Do you love Dogs??

Would you like to make a REAL difference in the lives of dogs in need? Volunteering at the WAG shelter is a wonderful, fulfilling experience. You may feel Volunteering with a rescue would be depressing and stressful. It is just the opposite...ask one of the Volunteers! At the Shelter, many of the dogs have been saved from being euthanized. Now with a new lease on life, you will be helping them on their journey to a loving home.

So many happy endings!!!

Our shelter not only has comfortable, safe kennels to protect the dogs, we also have large, fenced paddocks for them to run and play. There are 2 shifts at the shelter every day. The dogs are fed and the kennel is cleaned. The dogs get lots of playtime in the paddocks, walks and the opportunity to have loving interaction with the Volunteers. Each shift takes approximately 2 to 3 hours. The more Volunteers we have, the lighter the load on everyone and the dogs get more personal time for training and affection. Can you find time for one shift? It can be some of the most fulfilling work you will ever do.
