

VAGABOND

Hoosick Falls Central School

Foreword

The Class of 1960 presents this Vagabond as a partial history of our four years in High School. It cannot be a complete account because many important events go unnoticed as they occur and cannot be recorded; others are best forgotten. The glimmer of an idea that sent us searching in the library or puttering in the lab seemed of little importance but it may have been a factor that helped to change our lives. Mischievous pranks that got us into trouble, assignments incomplete or undone, and poor recitations are best left unrecorded.

We trust we have presented events, pictures, and names that belong to fond memories.

Dedication

We, the class of 1960, dedicate this year book to Mr. Douglas Eighmey, Director of Physical Education. He began his career here in 1930 as gym teacher and coach of all sports. He became well known in this area for his fine sportsmanship and for his success as a coach. His basketball teams won eight league championships.

We admire him for his kindness to us, his gentlemanly manner, his dedication to his job and his success in it, and for his loyalty to our school.

We dedicate this book to him as an attempt to show our appreciation for what he has done for our school, for our community and for all athletics.

Principal's Message

To the Class of 1960:

Congratulations!

The completion of your high school education marks the completion of a foundation for learning.

Learning is a never ending process. The twelve or thirteen years of schooling you have had thus far have provided you with the tools, the basics for continued learning.

"A little learning is a dangerous thing." Only by continued striving and seeking . . . only by fully utilizing your present talents, can you gain full measure of satisfaction: the confident knowledge that you have done the very best you are able.

With heartiest best wishes.

AT GRADUATING TIME

The graduate is prone to think
His wisdom is complete,
He's but to ask--the world will lay
Its trophies at his feet.
But school days done and work begun,
He learns to his regret
The college of experience
He has not mastered yet.

CLASS

We, the class of 1960, being of sound mind and body (we hope) bequeath the following.

To the faculty, some well-earned peace and quiet.

To our sister class, the Sophomores, the hope that they will graduate from the new building.

Pauline Arasin leaves still trying to get a band-aid from Miss Kemler.

Alan Armstrong leaves his battered machine to be repaired.

Paul Bachorz leaves still saying, "Nobody asked your opinion."

Edward Brandt leaves his sister, Nancy, with two more years to go.

Shizley Brock leaves the temperament that goes with red hair to Glenda Harrington.

James Brown leaves F. F. A. minus a good president.

Florajean Bugbee leaves Cheryl Marsh with a locker to herself.

Brad Cole leaves his position in band to Paul Fink.

John Cooney leaves in his black Ford.

Roger Corbett leaves Diane his baritone sax.

David Cornell leaves shyness to the more aggressive members of H. F. C. S.

Richard Danforth leaves on time, for once.

Le Roy Gardner leaves his good looks to any underclassman that wants them.

John Green leaves Mr. Frier still wondering where he's been.

Patricia Griswold leaves with her "garf".

Richard Hawks leaves, gladly.

Ann Marie Hayes leaves the mirror in the library to Paula Mosely.

Marilynn Hill leaves her locker to any girl who wants to be on the end.

Ronald Harrison leaves English class with the noose hanging high.

Donald Hillman leaves because he can't think of anything else to do.

Royal Howard leaves, waving good-bye to Sharon.

Judy Jepson leaves, still hating the name, "Banana Skins".

Irene Jordan leaves Ruthie lonely.

Charlene Kretzmer leaves--late, as usual.

John Kasavich leaves sadder but wiser.

Nancy Lapan leaves Mr. Stritch wondering what she left.

Ronald Liporace leaves his curling iron to Joe Niegoda.

Edward Loomis leaves English 4 making "Macbeth" a comedy.

WILL

Brenda McCart leaves her quietness to some noisy underclassman.
John McMahon leaves quietly.
Tony McShane leaves the lab still intact.
Gene Madigan leaves still wondering what to leave.
Sandra Marshall leaves her five weekly letters to Mr. Eastwick.
Susan Marshall leaves everybody confused.
Charles Mayer leaves as quietly as he came.
Van Miles leaves his "Hot Shot" to Bob Thomas.
Lois Milliman leaves.
Audrey Moon leaves, with her third finger, left hand, still occupied.
Rose Marie Niles leaves Miss Micklos very confused.
Pam Niogoda leaves Sandy Hayes some good advice on how to grow tall.
Joanne Palmateer leaves for Beauty School.
Linda Pandell leaves people still pronouncing her name the wrong way.
Shep Pine leaves a year late.
Linda Pirtz leaves her driving abilities (?) to Dawn.
Barbara Pytko leaves English 4 well-fed.
Faith Reilley leaves Mr. Stritch without anyone to talk to during Physics.
Gene Roberson leaves his dancing ability to Gordie Johnson.
Pat Sheffer leaves without losing David's class ring.
David Sweet leaves the cornet section minus a player.
Richard Stallmer leaves without Mary.
Janet Thompson leaves a lasting impression on the school.
Joan Thompson leaves her appetite to anyone who can afford it.
Jane Tilley leaves her cheerful smile to some friendly underclassman.
Maureen Unavitch leaves Mrs. Kileen without a helper.
Morrie Wheeler leaves to publish his original joke book.
Donna White leaves Mr. Eastwick without a good typist.
William White leaves his booming voice to Ralph Sternberg.
Fred Whittet leaves the presidency of the Kwitcharbellyakin Club to anyone who deserves it.
Bill Scheniski leaves Latin 3 much to the relief of the other members of the class.
George Jordan leaves again.
Alvin Hunt leaves nothing.
Bob Strait leaves for home.
The Senior Driver's Education Class leaves Mr. Eastwick still checking his list.
The Editors-in-Chief of the Yearbook leaves to our successors a ten volume book entitled "How to Make a Yearbook in Three Easy Lessons" plus a gallon bottle of aspirin.

