

Michael Goodwin and Pique Entertainment Present

The Musicals of the 60s Part 1

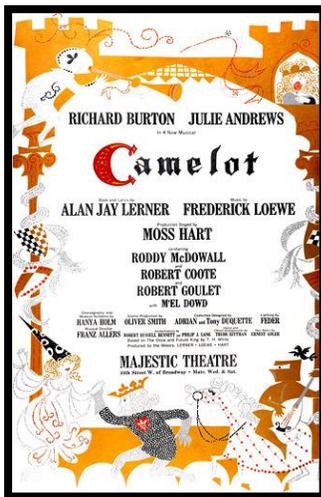

Welcome to the 60s!

We start off across the pond in England with Camelot. Then we delve into the underbelly of London in Oliver! We finish up by saying Hello, Dolly! with many more shows in between.

Michael will perform various numbers, and he will also lecture, show video clips, and provide “hidden histories.”

As always, there will be singing, lecture, video clips from various shows, and many opportunities to participate.

As always, we encourage everyone to sing out and have fun.
