PRESENTS

THE VAGABOND

HOOSICK FALLS CENTRAL SCHOOL

HOOSICK FALLS, NEW YORK

FOREWORD

The theme of the 1963 Vagabond is representative of our class as a crosscut of American youth in modern and abstract ideas. Entering a world geared to increasing political tension and rapid scientific and social advancement, the youth of America have to be of a tough moral and physical fiber. To H.F.C.S. we offer our gratitude for the molding of our characters, for developing individual interests, and for preparing each of us to meet the challenge of life.

SENIORS

Graduation day will be a momentous occasion for this senior class because it marks the successful completion of twelve years of education, an education which taught them more than the "3R's." These people have been encouraged in a variety of fields, and now the time has come for decisions which will affect them for the rest of their lives. Some will find jobs and immediately go to work, others might choose a branch of the Armed Forces, and still others will go on to further education. But, whatever they do, the experiences gained at H.F.C.S. will always be a guide.

Willbrant, 7th ROW: J. Fitzpatrick, A. Baker, A. Robinson, D. Filkins, D. Eighmey.

This year the class of 1964 has been engaged in many activities, both social and academic. Class officers include President Kitty Areson, Vice president Richard Lassar, Secretary Cheryl Frank, and Treasurer Jim Whittet. Our Student Council repre-sentatives are Allen Baker, Cheryl Frank and Ann Ruditis. We spon-sored several dances, two of which were after home basketball games and one was on a Saturday night entitled the "Loco-Motion." The executive committee, composed of Bruce Baker, Allen Baker, Betsy Davison, Wendy Green, Jean Hoag, and Jerry Moseley, as well as class officers planned and ef-ficiently executed a Spaghetti Dinner which was our initial money-raising project for the year. The annual Junior Prom climaxes the year's events of our class.

CLASS OFFICERS

The Class of 1965 began the school year by electing Class officers. Elected were President, Marion McCart; Vice President, Steven Ingraham; Treasurer, Tony Hayes; Secretary, Deborah Markiewicz. Student Council representatives also elected were Paul Harrison, Sandra Reynolds, and Gail Buswell. Advisers were Mr. Roy, Mr. Eighmey, and Mr. Knight. The highlights of our first dance were a twist and limbo contest with cider and doughnuts as refreshments. Another dance was also sponsored by the sophomore class after the last basketball game of the season, on March 1. In March the class put on a food sale for which all food articles were donated by class members.

As activity of an academic nature the sophomore class challenged the freshman class to a College Bowl session. As a sequel to the previous Senior vs. Junior College Bowl. In May the annual sophomore class trip will include a visit to the Palisades and the general New York City area.

The class had a very successful year and looks with high hopes to their future years at Hoosick Falls Central.

CLASS

We the Class of 1966 are proud to be the first class to actually begin our secondary education in this outstanding building. With anticipation we look to the future and shall endeavor to uphold the high scholastic record and fine traditions of Hoosick Falls Central School as set forth by previous classes and to gain the leadership and initiative to keep pace with our new school. So far during the year we have held one dance following a basketball game. Further profit-making activities are planned. Our class officers are Danny Scott -- president, Andrea Cook -- vice-president, Linda Cappellino -- secretary, and Stephen Taber -- treasurer, successor to Rhey Plumley.

JUNIOR HIGH

EIGHTH GRADE

This year the seventh grade students stepped across the division between elementary and junior high procedures. For the first time they experienced the changing of classes and teachers for different subjects.

Six pupils represent these classes in the Student Council: Diane Fowler, Howard Harrington, and Pat Scaglione from the seventh grade; William Cottrell, Helen Hayes, and Frank Reynolds from the eighth. These students participate in the regular meetings and activities of the Council.

The social activities of the classes included five informal dances held in the school cafeteria.

A library of paperbound books was set up in Mrs. Seifreid's room. Two eighth grade girls, Pamela Foster and Judy Ellis, acted as librarians, and all seventh and eighth grade students were allowed to borrow books as in a real library.

SEVENTH GRADE

A reading laboratory started for eighth graders was to improve their reading level by two years. In twelve weeks reading comprehension and speed are increased by this method.