Annual Dinner Marks Beginning of Presidential Campaign

by Charlene Kretzmer

Washington, Feb., 10 (Special)

Last night, I attended, as special correspondent, the annual campaign dinner at the Cornell-Madigan Hotel.

In the splendid dining room, designed by the A. Whittet and W. White Company, a delicious meal was served. The chef to whom credit is due for this mouth-watering feast is Monsieur Roger Corbett.

After the dinner, in an introductory speech by New York State Senator Edward Loomis, the merits of the presidential candidate, Mr. Paul Bachorz, were set forth. After thanking the Senator, Mr. Bachorz introduced the candidate for the vice-presidency, Mr. T. Van Surdam Miles. Opposing these candidates were Mr. D. A. Armstrong and Mr. Gene Roberson. A toast to the forthcoming election was given by Mr. John Cooney. Speeches by other political hopefuls, Edward Brandi, Donald Hillman and Anthony McShane, were followed by entertainment.

The famous H. B. Cole Jr. Band, with Miss Patricia Griswold as vocalist, played the popular song "Party Girl" written by Marshall and Marshall.

The singing trio of Lapan, Niles, and Pirtz also rendered a selection. The well-known pianist, Marilyn Hill, accompanied Maureen Unavitch in a melody composed by Reilly and Sheffer. The remarkable dancer, Judy Jepson, charmed all of us. The dancing team of Jordon and Mayer also rendered one of their numbers.

PROPHECY

After the musical portion of the program, the world famous comedian Morris Wheeler, appeared. J. Kasavitcha, R. Howard and D. Sweet performed their imitation of the Three Stooges. James Brown did a pantomime and Pauline Arasim interested all of us by reading an excerpt from her latest novel "How to Win Friends and Keep Them".

When this entertaining program came to an end, I was able to mix socially with others at the banquet.

Seated next to me was Miss Janet Thompson, star of stage and screen. Her escort was her producer, Ronald Liporace. Miss Thompson stars in her latest success with beautiful Anne Marie Hayes and talented LeRoy Gardner.

Another guest was Joan Thompson, author of the best-selling novel, "Wheaties for Breakfast". In a beautiful gown designed by Barbara Pytko of New York, was F. J. Bugbee, the well-known columnist.

John Green, the press photographer for the presidential candidate, Mr. Bachorz, and Richard Stallmer, publicity manager, were also present at the dinner.

Richard Danforth, Thomas McGuire and Richard Hawks, successful financiers, were present to support their candidate General John McMahon and Mayor Robert Strait were also present as special guests.

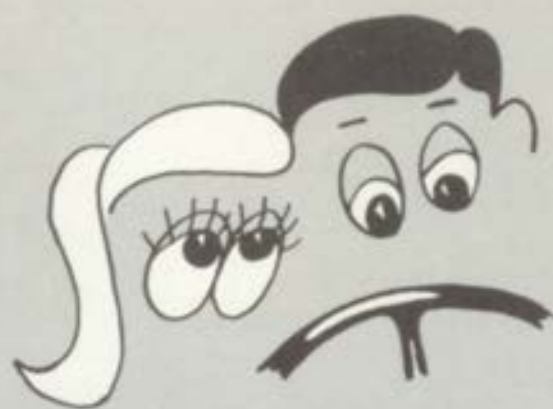

On the planning committee were socialites Miss Audrey Moon and Miss Pamela Niegoda. Miss Jane Tilley and Miss Joanne Palmateer, well-known in social circles, also lent their presence to this glamorous affair. Miss S. Brock, B. McCart, L. Milliman, D. White and L. Pandell, this season's debutantes, appeared at this dinner, also.

