Things Change in Brentwood... But Memories Remain

It was with sadness that I passed by and witnessed some of the demolition of the old Brentwood Bowling Lanes building on Manchester. I spent much time there, first when Mr. Bell gave us young people instructions on how to bowl. Later, I and many teenage friends bowled there countless times; such good memories! In the building above the Lanes was the old Air Force Filter Center, which during the 50's was operated for military protection. Air force men manned the Center, and we student volunteers wrote things on a tall glass map. This center was closed soon thereafter, as it was not needed anymore.

Moving along Brentwood Blvd, there were so many small businesses, including the Davenport Food Shop where students from No. 1 and Mark Twain visited often, Velvet Freeze, the shoe repairman, the printing company, Krogers, Colabianchi Hardware, service stations, Posch Drug store, the Post Office across the street, next to Gualdoni's Market, Mantias Liquor, Hal Jordan's office, Marty's Dress Shop, Rafferty's Gifts, etc. I could go on and on. Our families were good customers at these places.

Hoping in next issue to comment about north on Brentwood Blvd. and some other areas in the town.

RICHMOND HEIGHTS MEMORIAL LIBRARY TO HOST PORTRAITS OF AFRICAN AMERICAN WOMEN IN MISSOURI: BEFORE, DURING AND AFTER THE CIVIL WAR

On Thursday, February 23 at 6:30 p.m. the Richmond Heights Memorial Library will host Carole Shelton, acclaimed storyteller and member of the Missouri Humanities Council Speakers Bureau, as she presents Portraits of African American Women in Missouri: before, during and after the Civil War. This event will take place in the Library's program room. The Library is located on the 2nd floor of the HEIGHTS Community Center at 8001 Dale Avenue.

This program offers first and third person portrayals of Black women in Missouri, creating biographical sketches which illustrate the impact of enslavement and pending freedom upon their lives. Ms.

Shelton's presentation will focus on two icons of St. Louis history, Harriet Scott, wife of Dred Scott, and Annie Malone, businesswoman and philanthropist.

Carole Shelton is a retired educator from the St. Louis City Schools, a professional storyteller for more than twenty-five years and an author. As a storyteller it is a calling to share the real life experiences, the myths, the legends, and folk tales of all people. Story telling evokes the imagination, it empowers, it educates, and it entertains. It is through the art of storytelling that our actions can reach new heights and contribute so much more to ourselves, our families, our communities and the world.

This event is free and open to the public.

St. Louis-based Elite Cuisine and Kansas City's Superior Vend-All Combine Forces

Two long-time food service companies recently united with one goal in mind: to ultimately convert their merged businesses into a successful employee-owned and operated legacy.

Jim Schweppe, creator of St. Louis-based Elite Cuisine along with brothers Brian and Greg Porembski, founders of Kansas City's Superior Vend-All, merged their companies into the newly branded Apex Restaurant and Market Solutions, Inc. The integrated company – which has more than 200 employees with plans to add approximately 20 more in the next year – will evolve into an employee stock ownership plan (ESOP) within the next 18 months.

"Our consolidation was intentionally designed to transition into an employee-owned organization, one where we can reward our dedicated team members for their hard work," said Schweppe. "It's an exciting time for all of us because our employees have the chance to own part of a company that now has even bigger growth potential."

Founded in 2004, Elite Cuisine is a full-service provider that offers catering, micro markets, in-office cafes and coffee, and vending services for its corporate clients. Established in 1997 with offices in Kansas City and Sedalia, Superior Vend-All is Kansas City's largest independent micro market and vending provider.

The merger makes Apex the largest independently owned corporate food service company based in Missouri. Apex will feature over 250 micro markets located in office and manufacturing facilities across Missouri. These convenient self-checkout markets offer employees a wide selection of healthy food and quality beverage options. Nearly 10% of Apex's micro markets are hybrid facilities, which highlight a chef-prepared hot food component available for purchase.

Both Elite Cuisine and Superior Vend-All will maintain their offices at 314 Marshall Rd. in St. Louis, Mo., 3707 East 14th St. in Kansas City, Mo., and 2309 W. Main St. in Sedalia, Mo. The consolidated company plans to immediately expand by adding a Columbia, Mo. office to handle clients that include 3M and Good Day Farms. Current clients for Elite Cuisine include Burns & McDonnell, Enterprise Rent-A-Car, Maritz, and World Wide Technology. Superior Vend-All clients include Amazon, Smithfield Foods, Stanley Black & Decker, and Tyson Foods.

All three owners will manage the combined company as co-CEOs with Jim focusing on finances and human resources, Brian on business development, and Greg handling daily operations. Financial details were not disclosed.

For more information, call (866) 607-4400 and visit www.apexrefresh.com.

Orchid Show Returns to Missouri Botanical Garden

The beloved Orchid Show returns to the Missouri Botanical Garden this winter for the first time in three years.

See thousands of vibrant orchid blooms in nearly every color of the rainbow in the Garden's brand-new Emerson Conservatory. The Orchid Show is open January 28–February 26 during regular Garden hours, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday. The Orchid Show is included with general Garden admission.

The show is a once-a-year opportunity to see plants from the Garden's impressive large and diverse orchid collection. Different orchid species bloom at different times, so the Orchid Show is constantly changing as new orchids come into bloom and are brought out on display. The Emerson Conservatory opened at the end of 2022 as a new year-round conservatory at the Garden. Permanent displays of Mediterranean plants highlight plants from South Africa, Australia, and the Eastern Mediterranean. Many of these species are new to the Garden.

