Vagabond

The Vagabond

Presented By The CLASS OF
1956 of HOOSICK FALLS HIGH SCHOOL
Hoosick Falls, New York

Foreword

We, the class of 1956, present this Vagabond as a record of our activities and accomplishments in Hoosick Falls High School.

We have had a memorable four years, crowded with classes, studies, and activities from which we have benefited to various degrees.

That we may not forget those years, we desire to create a book of memories which will remain, forever, alive.

Dedication

This 1956 edition of the Vagabond is respectfully dedicated to Mr. Bernard Balder, who as industrial arts instructor has rendered great service to his school and community. Through his skillful teaching and sincere interest we have grown in creative ability not only in our studies but also in our extracurricular activities. Certainly we shall remember him with great respect and admiration, and are proud to dedicate our book of memories to him.

EDITOR'S NOTE - The Vagabond Staff and I would especially like to thank our advisor, Mr. Bullock, who has so capably guided us. We would also like to thank Mr. Andrick, our photographer, and all the others who have helped us produce this yearbook. I personally would like to thank my staff for their fine co-operation.

ADMINISTRATION

To the 1966 Graduates -

The quality of your success is of much greater importance to the world than the quantity. It depends upon the kind of treasure which you acquire whether the world is richer or poorer. The material things which you may bequeath the next generation are of much less value than a heritage of spiritual wealth.

We hope that your teachers at Hoosick Falls High School have given you some background for making the right choices.

With my sincerest congratulations,

A. Herbert Campbell

Class Will and Testament

We, the class of 1956, being of sound mind and body, we hope, and possessed of the body beautiful, hereby proclaim this to be our last will and testament, to be rendered to and read by the students of Hoosick Falls High School as follows:

To the faculty, who have tried patiently and with unceasing effort to improve our feeble intelligence, we bid farewell and leave them the Junior Class whom we are sure can never follow in our footsteps. (Too crooked)

Individually we bequeath:

Charles Ames leaves as quietly as he came.

Polly Armstrong leaves her demureness to her sister, Jean.

Julia Billert, "I leave Social Studies 12 for some bright underclassman to deal with."

Ann Bouplon, "I leave my place in the Commerce Department to some deserving underclassman."

Ruth Brown, "I leave my seat in Room 28 to my sister Marcia."

Roland Bugbee, "I leave my place as F. F. A. President to Maurice Andrew."

William Chaponos, "I leave my name carved on all the desks."

Edna Chase, "I leave the bus driver without anyone to tease him."

Helen Darling, "I leave Miss Sells minus a girl who loves to take gym."

Greta Daun, "I leave my love of sports to the underclassmen."

Deborah Dooley, "I leave the kitchen minus one cook."

Ronald Dooley, leaves the basketball team minus a good player.

Charles Ely leaves to go deer hunting.

Richard Farrara leaves his intelligence to his brother, Bobby, not that he needs it.

Lois Fortin, "I leave my part-time school plan to some ambitious student."

Robert Hall, "I leave . . . aahhhhh thank goodness."

Pearl Hewitt, "I leave my secret gumchewing to anyone who can get away with it."

Seward Hewitt, "I leave still smiling."

Richard Hoffman, "I leave my Trig book to Jim Pratt hoping that he will understand it better than I did."

Carol Hover, "I leave Miss Simpson still saying 'Haven't you anything to do?'"

Beverly Johnson, "I leave my ambition to my cousin Peter Unavitch hoping he will use it."

June Johnson, "I leave my big smile and happy-go-lucky ways to Brenda Pine."

Marilyn Jones, "I leave my place in Art Class to my brother John."

Pat Kalinowski, "I leave my nephew, Jack, without someone to tease him."

Arnold Kuebler, "I leave the school better off."

Janice LeBarron, "I leave my place in H. F. H. S. to my sister, Sandra."

