Volume 33

*No man is an island.
No man stands alone.
Each man's joy is joy to me,
Each man's grief is my own.
We need one another,
So I will defend
Each man as my brother,
Each man as my friend.*

IN APPRECIATION OF . . .

Mr. Douglas J. Eighmey, Sr.

In this way we are attempting to thank you, Mr. Eighmey, not only for your 29 years of service at Hoosick Falls Central but also for your interest in us as young adults. You have been a physical education instructor, Director of Athletics, but even more important to our way of thinking, a friend.

A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops.

ADMINISTRATION & FACULTY

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

MR. JAMES H. BEAVERSON

TO THE CLASS OF 1964:

On behalf of the faculty and staff I should like to offer sincere congratulations for your present achievement.

We wish you continued success in all your endeavors and a measure sufficient of happiness and contentment.

Most sincerely,

James H. Beaverson

In his office, which to most of us, is "behind the scenes," Mr. Beaverson scans a high school survey. This is the weatherman who determines whether or not we have school on snowy days.

Top Nine Seniors

These seniors have attained the highest scholastic averages in the Class of 1964.

Scholastic Achievement is Commended at H.F.C.S.

In mid-December these students were contestants on WRGB's Little Red School House. They defeated their first opponent, Draper High School, but lost the following week to Chatham High School. Nice job, kids!

Louise Nelson, who is presently a first year-student at Vanderbilt University, rejoined her former classmates of 1964 at the Winter Ball. Her dancing partner is senior Ed O'Brien.

As a supplement to their secretarial courses, seniors Sue Woodard and Cheryl Frank are participating in a volunteer computer class during study halls and seventh periods.

Two members of the class of 1964, Ellen Gavagan and Sylvia Mello, retreat from the confusion of the school day. They seem to be "getting away from it all" on this stairwell near the junior high wing.

In the Art Appreciation class, Pam Ballou leafs through a dictionary of modern art. This course, one of the newer ones at H.F.C.S., has been greeted enthusiastically by the student body.

"Adjust the seat and check the mirror," instructs Mr. Idleman to members of the Driver Ed. class, Ann Ruditis (driver), Bill Yurewicz, Dave Filkins, and Janice Cipperly. Completion of the Driver Ed. course enables students to receive senior licenses at the age of 17.

Class of 1966

Our class officers chosen in the fall elections were Suzanne Davison, president; Betsy Cipperly, vice-president; Sally Busby, Treasurer; and Linda Cappellino, Secretary. Student Council representatives included John Arnold, Tom Beckstein, and Susan Shaughnessy.

The officers, advised by Mr. Stritch and Mr. Wahler, opened the year with a class meeting at which they planned their fall dance, "Sophomore Swindle." A Sophomore assembly, composed of class talent, was also discussed. Another dance after the home basketball game with Cambridge was also sponsored by the class.

The annual Sophomore trip to the United Nations included a general tour of the New York City area as well as buffet dinner and a late arrival home in Hoosick Falls.

Class of 1967

The class of 1967 began the school year with the election of class officers. Those elected were president, Bill Cottrell; vice-president, Helen Hayes; treasurer, Dale Mihuta; and secretary Debbie Harrison. Our Student Council representatives were Nancy Steller, Peter Holzhauer, and Bill Cottrell.

Held on Nov. 15, 1963, our dance, the "Freshman Fumble," was the highlight of our school year. Further activities are being planned.

Our class is looking forward to our future years at HFCS with anticipation and we shall endeavor to uphold the high scholastic standards and fine traditions of Hoosick Falls Central School as set forth in the past.

Varsity Football

This year's varsity football squad, guided by Coach Kenyon and Coach Angelo enjoyed a most successful season, finishing in a tie with St. Peters for second place in the Washington County Football League. The team played heads up ball in every game and was sparked by a hard hitting offense and a very stingy defense. In seven league games the defense gave up only 72 points while the offense racked up 114. The line, under the direction of Coach Angelo, ripped gaping holes in enemy defenses and Coach Kenyon's hard running backs took complete advantage of them to sustain long drives.

The 1963-64 Hoosiers finished second in the Washington County League with an 8-4 record and completed the season with an 11-5 overall record. The squad made up for its lack of height by playing a very fast deceptive ball game defeating many teams which man to man were much taller. The determination which Coach Kenyon's charges showed throughout the season offered many thrilling moments to the spectators watching the games.

In March the team entered the Class C Sectionals.

This tournament brought to a close the high school basketball careers of seniors, Doug and Don Eighmey, Richard Lassar, and Don Decker, who played on last year's championship team. Playing the best basketball of their careers the boys defeated their quarter final opponent Mayfield before losing in the semifinals to Cobleskill.

