It was a love of the air and sky and flying, the lure of adventure, the appreciation of beauty. It lay beyond the descriptive words of men — where immortality is touched through danger, where life meets death on equal plane; where man is more than man, and existence both supreme and valueless at the same time.

Charles Lindbergh, The Spirit of Saint Louis (1953)

Notation

Staccato doit être le plus court et le plus sec possible indépendamment de la valeur de la note / Staccato should be as short and dry as possible regardless of note length.

Son soufflé / eolian sound

Bruit de clé / key click

Pizzicato

Sons éoliens produits en couvrant complètement l'embouchure de l'instrument avec la bouche / Eolian sounds produced by completely covering the instrument's embouchure with the mouth.

Fonctionne avec le mode de jeu décrit précédemment. Exhaler (flèche vers le bas) ou bien inhale (flèche vers le haut) pour produire le son. S'il n'y a pas de flèche, jouer en exhalant. / This effect works with the technique described previously. Respectively exhale (downward arrow) or inhale (upward arrow) to produce the sound. If there's no arrow, exhale to produce the sound.

Tongue ram

Son soufflé en prononçant “CHA” avec overblowing / Produce an eolian sound and pronounce “CHA” while overblowing

Flatterzunge en jouant aléatoirement des sons éoliens entre re et sol (chromatiques) le plus vite possible / Flatterzunge while playing random eolian sounds from D to G (chromatic) as fast as possible

Jouer des sons éoliens détachés et très articulées entre re et sol (chromatiquement) le plus vite possible. Articulation : ta ka ta ka ... / Randomly play eolian staccato sounds from D to G as fast as possible. Articulation : ta ka ta ka...

Overblowing (suivre l'enveloppe / reproduce this envelope)
