

Pictures

Page 10	picture 1:	The "old steel hammer" place of birth of the Simson Company.
Page 11	picture 2:	Gun barrel forge around 1890.
Page 12	picture 3:	Gerson Simson, 4/17/1845 – 6/16/1904 Under his supervision the Simson Company rised to a large scale enterprise.
Page 13	picture 4:	Plan of a new administration building in 1882.
Page 14	picture 5:	Production hall in the 20 th century.
Page 15	letter
Page 16	picture 6:	The Simson Company around 1927 (partial view)
Page 17	picture 7:	The Mininger street towards the end of the 20 th century.
Page 18	picture 8:	During the 1930 th : freight train locomotive in front Of the company's heating facilities.
Page 19	picture 9:	The company court yard during the 1930 th
Page 20	picture 10:	Dr. Julius Simson left ,Arthur Simson
Page 21	-
Page 22	Advert.	Simson & Company, Suhl
Page 23	Advert.	Simson Weapons Companies
Page 24	Advert.	Simson & Co., Suhl - bicycles
Page 25	-
Page 26	Advert.	Simson & Co., Suhl - Automobile Simson Supra
Page 27	picture 11:	Car department around 1930 - motor production -
Page 28	picture 12:	Baby stroller production 1937
Page 29	pictures 13:	1) A doll carriage, model Käthe Kruse 2) Doll carriages - marketing photo 1937
Page 30	picture 14:	Hunting rifle installation
Page 31	picture 15:	The forge

Page 32	picture 16:	The new turbine, 1932
Page 33	-
Page 34	picture 17:	Factory entrance in 1932
Page 35	picture 18:	In spite of failure, he was promoted to Senior Government Councillor - Helmuth Gommlich, Detective Superintendent and SS Senior Artillery Leader
Page 36	picture 19:	Refrigerators of the BSW production in the 30 th century
Page 37	news p. clip:	End of the Simson law suit
Page 38	-
Page 39	letter
Page 40	-
Page 41	-
Page 42	picture 20:	the Lautenberg subdivision in 1936/37 Apartment houses for employees, upper houses
Page 43	-
Page 44	-
Page 45	-
Page 46	-
Page 47	-
Page 48	letter
Page 49	picture 21:	Damages of the vandalism in 1945: factory halls plundered by forced laborers, Americans and Soviet soldiers.
Page 50	picture 22:	Production of rifle-stocks for the carbine 98. Around 1937
Page 51	pictures 23:	1) carbine 98 2) MG 08, cal. 7,92mm
Page 52	pictures 24:	1) MG 08/15, cal. 7,92mm. Both machine guns were produced at "Simsons" from 1917 on and after 1925. 2) MG 13; after the production of MG 08 and 08/15 at "Simson" stopped, MG 13 were produced in large numbers.

- Page 53 pictures 25: 1) 2cm-flag 38/65, produced at the Gustloff-Companies. Showing Krupp's traction engine 81 (Krupp-Protze)
2) Around the Generals - the managers of the Gustloff Companies.
- Page 54 pictures 26: 1) June 12, 1937: Utmost interest for the Suhl Armament production. The commander-in-chief of the Army, General Colonel von Fritsch. The picture was taken at the communal room at the "Gustloff" Companies.
2) May 30, 1937: Hermann Göring and BSW apprentices at the Weimar company.
- Page 55 pictures 27: 1) RM 43 "little doll"
2) Hitler and Reichs Governor for Armament and War Productions, Speer conversing with designer Karl Barnitze (4th from right) and company manager Heynen (5th from right) on grounds of the Army Research Department. On the left side of Speer, Chief of the General Staff for the Army, General Colonel Zeitzler. (1943)