In these difficult times for Catholic schools, let us not forget to pay tribute to the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet. They have shown us what dedication and hard work can do.

Our gratitude can never be completely expressed, but through your faith, you have nourished many. We shall always be indebted for the knowledge you have imparted, for the outlooks you have broadened, and for the ambitions you inspired.

We the class of 1986, lovingly and gratefully thank you for making it possible for us to acquire an invaluable Catholic school education.

DEDICATION

Joe Capuano has very special views on teaching. His classes are more than just instructional exercises. They are a combination of love, lectures, and lessons geared to produce a desired learning experience.

As a deeply religious individual, Mr. Capuano explores with us the areas of other faiths, and he challenges us to embrace our own Christian values. He seeks to instill in us a desire to achieve an excellence in education which will cultivate the whole person.

Thank you, Mr. Capuano.

Last Will and Testimony

Left leaves Donna with nothing in her basement and no one to administer the claw. She also leaves still trying to find "Nadine" and on time, for once.

Lisa Baker leaves her generic answers to Mr. Bromirski, she leaves Lee Anne Shaw with her sexy eyes. She leaves Karen with her memories of the fort and Judy with memories of nights at Karen's table and the day after.

Bob Barton leaves Miss Hayden wondering if she can get through the day without seeing his wonderful face.

Linda leaves her brother Bill with her yearbook headaches. She also leaves Terri Brock with her (Blank) stationery.

Judy leaves searching for the "great pumpkin" and "Mom" without her favorite daughter around. She also leaves still waiting for "Pammy."

Lori leaves heading for the beach and steering clear of all bridges. She also leaves still yelling at Sean, but in a good mood.

Dani leaves her ulcer pills with Muly, as she departs on the quad saying Raspberry is nice!

Lisa Gumarra leaves the P.M.H. with D.L. and J.K. in her "chervetable," which she leaves in car heaven. She also leaves Suzanne and Lori at H.F.C.S. to go on to spend an enchanted evening with C.R. and C.Y. and Devon to K.M.D.!

Phil leaves Brendan, Rob, and Shawn to have "de peunt" by themselves. He also leaves still looking for his deer.

Joe leaves Mr. Kapp with a very big problem . . . to try to find another assistant coach. He also leaves Palma with an empty chair next to her at lunch.

Suzanne leaves with Kelley, Muly, and Oni on her way to Allies promising never to jump off a "Cliff" again! She also leaves still trying to beat Lisa on Windy Hill.

Robert Mulvihill leaves his brother his superb athletic and academic abilities. He also leaves to sail the seven seas realizing it's not just a job, it's an adventure!

Sean leaves Mr. Bromirski his pillow from Sociology class. He also leaves still trying to make Lisa and Lori crazy!

Kelley leaves green M&M's to Olivia the Ostrich, its owner, and Amy L. She also leaves all of her Williams paraphernalia to Boom-Boom because she loves those guys as much as Kel. Kelley also leaves 11 people without a ride in the M.B.S. as she heads off to Jellystone National Park.

Karen Seabury leaves Esther with no one to help in the office.

Karen Wirmusky leaves still looking for her J.C. Peuney's catalogue man.

Dear Members of the Class of 1986,

Congratulations on the successful completion of your four years at St. Mary's Academy High School.

For many of you it is the completion of a journey which began many years ago at St. Mary's Academy Elementary School. It is because of the tradition which exists at SMA that makes our school and your years here so special.

Over the years you have prayed, worked, studied, practiced, played and grown from a young child to a young adult. Hopefully, your years at SMA have adequately prepared you for the challenges that life presents.

Because of the size of your class, I feel a very special affiliation with each and every one of you, and I hope that graduation will not be an end, but rather lead to a mature growth in our relationship.

Please take advantage of all we have given here at SMA, live your life to the fullest, and become all that you can become.

Remember, always be true to yourself, be true to your family, and be true to your school.

Congratulations
James F. Kapp