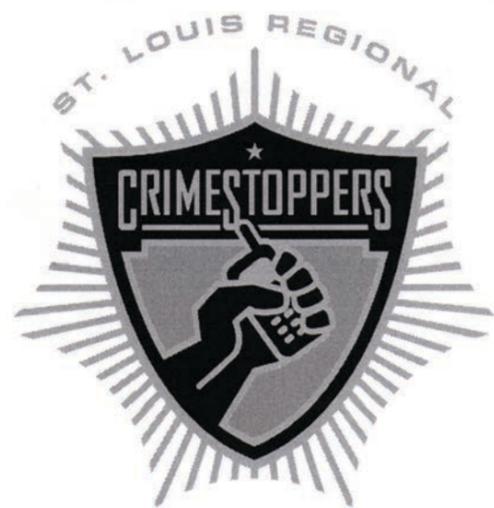

Orchid Nights offers a chance to see a special lighted viewing of the Orchid Show in the evening and include live music, drinks, and food for purchase. Orchid Nights will be from 6 to 8 p.m. February 9 and 23. Tickets are $15 for Garden members and $20 for nonmembers and include one drink ticket.

Orchid Show admission is included with general Garden admission ($14 for adults; $6 for St. Louis City and County residents, with free admission Wednesdays and Saturdays until noon; free for children ages 12 and younger).

The Missouri Botanical Garden is located at 4344 Shaw Blvd. in south St. Louis, accessible from Interstate 44 at the Vandeventer exit and from Interstate 64 at the Kingshighway North and South exit. Free parking is available on site and two blocks west at the corner of Shaw and Vandeventer.

Mayor gavel opened the Public Hearing.

Whitney Kelly presented the application stating that tenant is leasing the space and has been in this location since 2016, but license lapsed and requires Conditional Use Permit since the original documents cannot be found. # BRENTWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT

February 2023 News

Public Invited to New McGrath and BECC Grand Opening

The Brentwood School District invites the community to tour the new home of McGrath Elementary School and the Brentwood Early Childhood Center during a Community Open House event on Saturday, Feb. 25 from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. The new McGrath and BECC is located on the northwest corner of Litzsinger Road and High School Drive.

Construction on the 60,000-square-foot building was completed in December 2022. It features flexible, collaborative learning spaces that are designed to engage students and support innovative instruction. There are 18 total classrooms, as well as dedicated spaces for art, music, physical education, counseling, intervention and special education services.

The building has separate, secure main entrances for both McGrath and BECC that meet school safety and security best practices. This includes a visitor management system to screen guests in each main office before granting access to the rest of the school. The McGrath gymnasium also serves as an ICC 500 storm shelter, which meets FEMA specifications and provides near-absolute protection in extreme weather events.

This project was made possible by Prop E, a $29 million bond issue to enhance safety, accessibility and student learning at the district's two elementary schools and early childhood center. The building was designed by HTK Architects, managed by Navigate Building Solutions and built by ICS Construction.

"Opening a brand-new school is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity," said Superintendent Dr. Brian Lane. "This building will meet the needs of our students, families and community for generations to come, and we are excited to cut the ribbon, open the doors and welcome the new McGrath and BECC to the neighborhood."

Kindergarten Registration for the 2023-24 School Year

In accordance with Senate Bill No. 572, a student must be 5 years old before the first day of August to attend kindergarten. Students may only be registered by a parent or court-appointed legal guardian.

Early registration helps us identify our needs for the upcoming school year, so please share this information with your family, friends and neighbors. If you need assistance in determining your student's school, please call 314-962-4507.

Kindergarten registration packets for the 2023-24 school year are available on our district website at brentwoodmoschools.org/kindergarten. Completed packets, as well as any required documentation, can be dropped off at your student's school during regular school hours.

Senior Citizens Brunch Set for Thursday, March 30

Brentwood community members are invited to attend the district's annual Senior Citizens Brunch on Thursday, March 30 from 9:30-11 a.m. at the new home of McGrath Elementary School and the Brentwood Early Childhood Center (2350 St. Clair Ave.).

This FREE event includes a breakfast buffet, student entertainment and updates from district leaders. A guided tour of the new McGrath and BECC will also be available after the event. The parking entrance is on the east side of the campus on High School Drive.

Please RSVP by Wednesday, March 15 at brentwoodmoschools.org/rsvp or contact Kate Hastings at 314-962-4507 or khastings@brentwoodmoschools.org.

If you are in need of transportation, please contact the Brentwood Parks and Recreation Department at 314-963-8689 to learn more about the MAGIC Bus.

Swordsman Visits College Credit English Students at BHS

College Credit English IV students at Brentwood High School recently welcomed theatrical fight choreographer Michael Pierce to discuss the last act of Shakespeare's Hamlet, particularly the fight scene between Hamlet and Laertes. Students learned the historical context of the swords mentioned in the play, as well as how modern actors and choreographers approach a staged fight versus how it might have looked during the time of Shakespeare. After a thorough safety training, students had an opportunity to learn stage fighting techniques with lighter and safer versions of a long-bladed, single-handed sword.

Collaboration and Critical Thinking on Display at BMS

Seventh graders at Brentwood Middle School recently participated in the school's second annual Robot Drag Race. Students used the VEX Robotics platform to design, build and program robot dragsters capable of traveling as fast as possible for 20 feet and stopping on the red finish line. This activity was part of the Project Lead The Way course, which helps students learn more about mechanical systems, energy transfer, machine automation and computer control systems.

Kickstart Savings: Making the Most of Rising CD Rates

By: West Community Credit Union

Rates on Certificates of Deposit aren't just rising, they're soaring! If you're looking to kick-start your savings strategy, consider adding CDs to the mix.

