

Michael Goodwin and Pique Entertainment Present

The Modern Classics of Musical Theater Part 1

Starting in the 80s there was a revival of the Broadway musical. 42nd Street “kicks off” Part 1 of The Modern Classics with some amazing footwork. Then we’ll go through the 80s, 90s, and to the shows of today.

Some will be favorites, and some will be brand new.

All of them will be entertaining!

As always, there will be singing, lecture, video clips from various shows, and many opportunities to participate.

We always encourage everyone to sing along and get involved.
