

Michael Goodwin and Pique Entertainment Present

The Golden Age of Musical Theater Part 3

Come join us!

The third installment of this series starts with Damn Yankees. Then we try our luck with Guys and Dolls followed by a little Gypsy. We learn how to polka with The King and I, and we finish up with the Sound of Music.

As always, there will be singing, lecture, video clips from various shows, and many opportunities to participate.

We always encourage everyone to sing along and get involved.
