minutes.
 Pat Wallace-leaves her indifferent attitude toward the opposite sex to Ella Brenenstahl.
 Norma Whitman-leaves still trying to catch the train.
 Esther Woodard-leaves her domestic way to Gloria Burdick.
 Marjorie Bassett-leaves in search of bigger and better square dances.
 James Pins-leaves Carl Cottrell minus a steady companion.
 Gordon Frank-leaves Miss Capeless with a normal Biology class and homeroom.
 Robert Snyder-leaves his quiet manner to Bob Jacobsen.
 Kenny Fleming-leaves his "good humor man" title to Ken Simpson.
 Vevie Woodard-leaves her happy-go-lucky- disposition to Nick DeLuca.
 Francis Hanselman-leaves with the girls still trying to get a tumble. How about it Franny?
 John Purple-leaves still talking about Mechanicville.
 This Senior Class as a whole leaves with high hopes and esteem confidence in the future, and a determination to do our share, as a part of this generation

1949-SPORTS REVIEW-1950

BASEBALL ---

Last year's team was composed of a fine crop of boys and which theirs was such a quantity that as a result Coach Eighmey had to form a jayvee baseball team also. Everyone is looking forward to a fine season next year with almost everyone returning.

This year's squad includes:

Arnold Harrington, Kenny Fleming, Chub Sargood, Lornie and Ray McCabe, Paul Quigley, Don Dougherty, Nick DeLuca, Francis Hanselman, Bob Merrill, Gordon Frank, Bill Hourke, Tom Enright, John Purple, Jay Slade, Gordon O'Dell, Elwin Bentley, and Robert Wilcox.

FOOTBALL---

This year's football team was one of the finest ever put out of this school and had fellows who really showed what they could do if they wanted to.

This team won every game, but because of the epidemic of polio it had only an abbreviated schedule playing only three league games and tying for first place in it.

It played two other non-league games in which they won easily also.

This years first team included:

Co-captains Gordon Frank and Loren McCabe, Tom Enright, Paul Quigley, Ray McCabe, and Nick DeLuca.

Also the remainder of the squad which gave ample support included:

Bill Hourke, Jack Mulready, Bob Sheldon, Bob Merrill, John R. Smith, Bob Judge, Don Dougherty, Spencer McMartin, Bruce Brown, Ronald, Gardiner, John Purple, Donald Sargood, and Thomas Wysocki.

BASKETBALL---

This year's basketball team had also one of the finest if not the finest team in its history. It broke all kinds of records in the school including the most points scored in one season, the most points scored in one game, and the highest team average in the history of the school.

Although it was beaten of the league in the last game of the season against Belton Spa it showed that it had something which makes a champion, the ability to come back after it had been behind. It showed in many of the games how after being behind at the beginning of the 3rd or 4th quarter they would pick themselves off the floor and come through with a victory.

This years record was:

League - 12 won 2 lost

Non-League - 4 won 0 lost

Total - 16 won 2 lost

This years team included:

Nick DeLuca and Paul Quigley at forward, Hooks Merrill at center and either Gordon Frank, Bob Merrill, or Tom Enright at guards. This first team was backed up by Ray McCabe, John Purple, Francis Hanselman, William Sargood, and Ralph Moll.
