The parties agree to the following terms and conditions regarding 24 to 250 matches agreement with youth players described below.

- TMG People Welfare Foundation provides sports match agreements to selected players, granting them easy access to the Gully Cup and the official partner club league, as per the TMG Foundation team's terms and conditions
- TMG agrees to provide match contracts as per the agreement with the players and is liable to provide feedback and performance reports within the turnaround time (TAT) period decided by management.
- . Parents and players have agreed to all terms and conditions related to the player development contract.
- Parents and players have committed to maintaining 100% attendance in scheduled leagues and matches
- TMG agrees to provide scholarships based on player performance, up to 100%. (Please note: In India, the foundation only provides scholarships for league fees, while the international TMG Foundation provides scholarships for league fees, accommodation, and food.)
- Parents and players agree that the bottom 20 players based on performance will not have their contracts renewed and will move to a training batch to improve their performance
- Parents and players have agreed to grant TMG Foundation the right to use players' images digitally, including on social media and in news articles, to promote their games, etc
- Parents and players agree that during the contract period, players are not allowed to participate in any other local or official leagues without TMG Foundation's approval.
- Parents and players agree that if a player is selected by another club in India or internationally, 20% of the paid contract will be donated to TMG Foundation. The foundation will use these funds for other players' sports education
- TMG agrees to raise funds related to education specifically for players under a 3-year contract. Players can apply for up to ₹10,000 yearly for educational expenses after completing their contract year. They can also utilize these funds for our educational courses and those offered by our official partner institute.
