The VAGABOND

Foreword

THE PURPOSE OF THE CLASS OF '53 IN PUBLISHING THIS VAGABOND IS TO PRODUCE AS ACCURATE A RECORD AS POSSIBLE OF OUR YEARS IN HOOSICK FALLS HIGH. MAY THESE MEMORIES LINGER FONDLY IN OUR HEARTS.

To the Class of 1953

Greetings:

We, who have worked with you so that you might reach this high point in your education, wish to join your many friends in offering congratulations.

Many of you have surmounted real difficulties to attain this goal, and it is our sincerest hope that the satisfaction you now enjoy, and the preparations for the future which you have gained, will amply repay your efforts.

A. Herbert Campbell

Dedication

We, the class of '53, proudly dedicate the Vagabond to Mrs. Lincoln Von Haggin. With her sympathetic guidance, good humor, and skillful teaching, she has befriended all of us throughout our high school years. Certainly we shall remember her with the affection that she so greatly deserves.

Class History

Three years ago a group of 71 students went into high school in search of room 27 which is the Freshman homeroom. There we were introduced to our class advisor, Gifford Wingate. During that year the following were elected for class officers:

PresidentWarren Brundige
Vice PresidentGlenn Smith
SecretaryAnn Helen Fifield
TreasurerFrank Sheldon

After we were initiated by the seniors we got right down to business and made pins with the students' names on them and sold them to pay for our class picture in the yearbook.

The next thing we knew it was the fall of 1950 and we were a group of 58 sophomores in all. That year our class advisors were Miss Boyce and Mrs. Moore. Our homerooms were 14, 21 and 26. The following were elected as class officers:

PresidentBenny Moy
Vice PresidentJulia Lasson
SecretaryMarie Magisano
TreasurerDick Morrison

During our Sophomore year we held several food sales in order to raise money.

Since the Sophomore class is the sister class to the Senior Class it was only natural for us to follow the tradition and present each senior with a red rose for National Honor Society.

In 1951 our third year began for us. We were now 59 in number. Our homerooms were 11 and 21. Our class advisors were Miss Leary and Mr. Moore. We got right down to business and elected the following as class officers:

President Marie Magisano
Vice President Teddy Simpson
Secretary Janet Andrew
Treasurer Ann Helen Fifield

We ordered our class rings and received them in March. We sponsored a food sale and a Saddle Hawkins dance. Then came June and the biggest event was our Junior Prom which proved to be a real success. The music was by Jimmy Nelson and his orchestra.

Now we are seniors, 50 in number. We elected the following as class officers:

President Phyllis Du Ross
Vice President Ann Helen Fifield
Secretary Carol McMartin
Treasurer Janet Andrew

Our homerooms are 11 and 28. Miss Leary and Mrs. Von Haggin are our class advisors.

We have had several dances this year. One of them was a welcome Freshman dance. We also elected our Vagabond staff and they immediately started to work on the yearbook.

Now it is almost time for Graduation which has been our goal of 12 years. This ends the history of our life in high school and we are now looking forward to the future.

Class Will

We the Senior Class of 1953, being of sound mind and body, acclaim this document to be our last will and testament to be rendered to and read by the student body of the Hoosick Falls High School as follows:

To the faculty we bequeath our sincerity in appreciation for the time they have given us in order to further our education; and we also leave them the name of the nearest psychiatrist.

To the Junior class we leave fair warning to study hard as it is necessary to graduate.

To our sister class, the Sophomores, we leave the thought that we expect them to follow in our footsteps.

To the Freshman class we leave the three wonderful years ahead of them.

Individually we leave the following:

Janet Andrew leaves her intelligence to her sister Marie, not that she needs it.

Robert Appel leaves some girl minus a partner in square dancing.

Ann Ashworth leaves for nurse's training.

Charles Ayers leaves for Dora.

Janet Babcock leaves her basketball ability to anyone who needs it.

Audrey Bain leaves gladly.

Janet Baker leaves Miss Meyer minus a good basketball player.

Eunice Barber leaves her blushing to Sandy McArt and hopes she uses it.

Warren Brundige leaves in Tuffy Cottrell's car.

Thomas Campbell leaves his friendly way to some deserving Freshman.

Mary Lou Carr leaves Vivian Smith without a steady companion.

John Chapman leaves only to come back next year as a P. G.

Mary Daly leaves with a smile.

Barbara Dorr leaves the chorus minus a good soprano.