Gert Lober, "I leave my typewriter in Office Practice to Jo Ann Marsh."
Johanne Maleady leaves happily with Art waiting for her in his car.
Sally McClure, "I leave my seat on the train to anyone that wants it."
Pat McGrath leaves the Commerce Department minus a good typist.
Pat McMahn, "I leave my Varsity Cheerleading uniform to Marcia Brown."
Bill Mello leaves Mrs. Coburn without a good Social Studies 12 student.
Louann Merrill, "I leave my shy ways to Jean Armstrong."
Olga Mitchell, "I leave my tallness to Louise Goss."
Richard Miles and Ronald Pirtz leave Mr Stritch wondering whether or not the Lab is still there.
Alice North, "I leave with "Animal" in his Ford."
David Pine, "I leave my closely guarded formula for tallness to Sandy LeBarron."
Hugh Pine leaves his musical ability to a deserving underclassman.
Janet Pine, "I leave my first chair in Band to my sister, Joyce."
Carl Pirtz leaves his ways with the girls to Billy Roberson, not that he needs them.
Donald Pokines leaves his extraordinary art works in the Study Hall desks.
Walter Powers, "I haven't anything to leave."
Charles Pytko, "I leave Don lonely."
Jon Rice leaves without Judy.
Leon Rudd leaves ready to lead the world.
Caroline Ruebel, "I leave planning to go to Samaritan School of Nursing."
Verona Schneider, "I leave my long walk to school to Joyce and Joan."
Ronald Siefert leaves Coach Kramer minus a good player.
Jean Shaw, "I leave my seat in the library to some quiet little freshman."
Ray Sheffer, "I leave my haircut to Everett Brock."
Vivian Smith, "I leave willingly."
Kieth Snyder leaves still trying to play hookey.
Gerald Tate, "I leave my brother all of my brains for Science."
Wanda Webster, "I leave a basketball to my sister, Louise."
Marion Weeden, "I leave Mr Peckham his dictionary."
Richard Whalen, "I leave the underclassmen the clocks that are ten minutes slow."

Class History

In the year 1952, one of the largest classes, numbering 98, entered the portals of the Hoosick Falls High School. After assembly that morning we gathered in Room 27, the study hall, to begin the best years of our lives. Our advisors were Miss Hiney and Mrs. Potts. When the excitement of initiation by the Seniors was over and we were ready to get down to business, we elected the following class officers:

President - - - - - Raymond Sheffer
Vice President - - - - - Greta Daun
Secretary - - - - - Polly Armstrong
Treasurer - - - - - Janice LeBarron

We earned $101 from our first project which was selling magazines. In January the following monitors were elected; Edmond Mansueto, Hugh Pine, Roland Bugbee, and Deborah Dooley. We also elected Janice LeBarron and Fritz Stricker as our student council representatives. We were honored by having Fritz Stricker, a German exchange student, in our class that year. Our class also sponsored a basketball game in which the freshman girls played against the freshman boys.

By the time our Sophomore year began we were fewer in number and our advisors and home-rooms were as follows; Mrs. Kelly, Room 11; Miss Deliganis, Room 14; and Miss Huliban, Room 29. With our freshman class President, Raymond Sheffer, at our first class meeting, the following class officers were elected.

President - - - - - Ronald Pirtz
Vice President - - - - - Ray Sheffer
Secretary - - - - - Olga Mitchell
Treasurer - - - - - Wanda Webster

Our student council members were; Greta Daun, Ann Bouplon, Janice LeBarron, Richard Niles, Leon Rudd, Ronald Pirtz. The monitors were; Greta Daun, Helen Darling, Jerry Tate, Raymond Sheffer, June Johnson, and Deborah Dooley. In April, our class had a food sale at Cuddihy's store. Shortly after, the day for National Honor Society arrived and we, being the sister class to the Seniors, followed the old tradition by presenting each Senior with a rose. This year our class was honored by having Rudolf Kock, another German exchange student with us.

Class History, Continued

In September 1954 we became Juniors to start one of the busiest years in our class's history. Our advisors and homerooms were Mr. Shafer, Room 14 and Mr. Ralston, Room 15. The same month we held our first class meeting and elected the following class officers:

President - - - - - Leon Rudd
Vice President - - - - - Raymond Sheffer
Secretary - - - - - Janice LeBarron
Treasurer - - - - - Louann Merrill

Janet Pine, Ronald Piritz, Deborah Dooley and Janice LeBarron represented our class in the student council and our monitors were Janet Pine, Greta Daun, Polly Armstrong, and Jerry Tate.

