THEME

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood, And sorry I could not travel both And be one traveler, long I stood And looked down one as far as I could To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair, And having perhaps the better claim, Because it was grassy and wanted wear; Though as for that the passing there Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay In leaves no step had trodden black.

DEDICATION

Paths of truth and courage are not always smooth, well-lighted and easily discernible. Young travelers on these paths require experienced guides, those who have gone before and know the way. You, our parents, have been our guides.

> BECAUSE YOU WERE ALWAYS THERE AND ALWAYS SO VITALLY NEEDED . . .

BECAUSE YOU DIRECTED US TO STRIVE FOR NOTHING LESS THAN THE BEST . . .

BECAUSE YOU MET OUR PROBLEMS WITH CENTLE SMILES RECARDLESS OF ANY SACRIFICES . . .

BECAUSE YOU HAVE BEEN PATIENT AND UNDERSTANDING, SYMBOLIC OF MARY AND JOSEPH . . .

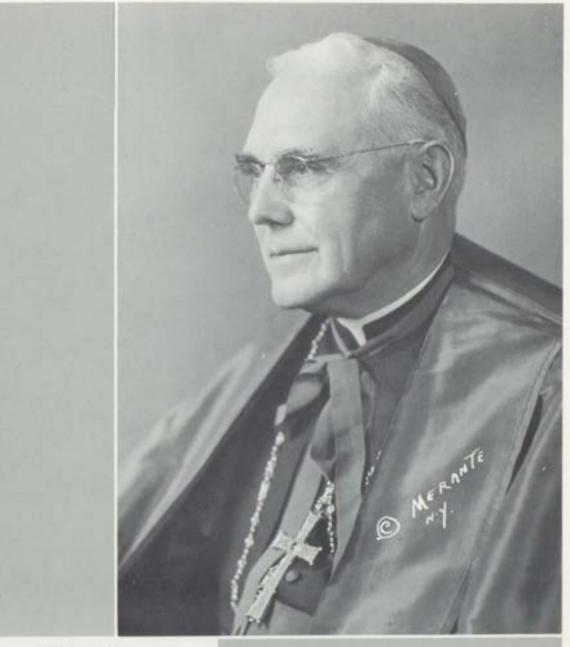

BECAUSE YOU WERE ALWAYS READY TO COUNSEL US AND SHARE WITH US YOUR WISDOM . . .

BECAUSE YOU APPLAUDED OUR SUCCESSES AND EVEN SHARED OUR DEFEATS ...

BECAUSE OF THESE AND NUMBERLESS OTHER REASONS

Our ellent gratitude finds fulfillment with a prayer in our hearts that God may blost each one of you and that we may never fail in your esteem. Hence, we Class of 1963, lovingly dedicate this ECHO to you,

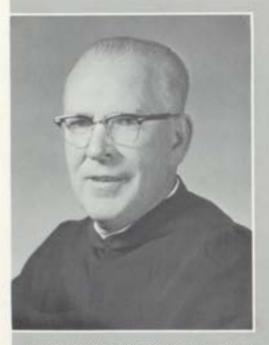

OUR PARENTS

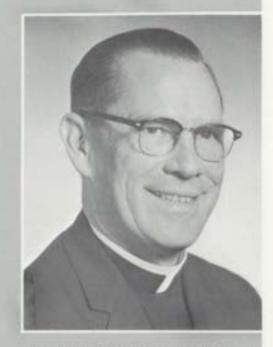

MOST REVEREND WILLIAM A. SCULLY, D.D. BISHOP OF ALBANY

ASSISTANT PRIESTS

THE REVEREND LAWRENCE J. GERRITY, O.S.A.

THE REVEREND KENNETH J. KENNEDY, O.S.A.

On July 21, 1962, the Very Reverend Francis J. Cavanaugh, O.S.A., was elected as Prior Provincial of the Province of Our Mother of Good Counsel to serve for a period of three years in the midwest and Japan.

Father Cavanaugh, a native of Hoosick Falls, began his studies for the priesthood in 1927. He became a Professed Religious in the Order of St. Augustine on September 10, 1929. On June 9, 1936, Father Cavanaugh was ordained priest.

His background includes teaching, administrative work, and parish duties.

THE VERY REVEREND FRANCIS J. CAVANAUGH, O.S.A., PRIOR PROVINCIAL

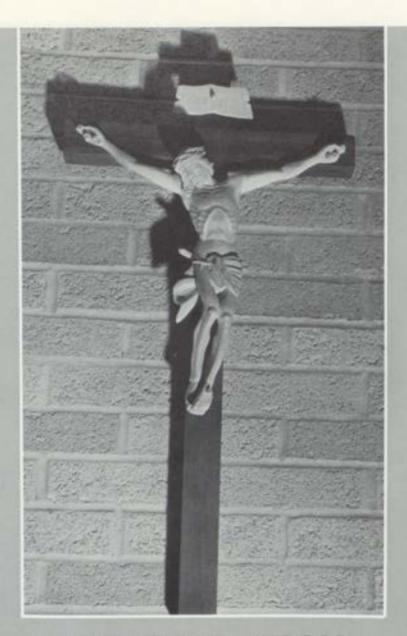

Dear Friends and Class of 1963:

To live in the world of today is no easy task. Repetition of this statement may be tiresome, but it is a fundamental truth of which we must all be convinced. We find ourselves thrown into the company of those who profess no high moral principles. We must rub shoulders with those who profess inability to find time for God's teachings. We walk side by side with those who have no concern beyond their immediate material future. We have to live in a world where double-dealing and dishonesty are considered rather useful practices, not vices, and we are faced with all kinds of temptations. For any of us to brush aside, as of no consequence, the words of warning which are offered to us by those who have lived in this world long enough to know what they are talking about, is to show that we do not understand what a grim reality life is, and what a battle is to be waged if we are to live successfully.

You are all acquainted with the story of Benjamin Franklin and the Whistle. If you decide that the world is not half so had a place as it is painted, and there is nothing whatever to fear in coming in contact with it--it may not be long before you are solled inwardly or morally, something more than just "shop soiled;" and when you come to manhood or womanhood, the mirror of your life is going to reflect the raeful reality that you have "paid too much for a whistle." Therefore, "to thine own self be true." All other verities will follow in their proper place.

Father Charles E. Bauman, O.S.A.

CONSECRATION

"I am the way; the truth; and the life. If anyone wishes to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily and follow me! For he who would save his life will lose it; but he who loses his life for my sake will save it."

Although Christ could have refuted His Jewish accusers and rendered the Roman soldiers powerless, He willingly accepted the cruel death inflicted upon Him. This death He offered to God the Father. Thus, the Sacrifice of Calvary was Christ's offering of His own life for our sins.

In gratitude, we, Class of 1963, consecrate ourselves to you, Christ on the Crucifix.

SIGMA MU DELTA PRESENTS

A DATE WITH BARBARA "Come on, Barbara. We'll be late."

ALONG CAME HARRIET "Okay, Toots! Put up your dukes!"

THE SHOCK OF HIS LIFE "Janet! Janet, they've come after me."

Our newly formed dramatic club, Sigma Mu Delta, has given each senior the opportunity to appear in a one-act play. The plays, A DATE WITH BARBARA, THE SHOCK OF HIS LIFE, and ALONG CAME HARRIET are all comedies which were fun to present.

THE SHOCK OF HIS LIFE "Just control yourself, John. Remember, you make mistakes, too."