CDs are seen as safe bets for saving or investing since they are federally insured and returns are guaranteed. And when CD rates go up, as they have in the past year, you'll earn more money.

CDs Work Best When...

- You want to protect your savings for something in the future. These may include saving for a down payment on a home or car. Whatever the goal, the money won't be used for years and can stay safely out of reach in CDs.

- You want to build short-term wealth. CDs with short terms, such as one or two years, can make sense if there's a plan to later invest that money. For example, if you want to invest a large sum in the market, you might spread out when you buy stocks or funds over time using a popular investing strategy called dollar-cost averaging. The money waiting to be invested could go into CDs to earn more interest than it would in a regular savings account.

- You want to ensure returns without risk. Investing in long-term CDs is generally best for people, typically retired, who want to avoid risking their money in the stock market. They also want to stop their savings from eroding because of inflation.

- CD ladders can be a useful strategy in a rising-rate environment

- A CD ladder is a way to spread out a large amount of money into multiple CDs of varying term lengths, such as one year, two years and three years. When each CD expires, you either withdraw funds if you need them or reinvest in another CD. If your financial institution has raised rates since you started the ladder, you benefit from higher rates with each new CD.

Financial advisors will usually encourage the ladder method when it comes to CDs. That said, if there's an attractive long-term rate that suits your portfolio — maybe it comes due when you'll need a new car or have to pay a college bill — by all means take advantage of it. It's really important to consider your particular situation and talk it over with your advisor so you know it will help you achieve your financial goals.

Overall, CDs are a safe form of savings that keep things simple, with the caveat you have to keep your hands off your funds for some amount of time. Whatever your future holds, we're positive it holds something worth saving for so take advantage of these fantastic rates and contact Member Services at 636.720.2400 or visit us online at westcommunitycu.org to learn more about opening a CD today!

Butterfly House Hosts 2023 Morpho Mardi Gras

The Butterfly House in Chesterfield reopened on Tuesday, January 31, with Morpho Mardi Gras. The reopening follows a month-long closure for annual maintenance.

The Butterfly House will be open 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday–Sunday from now to Feb. 21 for Morpho Mardi Gras: Bugs, Butterflies and Beads. Morpho Mardi Gras is a family-friendly opportunity to celebrate the Mardi Gras season as the Butterfly House as they flood the Tropical Conservatory with thousands of blue morpho butterflies.

The Butterfly House received the year’s first shipment of blue morpho butterflies last week from El Bosque Nuevo, the non-profit butterfly farm they partner with in Costa Rica. More than 1,200 morphos arrived in the shipment, when normal butterfly shipments would contain approximately 75 of this particular species. Hundreds more will be arriving in the coming weeks as the staff fills the Tropical Conservatory with a sea of blue morphos for the annual celebration.

In partnership with the National Blues Museum, the Butterfly House discovered parallels between blues music and butterfly biology, resulting in dynamic interpretive signage that discusses shared concepts of roots, scales, rhythm, migration, and diversity.

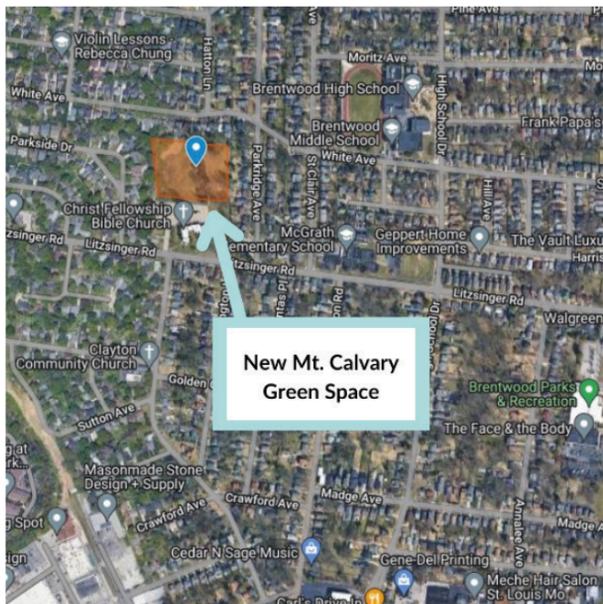

During “Bugs, Rhythm, and Blues”, on February 4 and 5, visitors will be entertained by the sounds of kid-friendly jazz, make festive crafts, and explore the “instrument petting zoo” with the National Blues Museum.

For additional information about the event and to purchase tickets, visit butterflyhouse.org

Brentwood Adds Two Green Spaces to Parks System

The City of Brentwood has purchased two new green spaces to add to our Parks system: the former Bi-State property near Marshall Avenue (6 acres) and the Mt. Calvary Chapel property (4 acres). These properties bring a combined 10 acres of green space for all to enjoy.

We are excited to seek community input about amenities to include in these new parks as part of the Parks master plan to be completed later this year.

February is National Children’s Dental Health Month

The American Dental Health Association annually reminds the public of the importance of tooth brushing and oral hygiene. Research confirms oral health matters for all ages as it is key to overall health and well-being. Tooth decay is identified as the most common childhood chronic disease, and cavities may occur in baby teeth. Parents and caregivers are encouraged to begin modeling healthy habits at a young age by teaching children to prioritize nutrition, brushing, and flossing.

“Families can make tooth brushing a regular, enjoyable activity to share,” explains Fouad Salama, BDS, MS, professor and specialty care unit director for pediatric dentistry at A.T. Still University-Missouri School of Dentistry & Oral Health (ATSU-MOSDOH) and the St. Louis Dental Center. “Our goal is to inspire children and parents or caregivers to adopt lifelong habits for oral healthcare at home and to make a bi-annual dental exam routine for the whole family.”