A Junior Red Cross under the leadership of Mr. Brewster and composed of two representatives from each of six, seventh, and eighth grade homerooms has been organized. These people formed a council to plan activities and select committees to carry out these plans. Activities include preparing booklets on the Red Cross to send to foreign nations, working for the Health Center, and making disaster kits.

In a special Junior High Science Club composed of 17 students, science equipment and the use of it was studied. Its main purpose was to allow students to pursue their individual interests and to do research on different phases of science.

Besides these, the junior-high set a fast pace athletically with its football and basketball teams.

ACTIVITIES

Equally important to good academic standing is a well-rounded personality. True the world needs nuclear physicists and neuro-surgeons, but it also needs teachers, musicians, athletes, librarians, and similarly talented people. The HFCS curriculum is designed to include outlets for individual leadership, creativity, and special abilities. A number of hobbies too expensive to pursue individually are available to the students. Those who excel in sports have a chance to demonstrate their agility and also provide entertainment for others. Whatever the activity, it does help to develop the sound minds and bodies of the leaders of tomorrow.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

National Honor Society tapping is an event eagerly awaited by all each spring. A new custom of inducting sophomores as well as juniors and seniors was added last year. To be considered for membership sophomores must have a minimum average of 90%, juniors 88%, and seniors 85%. From among those students who qualify scholastically are chosen those who best illustrate the remaining 3 qualities symbolic of National Honor Society. -- Leadership, Character, and Service. The final decision on membership rests with the faculty. Who will be tapped in '63?

Mrs. Kelly, our adviser, points out the qualifications for membership.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The 1962-1963 Student Council, meeting weekly with Mr. Warren Eastwick as adviser, has worked for improvements and activities for the student body.

A dance was the first of many Student Council sponsored activities. The money from this dance went into a fund to help finance the coming of another foreign student.

During the football season the Student Council served refreshments at the home games to the spectators.

Representatives also sold milk each noon period to facilitate cafeteria service.

The Student body contributed to our Christmas party for selected pupils of the elementary section. Sandwiches, ice cream, Christmas cookies, and candy canes were enjoyed by all the children. Santa Claus arrived and distributed presents.

The council sponsored a "College Bowl" quiz contest. A great spirit of competition between the Junior and the Senior classes, the contenders, was aroused.

The monitor squad, composed of both representatives and student volunteers, patrols the halls to prevent running, cutting into the lunch line and other misdemeanors.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club holds its meetings every other Monday during "B" and "C" lunch periods. The 25 members help our school librarian, Mrs. Kelly to sort the many magazines available to the students, keep books and shelves in order, aid in desk work, plan various exhibits throughout the school year, and assist in the elementary library. A spring trip to the State Library in Albany was one of the many things discussed at their regular meetings. Officers are as follows: president, Mina Starr; vice president, Beverly LeBarron; secretary-treasurer, Jean Hoag.

Library Club members Mina Starr and Nancy Trombley work at the main desk.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

FRENCH CLUB OFFICERS

Sandra Reynolds, Marior McCart, Ralph Sternberg, Ellen Jones.

The French Club of "63", counseled by Mrs. Miller, consists of 50 members. The meetings are held on one Wednesday of every month during bus room and 7th period. At the meetings the students discuss and vote on projects for the year. The drawing up of a constitution ranked first in the order of importance of the club's activities. The members sold blue and white ball-point pens with the basketball schedule on them. On December 6th the French II students went to the Clark Art Institute, in Williams-town, Massachusetts. On the 14th of December the French Club sponsored a dance after a basketball game. The club has decided to present the play "Triple Trouble" this year.

THE DIVERSIFIED INTERESTS OF FFA

The Hoosick Falls Chapter of the Future Farmers of America has a full calendar of activities planned for this year. President Bud Gulley, secretary Tom Hunt, treasurer Kenneth Cipperly, reporter Joseph Hanselman, and sentinel Curtis Senecal, under the advisement of Ralph Bullock, are doing a fine job of carrying out their program.

Last fall at the Cobleskill High School Day Ben Niles, Bud Gulley, and Jerry Taber tied for second place with the Cherry Valley Chapter in the Dairy Judging Contest. Terry Hoag was one of the finalists in Dairy Cattle Showmanship. Tom Hunt placed third in the Tri-County Group F.F.A. Dairy Cattle Judging Contest. On Sunday, November 25, the Chapter represented by Carl Fowler, Ben Niles, Bud Gulley, and Rocky Harrington appeared on television in the skit "Homemade and Handy."