This year's varsity baseball team, coached by William Gilchrist compiled an enviable 13-2 record including 3 sectional games. The brilliant season was highlighted by the fine pitching of Dick Lassar and Dick Niles plus the power-batting of Ben Niles and Mike McCoubrey. Playing fine ball, they were co-champions of the Washington County League, and made the finals of the Class C sectionals. With a veteran team returning in 1964, we look forward to another splendid year.

The cheerleaders kept the spirit of H.F.C.S. alive. All season they were rooting for the boys even when the game was rough.

National Honor Society

Three seniors Carol Calhoun, Ellen Gavagan and Jean Brust display that technique which earned them their positions on the society.

The National Honor Society, founded in 1921, was established to stimulate the high scholarship, constructive leadership, purposeful service, and worthy character of high school students throughout this country. The Hoosick Falls Chapter, given its charter in 1944, has a present membership of 12 Juniors and Seniors. Many other potential Honor Society members will be tapped this spring and welcomed into the order.

The National Honor Society Dinner was innovated last year and attended by 56 students accompanied by their parents. These students included all on the honor roll at least once during the school year as well as the members of the National Honor Society. It was proclaimed a success and will become an annual event.

With the helpful guidance of Mr. Warren Eastwick the Student Council has met biweekly to suggest and plan improvements for expanding the activities of the entire student body.

Early in the year the student governing organization sponsored a poster contest, the theme of which was "Beat Cambridge." Besides giving our students a chance to display their artistic talents, the football team was given a lot of well deserved publicity. The Council also held a dance after the Greenwich basketball game, the profits of which were donated to the March of Dimes.

The officers elected for this year are: president, Don Eighmey; vice president, Ann Ruditis; secretary, Susan Peckham; treasurer, Paul Harrison. All the members of the council sincerely enjoy serving the Student body which they represent.

Don Eighmey and Ann Ruditis go over plans for Student Council activities with Mr. Eastwick and Mr. Leonard.

Le Cercle Français

Le Cercle Français opened the year under the guidance of our new French teacher, Miss Jane Goewey.

At the first meeting in September the following officers were elected: President, Cissie Fink; Vice President, Sandy Reynolds; Secretary, Marion McCart; Treasurer, Milton Gottschalk; Bulletin Board Chairman, David Smith.

Every month our able bulletin board committee has had eye-catching displays for everyone to admire.

At the Christmas meeting, which holds many memories for the club's members, a play, "Le Pere Noel" was presented followed by a game of French Charades.

In November, the French Club sponsored a dance after a basketball game and held a dance in April, using a French theme. The suggestion of donating a gift to the school for future French classes was well received and a committee was formed for this purpose.

Cissie Fink directs a last minute rehearsal for a French Club play with Cynthia Petersen, Milton Gottschalk, and David Smith.

Sports editors R. Cutler and J. Whittet arrange football pictures.

W. Green consults C. Calhoun before making an important decision.

Treasurer J. Fisk and Business Manager B. Baker check to see that the books balance.

Photographers S. Mello and G. Moseley add a new roll of film to the camera.

J. Hoag and B. LeBarron work on the typing necessary to finish a page.

Staff Members, A. Ruditis, E. Gavagan, and D. Filkins proofread club write-ups.

Library Club

The Library Club is an integral part of our school library. Club members learn the duties of an apt librarian while actually performing them under the leadership of Mrs. Eleanor Kelly. Members care for the reading shelves, create displays in the library window, supervise the junior high section, check out books, and organize magazines.

Officers elected for this year include: President, Pat Luskin; Vice President, Ann Pudvar; and secretary-treasurer, Jeanne Hoag.

The Library Club activities have varied throughout the year and have included a luncheon at Christmas, and a spring dance.

Library Club members Nancy Taber and Linda Seney spend many hours in the library helping Mrs. Kelly.

The Hoosick Blue Keys Radio Club has been on the air about a year now and already has contacted over 200 other amateurs including some "hams" in Canada and even Genoa, Italy. The walls of the radio "shack" are bedecked with cards confirming these contacts.

Four students now working the Ranger 2 transmitter and H Q 120 receiver are licensed operators. Several other members are working to get their "tickets" with the help of Mr. Wahler, the club's advisor. Mr. Wahler teaches the Morse Code and elementary theory required by the Federal Communications Commission for a license. Once our "hams" are licensed they are allowed to use the club's call letters -- WB2ESO -- and also the club's equipment.

The purpose of the Future Teachers of America is to better acquaint prospective teachers with the methods and techniques employed in modern teaching. The members are given an opportunity to work in elementary classrooms and gain first-hand experience.

The Future Teachers of America began their activities this year under the direction of Mrs. Bordeaux, Mr. Roy, Mr. Eastwick, and Mr. Clintson. At the first meeting the members discussed the aspects of their newly acquired constitution and Mr. Beaverson delivered a talk on the requirements in New York schools for teachers. Refreshments and a question and answer period followed. The organization sponsored a very successful dance after a basketball game.

