

Special Invitation

Dear Contractor,

On behalf of the new Federal Contractors Chamber of Commerce (FCCoC), this letter serves as an informal introduction but a personal invitation to partner in our (Jacksonville, Florida) framework of Department of Defense (DoD) and Civilian federal contractor resources, education, and contractor business support service.

The Federal Contractors Chamber of Commerce (FCCoC) is not your traditional chamber; we act only in the interest of the federal contractor community. We serve as a national federal contracting think tank and strategic industry forum, focused on strengthening the readiness, capability, and resilience of the United States federal contractors' industrial base.

Mission Execution

To forge an army of federal contractors and organizations throughout the nation—trained, equipped, and mission-ready to retool their operations and deploy resources at a moment's notice for supporting our nation's new readiness requirements.

Strategic Positioning

FCCoC is strategically positioning the Jacksonville contractor community as a mission-critical partner in advancing national operational readiness. Through deliberate alignment with our nation's priorities, we are reinforcing the State of Florida's commitment to defense preparedness and the needs of the Department of Defense-War.

FCCoC Memberships

FCCoC delivers a tiered, mission-aligned membership architecture—engineered to equip contractor businesses at every stage of maturity with the tools required to compete and execute in the federal marketplace. Each platform is deliberately structured to provide targeted access to advanced education, strategic advisory, acquisition intelligence, operational resources, and high-value industry engagement—ensuring members are not only informed, but fully equipped to navigate, penetrate, and perform within the federal acquisition environment.

Chamber[U] – The School of Federal Contractors

All Chamber[U] learning is equal to the standards set for today's federal acquisition professionals, focusing on the rules, processes, procedures, statutes, and laws governing the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR). Members develop the practical skills needed to operate and articulate themselves whether in a theory-based scenario, real world- application, or Case law learning.

Defense Business Enterprise (DBE)

FCCoC -Defense Business Enterprise operates as the command authority and execution arm of the organization—engineered to synchronize member industrial capabilities with national defense priorities at scale. Purposefully built for precision and readiness, (DBE) ensures our members are not only postured to compete but positioned to deliver in direct support of national security objectives.

Defense Business Enterprise (DBE)-Executive Membership

FCCoC- Defense Business Executive Level Membership, our premier tier, designed for senior leaders, growth-stage firms, and established contractors operating or preparing to operate—at the highest levels of the federal marketplace.

As Your Ally and Advocate

FCCoC stands postured to support, advance, and advocate for the expansion of your organization's role within the federal contracting arena. Through deliberate alignment with federal acquisition stakeholders, strategic industry partners, and mission-focused engagement channels—including executive roundtables and direct interface with acquisition professionals—we ensure your organization is positioned with operational clarity, regulatory precision, and competitive advantage.

For additional intelligence, we direct you to review our official platform at federalcontractorchamberofcommerce.com. Should you determine that the Federal Contractors Chamber of Commerce (FCCoC) mission aligns with your organization's strategic objectives, we invite you to formally submit your membership application, accompanied by all requisite supporting documentation for structured evaluation.

For executive-level engagement or to coordinate directly with FCCoC leadership, you may contact me at 904.803.2576 or via email at JGrismore@federalcontractorschamberofcommerce.com.

We remain mission-ready to deliver decisive access, enforce strategic alignment, and engineer acquisition-ready positioning—ensuring your organization is not only prepared to enter the federal marketplace, but equipped to compete, win, and execute with sustained performance across the federal contracting lifecycle.

Respectfully,

Joey M. Grismore