Jimmy Dunigan leaves his seat in Chemistry to some deserving Junior.

Phyllis Du Ross leaves for college.

Ann Helen Fifield leaves her pleasant ways to Margo Farrara.

Jane Fillmore leaves willingly.

Julie Fink leaves her favorite teacher in the capable hands of Alice.

Ronald Gardiner leaves his way with girls to Ray Sheffer.

Gilbert Green leaves for R.P.I.

Gerald Herrington leaves for White Creek.

Carol Hulihan leaves with Jimmy in his car.

Judy Kipp leaves her long walk up Wilder Avenue to her sister and Ellen Eighmey.

Doris Kramer leaves some good advice on how to grow tall to June Rose.

Peggy Kyer leaves giggling.

Julia Lasson leaves Commerce Dept. minus a good student.

George LeBarron leaves for his father's store.

Richard Liporace leaves his musical ability to Earl Kenny.

Marie Magisano leaves with a bright future ahead of her.

Joan Marker leaves her place in the band to Shirley Howard.

Shirley Marker leaves the school one less clown.

John McClure leaves his place on the basketball team to his brother, Ralph.

Janet McKernon leaves without "Biz."

Jean McMahan leaves her high school days behind.

Carol McMartin leaves "Liz" lonely without a good jitterbug partner.

Benny Moy leaves, taking his ping pong championship with him.

Grace Palamateer leaves her seat on the Petersburg bus to her sister, Barbara.

Flora Peters leaves her friendly way of saying "hello" to some Frosh.

Beverly Post leaves her post as editor-in-chief of Hilltop Whispers in capable hands.

Beverly Rose leaves her singing ability to her sister.

Harriet Shaw leaves her sister, Roberta, her place as president of the Library Club.

Janice Shaw leaves Mrs. Von Haggin without someone to yell at.

Frank Sheldon leaves Room 28 rather quiet.

Glenn Smith leaves his pleasant personality to any deserving Sophomore.

John R. Smith leaves the basketball team minus a good player.

Peter Smith leaves his art ability to Mary Lasson.

Judy Thompson leaves with Kenny.

Ann Van Der Kar leaves her Latin 1 seat gladly.

Kenneth Wallace leaves in his fancy convertible.

Don Wilcox leaves the girls still dreaming.

Class Prophecy

All roads lead to Mountain View Lodge in the Northern part of New York State. At this fashionable resort the class of '53 of Hoosick Falls High is holding its 25th annual reunion with Miss Doris Kramer, owner and former classmate, as hostess.

Looking over the crowded dining room we see the honorable governor of New York State, who is none other than Bernard Moy. Standing with him is his faithful secretary, Judy Kipp. Benny is running for his second term; he has been campaigning all over the state.

Going over to speak to Benny Moy, we see the famous Hollywood producer, Sir Ronald Gardiner, who has just completed his first motion picture with 50 glamorous bathing beauties.

Standing near by, we see John McClure, editor of the New York Times, talking with Eunice Barber and Janet Babcock, members of the typing staff.

At a corner table we see Peggy Kyer, Mary Daly and Grace Palma-teer discussing married life. (They are probably exchanging recipes.)
Flora Peters and Jane Fillmore are also seated at this table. Flora is president of the "Homemakers Guild of America" and Jane is an honorary member. The discussion will probably get very interesting as the evening progresses.

Hearing heavenly music from the main dining room we went to investigate and found Dick Liporace directing the band, which was formerly directed by Harry James. Sitting near the platform is his singer, who is none other than Beverly Rose.

Telegrams of regret were read from Marie Magisano, who is Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, Janet Andrew, who is secretary to the President of the United States, and Carol McMartin, who is a great scientist working on plans for a new bomb. They were unavoidably detained because of the conferences being held in Washington.

Sitting near the door we spy "Chatter" Chapman, well known manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, his pennant winning team, discussing sports with Tommy Campbell, who is the famous sports announcer of WRGB.

Hearing a loud giggle we see Shirley Marker, who was voted "The Class Clown" of our class, and has now settled down and is now teaching physical education at Russell Sage. Also connected with sports is John R.
Smith, who is coach at our old alma mater, Hoosick Falls High School.

In the cocktail bar, we see Ann Van Der Kar, who is supervisor of nurses at the Samaritan Hospital. Chatting with her are Phyllis Du-Ross, who is an occupational therapist, and Jean McMahan, who is a child's nurse.