This year our President appointed a special fund raising committee which included Janet Pine, Helen Darling, Beverly Johnson, Jerry Tate, and David Pine. We sold school pennants as our first project. In April came the day that every Junior waits for when they would get their class rings. Being different this year, we decided to have our Junior Prom before Regents week. So on June 3rd we held our Junior Prom with Harry Vincent's Orchestra furnishing the music. The theme of the prom was "Melody of Love" based on a popular instrumental tune that year. The class chose as their king and queen of the prom Jerry Tate and Janice LeBarron. Then came the decisive tests which made us glad the year had ended.

At last the class of '56, numbering 59, became Seniors with their advisors and homerooms as follows: Mrs. Coburn, Room 15 and Mrs. Von Haggin, Room 28. We elected the following class officers while we were still Juniors:

President - - - - - Leon Rudd
Vice President - - - - - Raymond Sheffer
Secretary - - - - - Janice LeBarron
Treasurer - - - - - Louann Merrill

We elected Ann Bouplon, Janice LeBarron, Ronald Piritz, Ronald Seifert as our student council representatives. Richard Niles was elected student council president for that year. Our monitors were: Louann Merrill, Greta Daun, Helen Darling, and Raymond Sheffer. In September we sold magazines as we did in our freshman year. Next our class sponsored the Freshman-Senior Get Together, which was designed for the purpose of having the freshmen and seniors get to know each other better. Our class had their Winter Ball or Senior Prom shortly before Christmas. Ray Nelson's Orchestra supplied the music. The gym was decorated to give one the spirit of Christmas. Then we put on an assembly program by sponsoring another one of our favorite basketball games with the senior girls against the senior boys. We were once more honored by having Hubertus Linder and Lenhard Schmidt, two German exchange students with us that year.

Knapp, N. Flinn.

The Junior Class had several food sales during the year at Cuddihy's and in November, we held a dance in the gymnasium. This was round and square dancing to the music of Bess Wurm and her orchestra, from Salem. Of course the big event in our lives as juniors is the Prom. That is yet to come, but plans are under way and we hope it will be a big success. The Junior Class sponsors are Miss Hulihan and Mr. Peckham.

The Class Officers are:

The first activity of the Sophomore class this year was the election of student council members since our class officers had been chosen last spring. Our money making projects were a food sale which was quite successful, and a Sophomore party which had not come to pass when this was written.

Our class advisors were Miss Boyce and Mrs. Potts.

The class officers were:

The Student Council has made a definite attempt this year under the guidance of Miss Grant to grow in importance as a necessary cog in the wheel of the students activities in our high school life. The leadership of the boys in this activity increases each year.

Under the guidance of Richard Niles, S. C. President, the entire school entered into the spirit of a "Dress-Up Week" sponsored by the Student Council in December. It was a pleasure to see the students attending classes togged in their neatest.

A basic activity is the planning, arranging, and management of assembly programs. Ronald Pirtz was kept busy all year with this important phase of the work. The help given him by Perle Cross, a Freshman, was considerable.

Student Council looks forward next year to broadening its scope of activities.

We are especially proud of our J.V. team as they are co-champions in the Saratoga County League with Corinth. Led by veteran coach, Bill Rourke, they wound up with an overall record of 10 wins and 3 losses. Since the majority of the team are underclassmen there is a promise of many more fine basketball seasons in the future.

On November 5th the Music Department of the Hoosick Falls High School acted as host to the All-County Music Festival. The Music Department felt highly honored by having over 300 students from other schools in the County attend this festival, and are very grateful to the PTA and other organizations which helped to feed this hungry mob. These two pictures show the Senior Band and Senior Chorus which took part in the public concert held that Evening in the High School Auditorium along with An Elementary Chorus, a Junior High Band and Chorus.
