Wedding and Event Coordinating Packages

Our goal at La Bella Vita is to pull together all the details of YOUR event so you can have the best day ever. We take care of all the extra tasks so you, your family, and your friends are free to enjoy the day.

Full Planning
Unsure on where to start? Overwhelmed by which tasks to tackle first or what venues and vendors are out there and fit your style and budget? For full planning, design consulting, creative ideas, rehearsal, and day-of coordination, we will make sure all aspects of your event are covered and hold your hand each step of the way. You simply tell us how you want your day to look and feel, then show up and enjoy. Full planning also includes help selecting your venue, hiring your vendors, designing all print materials, implementation of your event concept, timeline, budget, and logistics. This means we will be by your side every step of the way to make sure all details are implemented, and your vision comes to fruition. This includes frequent communication with you, updating and maintaining your wedding Task List and Budget, payment reminders, and attending scouting meetings with you to help make each detailed decision throughout the process. Rehearsal and wedding day coordination included.

Partial Planning
For partial planning, we act as your support system. You will be given a detailed Task List and budget assistance so you can monitor your payments and progress. We will send you a list of vendor and venue recommendations based on your unique wedding style and budget, and we will review contracts and help you book each vendor. We help you bring your vision to life. We will answer any and all questions from the day you begin planning. Rehearsal and wedding day coordination included.