Suggested best practices at home include:

- Brush teeth in the morning and evening for two minutes with toothpaste containing fluoride.
- Brush gums gently, and brush all the way to the back of the mouth.
- Brush the tongue from the back to the front.
- Make tooth brushing fun with colorful brushes, accompanied by favorite songs or reading special books afterwards.
- Floss once a day if the child is old enough to understand flossing and has tight contact between teeth.
- Ensure a positive dental experience for children, building the foundation for lifelong oral health habits.
- Don’t forget to establish a “dental home” for your child by having a dental office/dentist no later than 12 months of age, as well as visit the dentist regularly for a cleaning and oral exam.

“It is imperative kids learn oral hygiene is critical for health,” emphasizes Poonam Jain, BDS, MS, MPH, vice dean for clinical affairs and advanced dental education, AT-SU-MOSDOH and the St. Louis Dental Center. “Brushing twice a day is one of the most important investments we can make in our health. It pays huge dividends!”

WGU Missouri Launches “I Have a Dream” Scholarship in Honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Scholarships now available for busy adults who dream of earning a bachelor’s or master’s degree

In celebration of the life and legacy of late civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., WGU Missouri has launched a scholarship aimed at supporting adults who have faced struggles in their lives that have prevented them from achieving their educational goals and moving forward in their careers. The “I Have a Dream” Scholarships are open to new and returning students enrolling in any of WGU Missouri’s 80-plus undergraduate and graduate degree programs in information technology, business, K-12 teacher education and health professions, including nursing.

The goal of the “I Have a Dream” Scholarships is to provide a more affordable and accessible pathway to encourage individuals to realize their dreams and work toward earning their college degrees. Each scholarship is valued at up to $4,000 and will be credited to students’ accounts at a rate of $1,000 per six-month term, renewable for up to four terms. The scholarship will be applied to WGU’s already low, flat-rate tuition of about $3,800 per six-month term. Applications are now being accepted online at missouri.wgu.edu/dream.

“As we reflect on the activism of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., who worked tirelessly to end the injustices of racial and economic inequality, we continue to be inspired by his vision for the future,” said Dr. Terrance Hopson, Regional Vice President of WGU Missouri. “In that spirit, we’re proud to offer this scholarship opportunity for working adults who have the courage to dream beyond what they thought was once impossible, the resilience to get up and try again, and the commitment to change their legacy for the better by earning a college degree from WGU Missouri with minimal financial barriers.”

The university’s “I Have a Dream” Scholarships will be awarded based on the students’ academic record, previous college experience, readiness for online study, current competency, as well as other considerations. Applications will be accepted through June 30, 2023.

Cardinal Ritter Senior Services Earns Prestigious Memory Care Certification

The nonprofit’s Mother of Perpetual Help residence is the first Missouri community to achieve Teepa Snow’s Positive Approach to Care (PAC) skills certification

Cardinal Ritter Senior Services (CRSS) – one of South County’s largest independent and assisted living nonprofit communities – and its Mother of Perpetual Help (MOPH) residence recently became Missouri’s first assisted living and memory care center to earn Teepa Snow’s Positive Approach to Care (PAC) community certification.

MOPH’s entire 80-person staff, from health care workers and administration to dining and activities employees, is now trained in this groundbreaking approach that focuses on brain change and care partnering. The PAC method – a program compiled of more than 30 years of peer-reviewed research from neurology, psychiatry, the social sciences, and adult learning – highlights services that enhance awareness and increase dementia care skills.

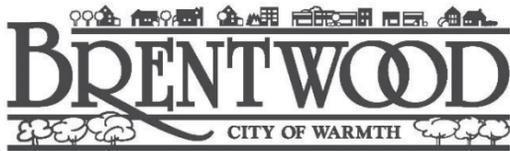

Through PAC training, caregivers gain a better understanding of dementia related behaviors, as well as learn positive communication and care partnering techniques that will change the way they approach and interact with someone affected by dementia. These learned techniques are designed to improve daily experiences and quality of life for residents, staff, and family members.

CRSS currently has three memory care communities that serve 66 older adults. Located within the assisted living and skilled nursing communities, CRSS provides specialized care for seniors living with memory loss caused by Alzheimer’s disease or other forms of dementia.

A $6.5 million, 20,000-square-foot memory care community expansion is scheduled to open in January 2023. The state-of-the-art development will feature two separated homelike neighborhoods of 13 residents each for a total of 26 residents.

“This certification emphasizes our commitment to each resident’s overall care in terms of establishing stronger personal connections and enhancing overall interactions,” said Cardinal Ritter Senior Services’ CEO Chris Baechle. “The PAC method is the perfect fit for our community because it integrates the industry’s most cutting-edge solutions when providing memory care services.”

Founded in 1961, Cardinal Ritter Senior Services (CRSS) creates communities that promote the dignity of human life and reflect the spirit of Jesus Christ. Nearly 7,000 of the ministry’s seniors – with 72% of the 2,500 directly served lacking adequate resources – benefit from housing options including independent or assisted living, memory care, affordable apartments, and skilled nursing communities. In addition to its main Shrewsbury campus located at 7601 Watson Rd., the nonprofit has a robust social services department. For more information about CRSS, call (314) 961-8000 or visit www.cardinalritterseniorservices.org.

Stay on Track with Dairy Snacks

Every January, individuals create New Year's resolutions to help keep them on track for the upcoming year. These resolutions can range from boosting physical activity to embracing healthy eating to quitting bad habits. Unfortunately, research shows that by the time February arrives, nearly 80% of Americans are no longer committed to them. Despite the drop in resolve, there are still ways to stay on track not only during February, but also throughout the entire year. One simple way is by powering up with dairy snacks.