All these famous guests added to the splendor of this annual campaign dinner, making it the highlight of this year's social calendar, at Washington and of interest to politicians and socialites all over the country.

Library Club

The Library Club is continuing this year with a membership of approximately 25 girls. They elected the following officers at one of their first meetings: President, Susan Marshall; Vice-President, Mary Ann Sluzas; Secretary-Treasurer, Arlene Cornell.

Because of the difficulty of finding any one day when all the members could attend meetings, the group is meeting on a committee schedule of small groups each week.

In place of the regular Christmas party the members contributed fresh and canned fruits and cookies to the Hoosick Falls Health Center.

Student Council

The Student Council has sponsored several activities during the year including a Bundle Day, Thrift Club and Dress Up Day.

The Bundle Day gave school pupils an opportunity to bring clothes to school to be "bundled" and sent to needy children. Thrift Club was formed to give students an opportunity to buy Postal Savings Stamps, thereby not only saving but money but also developing good thrift habits.

Dress Up Day was the day when most of the student body came to school dressed in their Sunday Best.

Band

The Hoosick Falls Central School Senior Band consisting of 60 students in grades 9-12 and directed by H. Bradford Cole, Head of the Music Department had had its usual busy schedule of events this year.

After an unusually busy summer schedule the group lurches right into the Fall program playing all the home football games, adding greatly to the enjoyment of these events. The annual Christmas program including the high school assembly and the public concert kept the band busy after the football season.

Following the Christmas recess the band delved into working on music for the Spring concert in April and State Contest in May. After these two events were taken care of the band busied itself preparing for the usual array of parades in May.

The band was well represented in the Sectional All-State music festival in November at Averill Park and the annual County Music Festival in April at East Greenbush.

Our director Mr. Cole had the unusual honor of conducting the sectional All-State Junior High Band at Hudson, N. Y. in November.

Chorus

First Row: Left to Right: P. Arasim, L. Milliman, S. Cipperly, S. Yerke, M. Hill, J. Neaton, M. Straub, P. Pereboom, S. Sherman, D. Baker, B. Eldred, B. Baker.

Third Row: G. Loomis, T. Nesbitt, S. Burke, L. Miles, F. Buswell, B. Pytko, J. A. Palmateer, J. Hunt, R. Leibensperger, I. Jordan, J. Jones, P. Griswold, E. Seifert, P. Sargood.

Fourth Row: K. Mello, C. Kretzmer, S. Marshall, L. Piritz, S. Marshall, L. Rowley, D. Moll, H. Paddock, S. Carr, E. Jones, J. Filkins, L. Leesman.

Fifth Row: R. Stenberg, B. Cole, G. McKearin, E. Decker, S. Cottrell, R. Harrison, J. Harrison, E. Madigan, A. Armstrong, R. Corbet, E. Brandi, E. Johnson, F. Whitter, S. Sorkin, B. Bissonett, H. Goodermote.

This year, the chorus is much larger than it has been the past few years. The Christmas recital and Spring Concert are the annual events for which this group prepares.

We also hope to attend the Tri-State Music Festival in June.

Junior Band

The Hoosick Falls Central School Junior Band consisting of 50 students in grades 5-8, directed by H. Bradford Cole, Music Department head is the finest Junior Band we have ever had.

Emerging from the State Contest last Spring with an A. rating, the Junior Band had a busy summer schedule. Starting in the Fall with three rehearsals weekly, the group prepared itself for the annual community Halloween Parade which ultimately was "rained out." Next, the Christmas Program which the Junior Band played its part very nobly along with the Christmas Assembly.

In February the Band did an outstanding program of music at the Hoosick Grange, an annual affair done by one of the school's music groups. With this program out of the way, the group prepared itself for the Spring Concert in April and the State Contest in May.

With the usual number of parades scheduled for May the Junior Band next prepared for these. All in all the band has had a very busy and successful year.

Eleven 5th. and 6th. graders represented our Junior Band in the All-County Elementary Band at East Greenbush in April.

FOOTBALL - 1959

This year was our first year of eleven-man football. It was also our first football season under our new head football coach, Coach Kenyon.

The men on the team had high spirits and were in the best of physical condition but lacked the experience of eleven man ball. They lost all the games except the game with St. Peter's in which both teams tied 0-0. (The game was played under adverse weather conditions.)

The men who will be returning next year feel that they gained enough valuable experience to make next year's team a strong contender for the championship.

Baseball

Although we lost all our games, several of them were close and were one or two run decisions.

From our last years' team we lost only one infielder and one outfielder, so this spring we will be loaded with returning lettermen plus many freshman and other underclassmen who will be out for the first time.

This spring we look toward a fine baseball season to round out the 1959-1960 schedule of sports at Hoosick Falls High School.