The Chapter is planning to hold the Annual Parent's Night Banquet. This spring they are looking forward to attending Agricultural Science Day at Cornell University, as well as the F.F.A. Convention.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

At the first meeting of the club in September the following officers were elected: Ethel Verba, president; Cissie Fink, vice-president; Cynthia Petersen, secretary; Mary Green, treasurer.

Because of the club's late start last year, first a constitution had to be drawn up. To put the club on its feet financially a successful dance was held in November. The club was then chartered under the National Education Association and the Capital Area Future Teacher's Association (CAFTA).

On December 8, 1962 the members went to CAFTA's annual fall conference at Ravena-Coeymans-Selkirk Central School. There they visited one of the four workshops which gave them information concerning teaching, scholarships, and college.

The members are observing in the class room of grades K-6. They find it very enjoyable and helpful. At regular meetings either a speaker or a member of the club speaks on a particular aspect of teaching. This spring the club hopes to send a representative to Long Island for the National Convention.

Ethel Verba assists the eighth grade reading class as part of a Future Teachers project.

NEWSPAPER CLUB

The Newspaper Club, due to many unforeseen difficulties, got off to a slow start. This year it was decided that the paper would undergo a transition and become a professionally typed tabloid in place of the regular, mimeographed, paperbacked issues of past years. The name of our paper has been officially carried over from last year and is the RIVER ROAD RAMBLER.

Through the efforts of editor Sylvia Mello and her staff under the guidance of Mr. Peckham and Mrs. Dorothy Miller it shows promise of being a very interesting newspaper.

CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club, with Mr. William Peckham, Mr. Anthony Altobell and Mr. Brostoski as advisers, has been one of our busiest clubs this year. They began by taking pictures for the yearbook. Although this was the major project, developing and printing, photogrammetry, outdoor pictures, and the study of photo composition played an active part in the club's activities. Was the club successful? Their pictures appeared in the local papers.

RADIO CLUB

The Radio Club, which has the call letters WB2ESO, was licensed in January of this year. The purpose of this club is to prepare its members to operate their own radios after passing the federal examination. The equipment being used by the club was purchased through the Principal's Fund. Proceeds from school events sponsored by the Radio Club are used to repay the fund. The Club meets once a week with its advisers, Mr. Wahler and Mr. Karpiak, to practice radio codes, learn federal rules and regulations, and practice the operation of a radio transmitter.

The HFCS High School Chorus, directed by Mrs. Eloise Canzeri, performs in the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts given by the music department, at the Tri-State Choral Concert, and in the N.Y.S.S.M.A. Competition Festival on a grade four level. This year individual members also sang in the N.Y.S. Sectional Festival at Glens Falls, at the Tri-State Festival at Tanglewood, and in the All County Music Festival at Averill Park.

MUSIC IS A PRIMARY SOURCE

CONCERT

BAND

The "Concert Band" of 65 members is the highest level instrumental group of our school. The band boasts a fine, well-balanced instrumentation and plays music from marches and easy listening types to the most difficult symphonic arrangements.

The band performed for the annual New York State competition at Glens Falls last year and received an "A" rating, scoring 136 from a possible 140 points. Many of the members qualified and were accepted for the "All-State" band and orchestra also at Glens Falls. The band plays Christmas and Spring concerts each year in addition to appearing at school assemblies and parades. The energetic attitude of the bandsmen has elevated the calibre of this group to a level of which any school would be justly proud.

DANCE BAND

The dance band is a newly formed group which was well received at their first appearance last fall. Meeting for rehearsal only once per week, and on their own time, they have developed an easy, relaxed, swinging style and mature sound. We will see more and more of this group in the ensuing years.

JUNIOR PROM

The Junior Prom, our only formal dance and also the most anticipated one of the year, highlights the social events for most H.F.C.S. students.

The Class of '63 united their efforts under the direction of Mr. Leslie Linsenbarth and worked together for a successful Prom. Mary Rowley, Chairman of the Prom Committee, distributed jobs among committee members and saw that everything was done according to plan.

