IMPORTANT NOTE!

The Last Page of this Catalog is a Flyer for Collectibles Insurance Agency. Having been a Collector and Dealer for almost 30 years I have first hand experiences with lost shipments, breakage in shipments, fire, water damage and theft. This is the first company I have found that specializes in insuring Collectibles. Collector Firearms, Edged Weapons and Related Items are covered for full replacement value with no 'depreciation' or 'Exclusion' clauses. Items are covered while in your possession and in transport. With discounted rates for safes and central station alarm systems. They also offer special policy's for Dealers, Museums and Clubs. They insure most all forms of Collectibles including Militaria, Toys, Dolls, Stamps, etc. The rates are Very Reasonable and the Coverage Provided for losses and damages is most Inclusive. I personally have had a policy with them for 2 years and had a loss in shipment soon after getting the policy. They paid the loss with no arguments as to its value and without questioning if it was 'packaged properly'. If you have ever filed a loss or damage claim with the Postal Service or a Commercial Carrier you know how aggravating this can be. Full Policy Limit Coverage for Fire and Major Natural Disasters like the catastrophic damages caused by the recent Hurricane Katrina. Most Collectors I know Value their Collections Intensely and have spent a Major part of their lives (and disposable income) putting them together. The coverage provided by Collectibles Insurance Agency provides assurance that full fair value will be paid should a loss occur. They are a Good Company that has my Highest Personal Recommendation!

Note: I get no referral fees or commissions should you choose to insure your collectibles with them. If you do, a note with your application noting that you were referred to them by me would be appreciated as they have reimbursed me for postage and printing costs for the Flyer and Insert.