Dairy foods are full of powerful nutrients like calcium, vitamin D, and protein to help keep bones, muscles, and bodies strong. These nutrients are important for all individuals, including pregnant moms, babies, teenagers, adults, and every age in between. "Even if an individual is no longer following a certain diet or health plan, adding dairy every day can help maintain physical strength and health while reaching the recommended three servings," states registered dietitian Maggie Cimarolli.

A dairy-packed snack adds nutrients and energy to head off a mid-morning or after-lunch slump. Snacks have been linked to improved concentration and comprehension in adults and students alike. Dairy foods are also an optimal choice to include in pre- or post-workout snacks. The protein in dairy helps to keep the body full and energized between meals and helps build and repair muscles after exercise. Dairy pairs well with other food groups, allowing an individual to get the most out of their snack. To create a power-packed snack, make sure to pair two or three of the five food groups together: dairy, fruits, vegetables, protein, and whole grains.

Smoothies are a quick grab-n-go option that calls for simply adding milk, yogurt, and fruits or vegetables to a blender. Using frozen fruit or adding ice will produce a colder, thicker beverage. Yogurt parfaits are another quick-fix nutritious mini-meal. Layer yogurt, fruit, and granola for a delicious snack that helps quell hunger in between meals. Mixing cottage cheese and fresh cut-up veggies like peppers, tomatoes, and cucumbers makes the perfect savory snack. Adding more flavors is as easy as sprinkling spices and seasonings like pepper, chives, fresh or dried herbs or garlic.

"The dairy case offers many snack choices and has something for everyone, including low fat and fat free varieties, as well as lactose-free products. This versatility allows consumers to tailor their power packed dairy snacks to their lifestyle," notes Cimarolli. Whether looking to curb hunger throughout the day, or searching for a family snack that everyone can enjoy, dairy fits into every diet and can help keep life on track in 2023.

For more information on power packed dairy snacks, visit our website at www.stldairyCouncil.org or contact Maggie Cimarolli with St. Louis District Dairy Council at (314) 835-9668 or mcimarolli@STLDairyCouncil.org. ## Pictorial St. Louis A Topographical Survey Drawn in Perspective A.D. 1875

This is a reprint of the 1971 version of the original book. The book was painstakingly scanned from the original in my collection. Each page is reproduced in high resolution and coil bound so the pages lay flat while viewing. Printed on 12" x 18" high quality acid free paper. A nice edition to your historical book collection. Perfect coffee table book as people are attracted by the cover art.

PICTORIAL ST. LOUIS: The Great Metropolis of the Mississippi Valley A Topographical Survey, Drawn From Perspective 1875.

Illustrations by Camille N. Dry and designed & edited by Rich. J. Compton.

Over 220 pages of illustrations and descriptions of life in St. Louis in the late 1800's. The preliminary drawings for this work were made early in the spring of 1874. After a careful consideration of the subject, it was determined to locate the point of view so that the city would be seen from the southeast, believing that to be the most advantageous in all respects. Accordingly, the point of site was established on the Illinois side of the river, looking to the northwest, and at sufficient altitude to overlook the roofs of ordinary houses into the streets.

A careful perspective, which required a surface of three hundred square feet, was then erected from a correct survey of the city, extending northward from Arsenal Island to the Water Works, a distance of about ten miles, on the river front; and from the Insane Asylum on the southwest to the Cemeteries on the northwest.

Every foot of the vast territory within these limits has been carefully examined and topographically drawn in perspective, by Mr. C. N. Dry and his assistants, and the faithfulness and accuracy with which this work has been done an examination of the pages will attest. Absolute truth and accuracy in the representation of the territory has been the standard and in no cases have additions or alterations been made unless the same were actually in course of construction. In a few cases, important public and private edifices that are not yet finished are shown completed, and as they will appear when done.

All the buildings within the limits of the survey in July, 1875, are shown; and a very large number of those executed or commenced since that date have been also introduced, the pages having been constantly corrected up to the last possible moment before publication.

This book is available from Gene-Del Printing for $75.00. Please call Keith at 314.962.4750 or email him at keith@genedel.com. You may also stop by our office at 9019 Manchester, 63144 in Brentwood to view the book.

Laumeier Sculpture Park Invites Visitors to Reflect with Spring Exhibition, Narcissus Garden by Celebrated Artist Yayoi Kusama

WHAT: A fully immersive exhibition and sculptural installation that invites visitors to traverse the pathways of nearly 1,000 mirrored spheres throughout Laumeier’s indoor gallery and interact with the reflective aspect of the sculpture, bouncing images of self and the architectural environment from different perspectives.

WHO: World-renowned Japanese artist Yayoi Kusama (b. 1929)

WHEN: On view February 11 - May 14, 2023. A reserved timed entry will be required for all visitors.

WHERE: Laumeier Sculpture Park, 12580 Rott Road, St. Louis, 63127. Inside the Aronson Fine Arts Center’s Whitaker Foundation Gallery.

WHY: This exhibition features a historically important work by a pioneering and internationally celebrated artist, and it is the first large-scale, solo exhibition of Kusama’s work in St. Louis. The spheres in Narcissus Garden are laid out like a manicured garden that embraces the inherent narcissism in the viewer’s desire to see themselves reflected in the mirrored surfaces. The shape of each sphere is also indicative of the sun and moon, and when activated, their surfaces represent the union of man and nature.

For 125 years, Wyman has believed in the power of teens.

Wyman was founded in 1898 to provide St. Louis youth with the opportunity for outdoor and character-building experiences. Over the last 125 years, our work has continually evolved as the world and needs of young people have changed. But one thing has remained the same: our commitment to teens.