The cafeteria was adorned with crepe paper and paper carnations, spotlights shone on a mirror-covered ball suspended from the center of the ceiling, and a water fall and a wishing well were the outstanding attractions as we danced.

We could have danced all night to the music of Cortland Cottrell's Melody Masters.

Wayne Bouplon and Linda Bender crown our royal couple Susan Kovage and Paul Kipp.

JUNIOR CHORUS

The Junior Chorus, composed of vocalists in the seventh and eighth grades, rehearses during Monday and Wednesday noon hours. It is here in Junior Chorus that these boys and girls are first taught to sing individual parts with musical showmanship, a step in preparation for Senior Chorus. Their first performance at the annual Christmas concert was a fine example of their talent.

JUNIOR BAND

While this group is generally considered a training ground for the Concert Band, they are actually a fine performing group. They work hard on problems of tonal development, band balance, control, and intonation. The Junior Band has also carried home honors by earning an "A" rating at the New York State School Music Association competition held at Glen Falls.

SAVINGS BOND PROGRAM

Under the guidance of Miss Charlotte Hulihan, the business department has been working industriously to provide the school with a well run savings bond program. The students take the orders, collect the money, keep the records, and deliver the stamps and bonds to the grade school children. The mascot of the program is Astro, the dog, which goes to the class buying the largest number of stamps. A booth manned by business students has been set up across the hall from the Home Economics room where the high school students purchase their bonds and stamps. Through the constant effort of the students involved the program has been very successful this past year.

Priscilla delivers a bond to Mr. Wahler.

Under the direction of head coach Bud Kenyon and his instrumental subordinates, coaches Michael Angelo and Donald Roy, the gridiron squad of Hoosick Falls Central compiled a six and one record in conquering their first league championship in more than a decade.

The still unexplained 13-6 loss to Stillwater was the single motive that prevented a clean sweep and sole possession of the Washington County League Championship. However, by crushing their championship colleagues, the Schuylerville Mudders, the Hoosiers take an even greater pride with their showpiece trophy.

Though the 16 seniors, who contributed heavily to the untiring efforts of this year's squad will be leaving, the class of 1963 hopes that the Blue and White teams to follow will be mutually successful.

COOPERATION AND INDUSTRY

These two offensive lines, combined with the brilliant efforts of the defensive unit, bulled through the opposition to conquer the co-championship title.

Playing championship baseball until the final 2 games of the year, the Blue and White baseball squad of 1962 lost their opportunity to capture the Washington County League championship when they dropped the final games of the season to Greenwich and Fort Ann.

Representing the league in Class C sectional competition, the Blue and White displayed fine form. However, we lost a tough 6 to 3 decision to Queensbury.

With a veteran squad returning for '63, we have hopes of capturing the league crown to culminate a very successful year in our major sport activities.

After 21 years a basketball championship has come to Hoosick Falls Central. Under the direction of head Coach Kenyon the Blue and White quintet compiled a seventeen and one, won-lost record to capture the Washington County League Championship.

During the long season the Hoosiers scored victories in their first eleven contests before dropping their only decision on to a red hot Salem squad. The Hoosiers went on to win their last six games. However, it was not until the final battle of the season with Greenwich that the Hoosiers clinched the championship. The mighty five went on to play Fort Plain in the Class C Sectionals at Mechanicville. Though battling to the end, they suffered a 50-40 loss.

Though Hoosier Junior Varsity squads have compiled fine records many times in the past decade, this year the JV squad reached their goal by matching their Varsity companions' feat of conquering the Washington County League.

Guided by Coach William Gilchrest, this year's squad established an impressive 16 and 2 record. Both losses came early in the season, the first at Schuylerville and the latter at Greenwich. Although they will not be awarded a trophy they are to be commended for a job well done.

Wrestling, making its debut at Hoosick Falls Central on a competitive basis, had what Coach Michael Angelo would call a successful year as the team wrestled to a .500 season.

The squad, which carried a roster of seventeen men, was carried extensively by Junior Bill Koehler with six wins and one loss and Freshman Ed King, who wrestled impressively with three wins and two losses.

Next year the Blue and White wrestlers will add Warrensburg to their schedule, a club that defeated Ballston Spa and Saratoga. With a veteran squad, the Hoosiers hope to come out with a winning season.