Coming into the lobby we notice Janice Shaw, famous dress designer, with her model, Ann Helen Fifield, who is wearing one of Janice's famous creations.

Pointing out some of the important facts in one of his encyclopedias to Allan Finzer, who owns a large hotel in New York City, is Charles Chase. Charles has just published "Chase's Encyclopedia."

Also attending the reunion we see Gerald Herrington, who is teaching agriculture at Main Street School, discussing farming with Frank Sheldon and Jimmy Dunigan, who have taken over the Fairdale Farms.

Discussing the centralization of the public schools in Hoosick Falls are Gilbert Green, the architect and Charles Ayers, who plans to get the contract for the mason work. Looking quite pleased is Janet Baker, a member of the Board of Education.

Glancing at the door, we see Julia Lasson, president of the First National Bank of Hoosick Falls. With her is her secretary, Audrey Bain. Also in their party, we see Beverly Snyder, who is a teller in the bank.

Hearing a roar, we all run to the windows where we see a lucious, red, sports convertible drive up. Stepping out of it we see Don Wilcox and his assistant, Warren Brundige, who are well known for their artistic designs in automobiles.

We also see Beverly Post, a member of the executive branch of the magazine, "Glamor," talking to Carol Hulihan. Going closer, we hear Bev asking Carol to pose as cover girl for next month's magazine. Carol's smile has made her a "cover girl" on magazines all over the country.

Sitting out on the terrace discussing their different fields of occupations, we see Ann Ashworth, who is an air line hostess, Harriet Shaw, who is a dental hygienist, and Barbara Dorr, who owns and operates a riding academy. They have so much in common (?)

Asking "Sam" to play a song we see Julia Fink, who is a noted author. One of her latest books is, "How to Make Money and Get Along with Teachers."

The Honorable Judy Thompson, Mayor of Pownal, is seen talking with Janet McKernon, who is a stockholder of the Bell Telephone Company.

Holding her own in a discussion, we see Mary Lou Carr, who has taken Miss Martha Roundtree's place on "Meet the Press."

Coming in the side door is George LeBarron, who is owner of the new A&P Store in Eagle Bridge, New York.

It's wonderful to see this reunion of the Class of '53. Betty Kane, Social Studies teacher at Troy High School, is having quite a discussion with our hostess, Doris.

Seeing a lovely landscape on the wall we inquire and find out that it is done by Peter Smith, a well-known artist. Some of his paintings are hanging in the Museum of Art in New York.

While we are eating, we have a chance to really look around and we see Robert Appel, a well-known General in the U. S. Marines. Also seated at the same table is Glenn Smith, who is a professor of English at Harvard.

Notice: Transportation for the reunion was provided by Kenny Wallace, owner of the "Last Chance Bus Company."

The seven-course meal, which was so delicious, was prepared by Joan Marker, who is a noted food consultant.

