

PRONOUNS

WHAT ARE PRONOUNS?

The words used to refer to a person other than their name. We use pronouns all the time.

"She is going to the store."

"His coat is on the couch."

"I am going with them."

she/her/hers
they/them/theirs
he/him/his

some people use they/them pronouns!

"They are going out today."

"That ring is theirs."

MULTIPLE PRONOUNS

Some people use multiple sets of pronouns, like she/they. Use both sets of pronouns when referring to them.

"I like their outfit. She looks nice today."

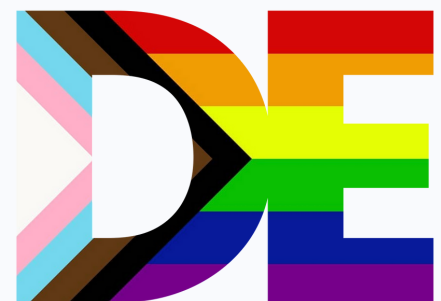

NEOPRONOUNS

Neopronouns are a new (neo) category of pronouns that are used in place of he, she, or they. Some examples are xe/xem/xyr and ze/hir/hirs.

"ze laughed when I told hir a joke."

ASK PEOPLE WHAT PRONOUNS THEY USE! AND REMEMBER, PRONOUNS ARE NOT PREFERRED, BUT ESSENTIAL.

DIVERSITYED
SAFER SPACES CANADA