Now, Wyman is part of the lives of more than 29,000 young people every year. By partnering with youth, our community, and youth-centered organizations across the country, Wyman empowers teens, equips adults, and strengthens systems to create more equitable opportunities for all young people; helping them prepare for the future they want.

Join us as we celebrate our first 125 years of service to young people in 2023!

Les Miz Cast and Crew Build Dressers at the Fox!!

25 members of the Les Misérables national tour cast and crew volunteered with Home Sweet Home, for a dresser build at The Fabulous Fox Theatre! The group built 28 dressers and donated them to be distributed to families with kiddos in need.

It was a rainy, cold morning outside, but inside the gorgeous theater lobby was warm and full of energy. Even the youngest cast members helped with the assembly and completed the first dresser in record time!

The Les Miz company gives back to every community they visit on their cross-country tour. And we're so grateful they chose Home Sweet Home for their St. Louis stop. They even challenged the Wicked and Beetlejuice companies to build even MORE dressers during their upcoming shows at the Fox later this year. A huge thank you to Les Miz U.S. and to The Fabulous Fox Theatre teams.

St. Louis Area Diaper Bank Hosts Third Annual Bloody Mary Brunch

The St. Louis Area Diaper Bank will hold its third annual Bloody Mary Brunch on Sun., March 26 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. The event – which includes Bloody Mary and mimosa bar and light brunch – will be held at the Diaper Bank's headquarters located at 6141 Etzel Ave. and is for those 21 years of age and older. Tickets are $50 per person, and all monetary donations will go to support the Diaper Bank's period supply program, which helps nearly one million girls and women annually with period kits.

Attendees will have the interactive opportunity to count, sort, and pack period supply kits for local school partners. Other activities include raffles, a glitterati selfie station, special guest speaker Jennifer Gaines from Alliance for Period Supplies, and a brief presentation about the agency's efforts to end period poverty in St. Louis.

The period supply program distributes period supplies through community partners and advocates for the elimination of "period poverty". To date more than two million period supplies have been distributed in St. Louis, with 75,000 period supplies allocated each week. Two-thirds of low-income women in St. Louis cannot afford menstrual hygiene products, with 46% of low-income women having to choose between food and period supplies.

Founded in 2014, the St. Louis Area Diaper Bank provides diaper and period supply access to the region's low-income families, as well as raises community awareness about the causes and consequences of diaper need and period poverty. The nonprofit is a member of the National Diaper Bank Network and its sister organization Alliance for Period Supplies, a nationwide nonprofit dedicated to eliminating diaper need and "period poverty" in America. The period supply program ensures access to menstrual hygiene products, which allows full participation in daily life with dignity.

For more information about the Bloody Mary Brunch or to donate, call (314) 624-0888.

2022 SEASON OF GIVING

As has been our tradition, Bilingual International Assistant Services hosted the agency's annual Season of Giving event on December 25, 2022. Twenty-three volunteer drivers plus friends and family, some coming as far as Columbia, Illinois and Weldon Spring, Missouri, gathered at our building that morning to pick up deliveries of gifts and meals for over one hundred older adult households. Anticipating increased opportunity for social visiting as compared to previous pandemic years, volunteers were given agency t-shirts for easy identification. Eleven additional volunteers assisted with other facets: picking up donated supplies, helping assemble tote bags, shuttling meals from the vendor to our office, and checking in volunteer drivers. Some volunteers even donated toothpaste, toothbrushes, and store-bought tote bags. This year certainly was the best in terms of direct volunteer donation! We also experienced the most robust client participation since pre-COVID years.

Agency outreach staff provided the names of financially needy clients, 50 years and older, living in St. Louis City and County, who would be at home on Christmas Day. We significantly increased our client base over the last three years to include 105 households, comprised of 160 individuals. Most recipients were either single or widowed, or married couples. Also included were two households with adult sisters, and two others with a mother and adult daughter. This year's clients ranged in age from 56-97. The nationalities of clients included: Russian, Albanian, Somali, Liberian, Mexican, Congolese, Greek, Romanian, Bosnian, Kosovar, Jordanian, Nepalese, Chinese, and Vietnamese. Members of seven households were US-born African American or Caucasian recipients of agency assistance with means-tested social services benefits.

Like prior years, clients received hand-crafted gifts and other items that were donated or purchased using our Will Flores Fund grant. This year's array of tote bags, winter hats and scarves, placemats, potholders, lap blankets, and terry cloth washcloths were collected from a variety of local crafters and seamstresses: Charity Sharity, Chilicthe Correctional Center inmates, church groups, and individuals. Contributions from merchants included: plastic packaging bags from Whole Foods and Fresh Thyme Market; note pads from Gene-Del Printing; toothpaste from Rock Hill Dentistry, Scott Air Force base (from an employee who also volunteered), dental providers and social contacts of other volunteers. Another volunteer who had intended to start a handmade soap business donated enough cases of bar soap to last us through next year! Will Flores funding allowed us to purchase colorful wall calendars for each household.

Albanian immigrant-owned Arber Café provided box meals, that could be reheated at the clients' convenience. The meals, plus tangerines were purchased with Will Flores funding. Clients also received cookies donated by Bello's Bakery and Little Angels Foundation.

Representing diverse spiritual beliefs (e.g., Buddhist, Muslim, Christian), all clients appreciated the gifts, meals, and visits from volunteers. During the weeks that followed, our staff heard many favorable comments from participants attending our reopened Macklind International Senior Center.