Seniors' Farewell

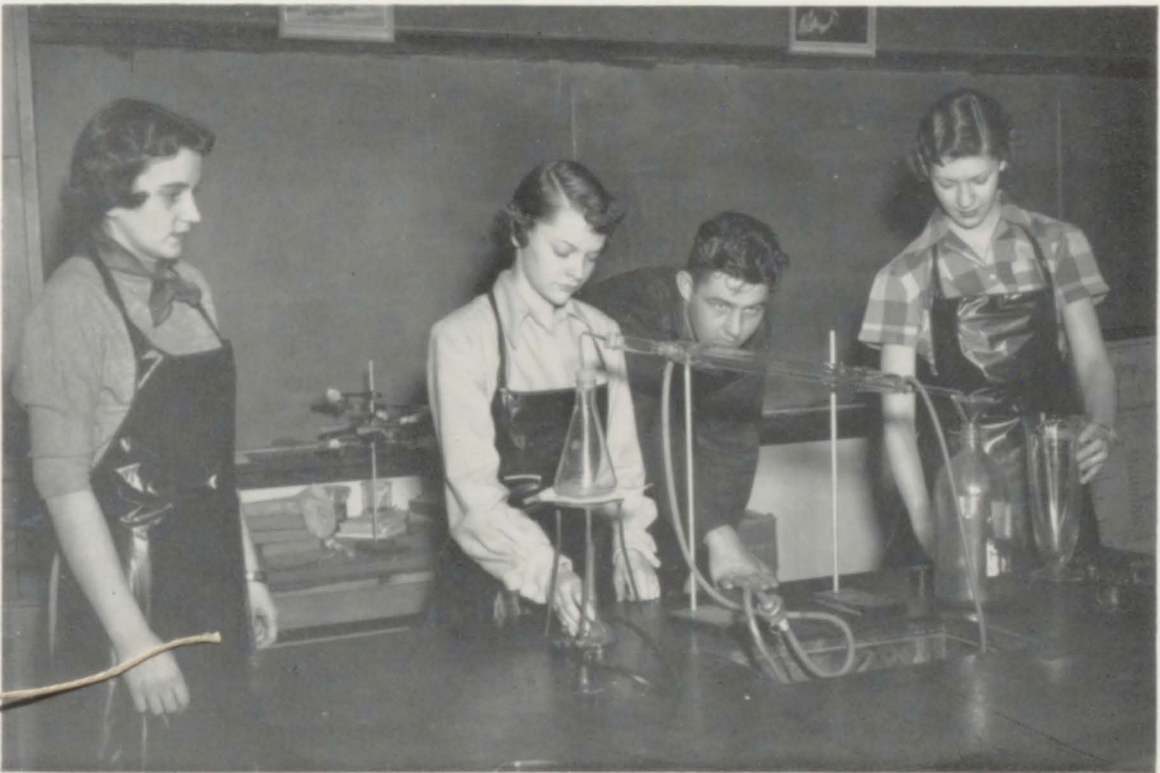

As we, the Class of 1953, pass through these doors for the last time, there are many memories we hold dear, but the one we will always cherish is Hoosick Falls High School. Its opportunities, its gay times and its understanding faculty have given us a start in life. May we pledge ourselves to the task of being worthy and of upholding the trust you have placed in us.

Farewell, and thank you.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Junior Class

The Juniors, one of the liveliest groups in school, have been watching the Seniors' every move in order to be able to take over next year. During the year the class had a Sadie Hawkins Dance, a food sale, and a basketball game between the junior boys and girls. Of course, we mustn't forget the class rings which arrived on March 11. Preparations are under way for a successful Junior Prom which is to be held on June 19.

Their class officers were:

President	Dorothy Hansen
Vice-President	Sarah Holt
Secretary	Elinor Niles
Treasurer	Robert Adrian

Student Council members:

Marcia Dunigan	Betty Russell
Helen Betner	Dorothy Hansen

Sophomore Class

The class of '55 began this year by electing the following officers:

We knew we needed money so we sold homemade candy apples, gum, potato chips, etc., at a football game and netted a tidy sum. We decided to sell more food, so we had a food sale at Cuddihy's and made a sizeable sum for the treasury. Now we are working on what we hope will be a successful dance on March 27th. Our advisors this year were Miss Shirn and Miss Boyce.

