

Diversity Ed's QT Camp 2023 Registration Package

The QT Camp 2023 invites youth leaders from schools, organizations, and communities from all over the country to come and enjoy 3 nights and 4 days with other 2SLGBTQIA+ youth. QT Camp fosters safer spaces for young queer and trans people to connect, have fun and participate in camp free from discrimination and gender binaries. We hope you consider applying and enjoying 4 days of fun with new friends. QT Camp is open to youth 11-18 years of age. We look forward to your application.

In this package you will find:

- Leader Letter
- Medical Form
- Participant Code of Conduct
- Participant Registration Form

All forms must be signed and either mailed or scanned and emailed to Crystal Fach by August 1st, 2023. We encourage everyone to visit our website for FAQs and the Draft Agenda.

Please feel free to call or email the contact below with any questions or concerns. Sincerely,

Crystal Fach

Dear Potential Camper,

We are pleased to let you know that your student/youth will be considered and interviewed to be a Youth Participant at the QT Camp (August 13th – August 16th, 2023) and will be gaining valuable connection to their 2SLGBTQIA+ community through a fun camp experience with an amazing group of youth, staff and volunteers.

The QT Camp is a free 3-night, 4-day educational opportunity for 80 youth from Canada happening on August 13th – August 16th, 2023. QT Camp will primarily be taking place at Lambton Centre in Lambton Shores, Ontario. The program consists of interactive activities, camp games, crafts and a dance. Camp participants leave with new friends, lots of fun stories and a sense of community.

We hope that we can count on your support in helping your student/youth attend QT Camp. QT Camp will be an experience they remember for years to come.

If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to contact me at 548-997-5428 or by email.

Sincerely,

Crystal Fach

Participant Code of Conduct

Each participant of the Diversity Ed QT Camp 2023 is expected to adhere to the following:

1. Attend the FULL QT Camp and participate in ALL activities as outlined by QT Camp schedule and/or Camp Counselors.
2. Miscellaneous / Extra Costs: Diversity Ed will be providing accommodation and meals for each participant at camp. However, any extra or outside costs will NOT be covered. This includes, but is not limited to, travel (coming to and leaving the Via Rail station in London, ON), early departure from the camp (due to illness, lack of interests, etc.).
3. Please reach out to inform Diversity Ed. of your travel arrangements, if you are local to Southwestern Ontario or can have your arranged transportation directly to the campgrounds, that is ideal. However, if you will be arriving by train to the Via Rail station in London, then please advise what time you will arrive at
4. so we can arrange your transportation from London to the campgrounds.
5. All youth are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that is respectful and ensures the safety of themselves, other participants and mentors, presenters, and staff. This includes following forum rules as outlined at any point, staff instructions, campus rules, local, provincial, and federal laws and bylaws, and directions of any emergency personnel.
6. Failure to complete and/or adhere to this code of conduct may result in being separated and/or denied taking part in the camp until travel arrangements can be made (at the participant's expense) to be sent home.