Volunteers were recruited through the United Way, Volunteer Match, and Just Serve portals and from our agency's volunteer roster. Everyone was required to send in a photo of their most recent vaccination card, sign a COVID waiver, and wear masks when picking up their deliveries from our office and bringing them to clients. Volunteers were scheduled for specific times to pick up for routes of 4-6 households. Although the weather was chilly, meals were distributed from our parking lot for easy access to volunteer vehicles. These measures worked well to avoid crowding in our office and facilitate expediency.

Feedback from volunteers was very positive:

"It was wonderfully run this year and you did a great job helping so many grateful people. I LOVED getting to participate."

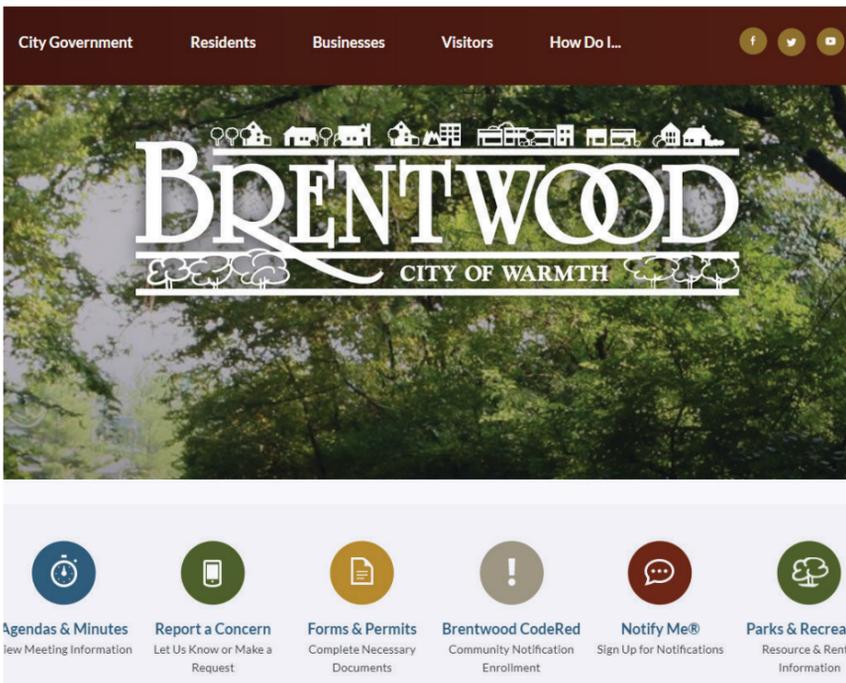

"I was so glad to do this with my family. My daughter asked to do a volunteer project on Christmas day, and we felt positive about our experience. The clients that could meet all four of us in our family beamed and seemed quite grateful. It was not just the material items that seemed to matter, but the personal touch."

"Thanks again for a great volunteer experience. I enjoyed volunteering today. Such a thoughtful and well done project, Bravo!"

"It was an outstanding way to serve on Christmas Day. We are very grateful for the opportunity."

 DO add to the Recycling Bin:
 Paper
 Flattened Cardboard
 Plastic Bottles and Containers

 Metal Food and Beverage Cans
 Food and Beverage Cartons
 Keep these items loose (not bagged), clean and dry. Place these in your recycling container; do NOT place recyclable items in a trash bag or plastic bag.

RECYCLING TIPS

Labels may remain on cans and bottles.
 Glass is usually broken during collection or transit, so the lids may be on or off the bottles.
 Metal lids may remain with metal cans or be separated, since magnets collect the steel products.
 Recycling centers prefer that you leave the plastic cap on a plastic bottle so that the caps do not fall out of the conveyor system.

Pizza Is Pizza, Until...

Pizza Is Pizza, Until you visit Flingers Pizza Pub in Bloomington, Illinois. Bloomington/Normal is a college town, so you know there will be a lot of pizza joints, some good, some bad, most average and a few that are exceptional. Flingers Pizza Pub is definitely fantastic! They have won many Readers Choice Awards including best overall restaurant in 2020, '21 and '22, Best Pizza award in 2017, '18, '19, '20 and '21, and Best Pub in 2017, '18, '19, '20, '21 and '22.

There is nothing fancy about Flingers. They simply serve perfect pizzas, in many configurations along with a large number of craft beers on tap.

Flingers have nine appetizers including two that are sure to be of interest, a beer cheese bacon dip, and smoked gouda mac bites; smoked gouda cheese, macaroni and bacon that is breaded and deep fried.

Flingers multi-page menu includes many unique items such as Flinger Rolls, baked, rolled pizza dough stuffed with three cheeses and basted with garlic Parmesan butter. These go perfectly with one, or more, of their nine dipping sauces that include ranch, spicy ranch, marinara, nacho cheese, sour cream, au jus, BBQ sauce, blue cheese and garlic. FYI, the garlic sauce is really strong garlic!

Now let's talk about the pizzas. Cheese Bombs are just that, no red sauce, just a buttery pan crust topped with a three cheese blend and your choice of eight various toppings, or build your own. These all come with your choice of dipping sauces. Come hungry, these are definitely a "load".

Next are the fourteen different Craft pizzas, or a build your own toppings configuration. They are nine protein toppings to choose from, including smoked pulled chicken and Italian beef. There are more than enough choices for any appetite.

Flingers also serves wings. You have a choice of thirteen different flavors and levels of heat.

If you left room for dessert they serve a cinnamon roll Sweetza with cinnamon, brown sugar and cream cheese icing on a thin crust. Another must try is a 1/4lb skillet baked chocolate chip cookie topped with three scoops of vanilla ice cream, whipped cream and cherries. WOW!