Freshman Class

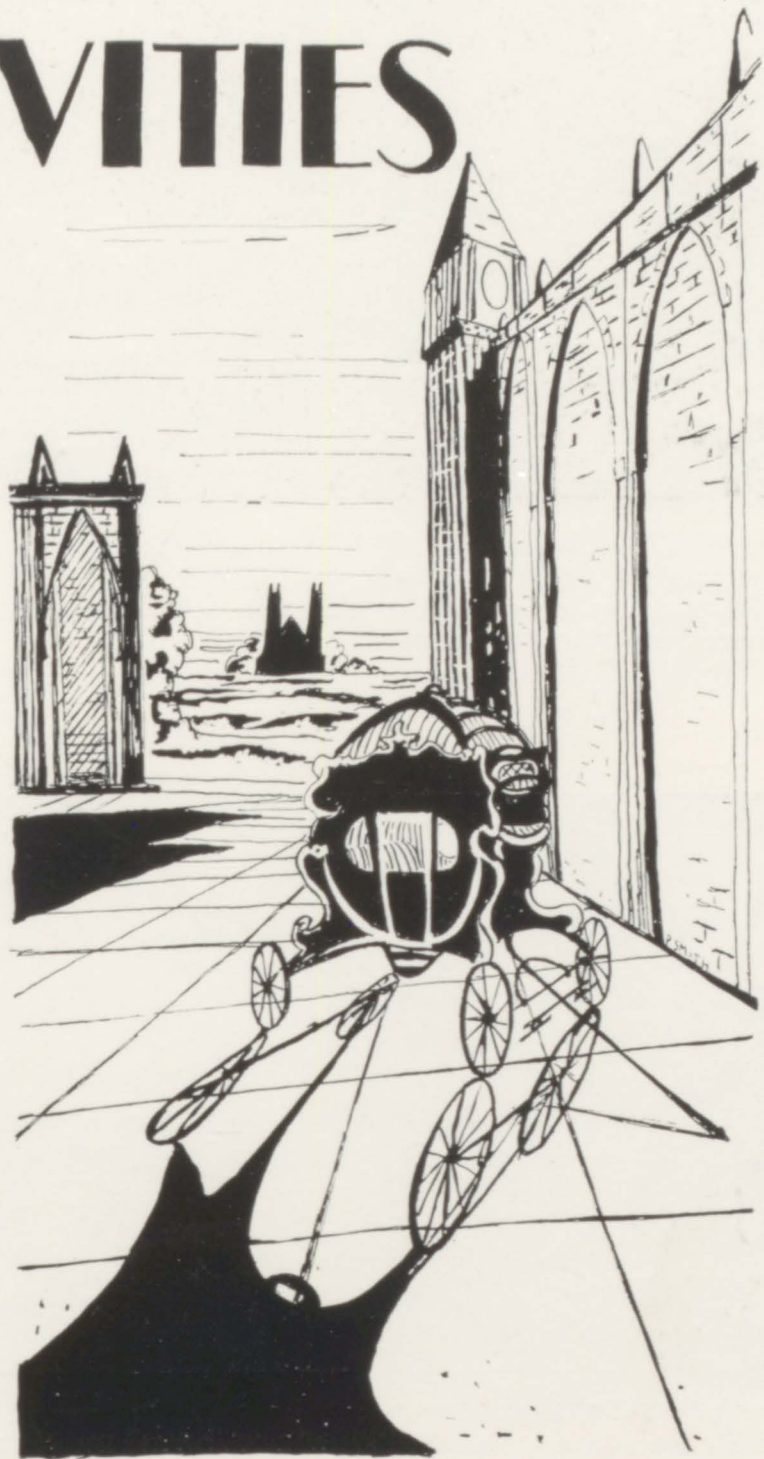

The Freshman Class started the year of 1952-53 with the election of officers in November.

The first project we started was the selling of magazines. We earned $101 from that. In January the class had an election of monitors. The four following represented our class: Eddie Mansueto, Hugh Pine, Roland Bugbee, and Deborah Dooley. We sponsored a basketball game between two teams consisting of boys in Freshman class. We plan to have a dance or fun night in the future.

Our class advisors are Miss Hiney and Mrs. Potts.

Christmas Scene

Band

The Hoosick Falls High School Band has been built up to its greatest number of players this year. We now have a 58-piece Senior Band well instrumented and a great credit to the school. The Senior Band has a "feeder" band, the Junior Band, which numbers 50 players. These players in the Junoir Band graduate to the Senior Band when their playing ability warrants the change.

The Senior Band is not limited to High School students. There are 19 grade students in the Senior Band. The Junior Band consists solely of grade students.

In November eight players participated in the sectional All State Festival in the Band at Northville Central School.

As this article goes to press, there are several things in which the Band participates yet this year. The annual Spring Concert is scheduled for late in April; the band travels to Hudson for sectional competition in Grade III on May 8th; play the state Elks convention in Albany on May 23rd, play the annual Decoration Day parade in Hoosick Falls on May 30th; the annual Band picnic some-time in June and to close the year, graduation exercises on June 22nd.

This year's baseball team, made up mostly of veterans, came thru with a good record of six wins and three defeats.

The squad was going great until it met South Glens Falls and Burnt Hills, who put an end to its winning Streak and erased any chance of our capturing the county title. All in all, Coach Eighmey and the team had a fine season.

Football Team

Coach Eighmey's football team had a rather indifferent season this year, winning 3 and losing 4.

The squad just couldn't find the spark when the going was tough. But it always went down fighting. We were lucky enough to play two games under the lights.

Varsity Basketball

Under a new coach, Gus Raitz, the basketball team established a record of 8 wins and 10 losses.

After starting off with 4 straight wins, the team cooled off mainly because of the lack of height and weakness in defense. Although going out and fighting all the way, the facts were against us.

Hats off to Coach Raitz and the boys for a job well done.

J. V. Basketball

The Junior Varsity, under the fine coaching of Bill Rourke, finished the season with a record of 10 wins and 8 defeats.

The team looked as if it would take the championship again this year until Bill lost two of his key men and could not find ample replacements.

Anyway, it was a good season for Bill and the boys.