This organization is one of many in our school which help mold the character and careers of our students.

Under the direction of Mrs. Eloise Canzeri the 84 members of the high school chorus have sung music ranging from religious hymns to popular music. Besides performing at annual Christmas, spring, and Easter concerts, both the complete group and individual members participate in such gatherings as the Tri-State Choral Festival and the N.Y.S.S.M.A. Competition which the chorus will attend on a Festival basis this year. Last year the organization attended on a competitive basis and received a "B" in grade four music.

The chorus, opened to all students interested in vocal music in grades 9-12, provides an opportunity to enjoy music while developing techniques in sight reading and expression.

Jr. Band & Chorus

These two important organizations in our school are a training ground for the Senior Band and Chorus. In vocal areas the students learn to "read" music, to perfect the tone quality of their voices, and to recognize the value of enjoyment which they may achieve through singing. Songs are not confined to hymns and spirituals, but a wide variety of arrangements are available. In the instrumental field, the Junior Band works hard on tonal development, band balance, control, and intonation.

The Junior Chorus, composed of students in the seventh and eighth grade is this year under the direction of Mr. William Tisdale. The group gave a very fine performance at the Christmas Concert at which time, Diana Fowler displayed her very fine vocal talents as soloist. Members of the chorus attended the All-County Music Festival at Hoosic Valley this year. The group holds its rehearsals during A and B lunch periods on Mondays and Fridays. They strive to make their group one to be proud of and deserve much credit.

The Junior Band, under the direction of Mr. Everly, performed at the Christmas Concert and combined with the Senior band at an assembly. Last year this group attended the New York State competition where they received an A rating in grade II music. Music students from this band also attended All-County Festival at Hoosic Valley. These students are to be commended for their excellent work.

Clyde Rowland and Ken White listen to Tom Beckstein play the trombone part as it should be played.

Concert Band

The "Concert Band" of 72 members is the highest level of instrumental music in our school. The band contains a wide assortment of instruments, some of which cannot be found in other area schools. The group's accomplishments in the field of music have ranged from modern pieces to symphonic arrangements.

Last year at the New York State competition, the band received a B rating in grade six, the most difficult level of music played by a band at this gathering. Besides performing at annual Spring and Christmas concerts the band participated in many school and civic affairs. The energy and ability displayed by its members has made the "Concert Band" a noted organization in both the school and the village.

John Arnold plays his lesson in a practice room.

Jennifer Fisk practices "Victory at Sea" before band begins.

Carol embraces the unfinished Tikki.

One of the highlights of the dance was a waterfall on which Bob puts the finishing touches.

Work completed Ann cleans up the remnants in preparation for the big night.

Sylvia place the jungle back-ground on the walls in the hallway.

A vine fence separated the spectators from the dance floor. Jimmy ties the vines together.

Ellen works intently on a palm leaf which later adorned the 8 ft. tree in the jungle scene.

Carrying out the theme of Bali Hai, a huge grey Tiki met the couples as they walked into the mysteriously transformed cafeteria. One wall was covered with a jungle scene complete with real parakeets, coconuts, and banana bunches. The rest of the room was a tropical beach, not lacking in surf and sea gulls.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the queen Beverly LeBarron and the presentation of the court. Music by the Paul Kreiger Orchestra drifted through the candlelit room and the tinkling of the waterfall composed of pleasant overture in the background as couples danced or chatted around small tables.

The decorating committee, headed by Don Eighmey and Louise Nelson deserve much credit for making "Bali Hai" an occasion to be long remembered.

After the coronation, Queen Beverly LeBarron dances with her escort Pat Mumane.

Ann Ruditis finds wire after a mad search.

Chaperones look on as students dance.

The Winter Ball

This year, as in previous years, the senior class sponsored the annual winter ball. Our theme was "Winter Twilight" and music for this memorable occasion was furnished by Paul Kreiger and his trio. We all worked hard on this dance to make it one of the most successful events held in our new school.

Mrs. Von Haggin assists Ed O'Brien and Louise Nelson in decorating.

Students take advantage of music.

The "gang" heads for the WRGB studio with high hopes of becoming the victors on the "Little Red School House."

Dick Lessor and Don Eighmey survey the Halloween proceedings with amusement.

Suzanne Nash takes a last minute look before a test.

Bill Ingram, Bob Scott, and Chuck Robson check their slides in Biology lab.

Tony Hayes concentrates on his chemistry problems.

Alan and Dale Frost await the bell that signals the end of homeroom.

Sandy Harrington busily makes posters for an upcoming dance.

Ron Bouplon hurries down the hall to his next class.