Flingers is also a well stocked pub with twenty-five craft beers that change on a regular basis. They also have Growlers (64oz jug), and Howlers (32oz jug) as carry outs, or drive-through pickups. They also have a fully stocked bar that includes ciders, seltzers, cocktails, and spirits.

We were there on a Sunday evening with three family members and we had three different pizzas, and a couple of appetizers. We didn't have room for any desserts. In fact, we took home a large box of leftovers that easily made another entire meal. Pizzas come in two sizes' 14", less than $22 and 12", less than $18. This very reasonable pricing for the size and quality of these pizzas.

We found the service to be excellent. Our server was polite, quick and efficient. The atmosphere has a typical sports pub feel. TVs are viewable from any location. The walls are decorated with lots of craft beer posters that were actually more like works of art.

There is nothing to take exception to at Flingers, other than the fact that I would love to see a location in the St. Louis area.

Flingers Pizza Pub is located at 1503 East Vernon, just east of Veteran's Parkway in Bloomington, Illinois.

You will find everything you want to know at their website: Flingerspizzapub.com

SAM THE COOKING GUY

Tri Tip & Charred Onion Enchiladas

1 Tri Tip, anywhere from 1.5 to 2 pounds

Neutral oil

BBQ seasoning

1 large yellow onion, sliced

1/2 cup beef broth

2 tablespoons minced chipotle peppers

2 cups beef broth

2 cups whipping cream

2 cup shredded Monterey jack cheese

Ten 6 inch flour tortillas

Tomatillo salsa

Take trip out of fridge 45 minutes before cooking

Set up grill for 2 zone cooking (charcoal would be ideal here, just sayin)

Lightly oil tri tip, season liberally with the BBQ rub and put on the hot/direct side of grill

Sear both sides, 3-4 minutes to get grill marks, then move to indirect side to finish

Cook, turning often until done to your liking, let's call that about 135 degrees - remove and let rest

While it cooks, put a cast iron pan on your grill or stove and heat on high about 5 minutes

Add 2 tablespoons of oil, and put in the onions - cook, stirring often until they char and really start to soften, about 5 minutes - and if your doing this inside, you better turn on your fan

Add 1 cup of the beef broth and chipotles, stirring well to mix through, and when most of the liquid is gone - remove and set aside

Preheat oven to 350

When the tri tip has cooled a bit, thinly slice a pound of it and put into a bowl

Rough chop the onions and add them to the beef along with one cup of the cheese - mix well

Pour one cup of the cream into a 12 inch cast iron pan

Put remaining broth in a shallow bowl, and submerge a tortilla, remove and put on the counter

Add some of the mixture, roll up tightly and put seam side down into the pan - repeat with remaining tortillas

Pour remaining cream over the top, sprinkle with final cup of cheese, and drizzle some of the tomatillo salsa over the top

Bake, about 30 minutes or until beginning to get brown and bubbly

Yum

Who Built Ste. Genevieve, MO?

By Sue McCarthy

Architectural styles: Post-in-ground (poteaux-en-terre) see the Bauvais-Amoureux House. The house was built in 1792 for Jean Baptiste Bauvais, a son of one of the first residents in 1763 of Ste. Genevieve. After being flooded several times many of the residents relocated further up the hill near the rich farmland of le Grand Champ.

Green Tree Tavern: The oldest known building constructed in 1790 in French Colonial (poteaux-sur-sole) vertical logs on the exterior walls rest on a wooden sill on a stone foundation. It was built with a raised basement and a wraparound porch. A method called dendrochronology determines the date of the wood.

The house was built for the Janis family, they lived there for 40 years. They had fifteen enslaved people with the family. Clarisse was one of the enslaved people and she was considered "property." After the owner, Nicholas Janis dies, Clarisse was willed to a son Francois along with the house. She received her freedom in 1836. She bought her own home, currently known as the Bequette-Ribault House. In 1807, Louisiana Masonic Lodge 109 was formed and lost its charter and then in 1826 a new lodge was formed.

German influence. By 1860 there were more Germans than French in the settlement. Beginning in 1830, the Zieglers settled in Ste. Genevieve and the church began offering services and publications in German. French Canadians, as well as, eastern American Indian Nations crossed over the Mississippi River. The German influence is still noticeable in the culture and architecture.

In 1827, Mathias Ziegler joined in business with John Baptiste Valle. Mathias manufactured tobacco and Jean Baptiste ran the general store. Merchandise sold included: bread, beer, brandy, cigars, rubs and glasses. Mathias died in 1835 leaving his wife Barbara to run the tavern and tobacco shop with the Ziegler family until the 1850s.

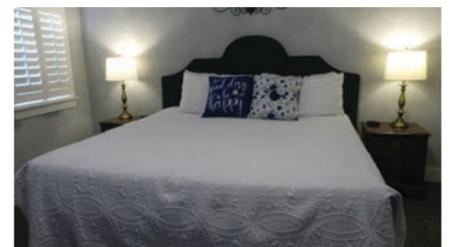

Francis Ziegler, a son, closed the family business and became the sole owner in 1860, his mother lived there until she died in 1862. The Ziegler family stayed in the home until into the 20th century.

Jean Baptist Valle House was home to Jean Baptiste Valle, the last commandant of Ste. Genevieve. The position served as contact for colonial governors and townspeople until his death in 1849. The home was constructed in 1794 and was a private home until 2010.

During this time period of 200 years the territory switched from Spanish to French.

Maison Bolduc House (poteaux sur solle) posts-on-sill. 1792. The walls of the house were built with heavy oak timbers, set six inches apart, then filled with (bousillage) a mixture of mud, straw, and horsehair which hardened to a cement-like texture. This was a traditional French Colonial structure. The house is surrounded by a stockade fence. There is an outdoor kitchen and garden.
