The Golden Age of Musical Theater Part 1

What makes a classic a classic? Great music? Memorable songs? Or is there a little magic that it's hard to put your finger on?

We'll have fun finding the answer in this 4-part series on the Golden Age of Musical Theater that starts with Oklahoma!, then Annie Get Your Gun, South Pacific, and others.

There will be singing, lecture, video clips from various shows, and many opportunities to participate.

We always encourage everyone to sing along and get involved.
